

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. REPORT.

GENTLEMEN OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC EDUCATION OF THE FIRST SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA :

In presenting this, my last annual report, it gives me great pleasure to say that the various committees have discharged their duties faithfully, and with marked ability, and I feel greatly indebted to them for the success which has attended the labors of the Board.

The following is a statement of the number of schools in operation during the year 1878, and the number of pupils attending them :

| | | | | | |
|----------------------|---|---|---|---|--------|
| Central High School, | - | - | - | - | 462 |
| Girls' Normal, | - | - | - | - | 930 |
| School of Practice, | - | - | - | - | 300 |
| 64 Grammar Schools, | - | - | - | - | 15,443 |
| 29 Consolidated " | - | - | - | - | 7,418 |
| 137 Secondary " | - | - | - | - | 27,022 |
| 240 Primary " | - | - | - | - | 52,422 |

A total of 473 Schools, having an aggregate of 103,997 pupils.

The increase in the number of schools over 1877, was 13.

The total attendance at the close of 1878 was - 103,997

The total attendance at the close of 1877 was - 101,924

Showing an increase of - - - 2,073

The following is a statement of the pupils in the schools at the close of 1878:

| SCHOOLS. | Male. | Female. | Total. |
|--------------------------|--------|---------|---------|
| High..... | 462 | | 462 |
| Normal | | 930 | 930 |
| School of Practice | | 300 | 300 |
| Grammar | 7,499 | 7,944 | 15,443 |
| Consolidated..... | 3,892 | 3,526 | 7,418 |
| Secondary..... | 13,090 | 13,932 | 27,022 |
| Primary | 27,097 | 25,325 | 52,422 |
| Total | 52,040 | 51,957 | 103,997 |

| | | | |
|--------------------------------|---|---|---------|
| Attending January 1, 1878, | - | - | 102 377 |
| Admitted during 1878, | - | - | 66,485 |
| Left during 1878, | - | - | 64 865 |
| Remaining December 30th, 1878, | - | - | 103,997 |
| Average attendance, | - | - | 91,754 |

|--|---|---|----------------|
| The amount appropriated by City Councils for the support of the schools for 1878 was | - | - | $1,515,896 80 |
| Bills of 1876, | - | - | 19,100 79 |
| Brought from books of 1877, | - | - | 312 74 |

|----------------------------------|---|---|----------------|
| | | | $1,535,310 33 |
| Amount expended during the year, | - | - | 1,486,656 99 |

| | | | |
|--------------------------------|---|---|-------------|
| Merged into the City Treasury, | - | - | $48,653 34 |
|--------------------------------|---|---|-------------|

The Central High and Girls' Normal Schools, through their efficient instructors, are a growing power for good. They should be liberally supported.

The Night Schools are of inestimable value, and should receive a more generous appropriation.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES LONG,

President.

Committee
Central High School.

The report of the Central High School for the year ending December 31, 1878, is herein submitted. The course of study was as follows :

COURSE OF STUDY IN THE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL.

| | | | | | | | |
|----------|---|----------------------------------|--------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------|
| A | Logic, Composition; Elocution, English Literature. | Astronomy. | Latin. | Mental Science. | Physics; Chemistry. | Anatomy; Physiology. | Mechanical and Engineering Drawing. |
| B | Logic; Composition; Elocution. English Literature. | Uranography; Calculus. | Latin. | Mental Science. | Physics; Chemistry. | Anatomy; Physiology. | Mechanical and Engineering Drawing. |

| H | Composition; English Literature. | Algebra; Geometry. | | History. | German. Nat. History; Phys. Geog. | Higher Arithmetic. | Linear Perspective. |

Each letter represents a class, "H" being the lowest and "A" the highest in grade. The studies of each class occupy a term or half a year, so that the course covers four years.

Again, as in 1877, no new class was admitted in February. Consequently, during the Eightieth Term (February to June, 1878), there were no classes pursuing the studies assigned in said course to "F" and "H," and during the Eighty-first term (June, 1878, to February, 1879), there were none pursuing the studies assigned to "E" and "G."

The new department of "English Literature," under Professor Wilson, went into operation in February, and gives promise of highly satisfactory results.

Professors Hopper and Bartine also occupied their new chairs at the same time, and are working with good effect.

Professor Meeks entered upon his duties on the 2d of January. He was carrying on the work of his department with unsurpassed skill and fidelity, and had already accomplished results which commanded the admiration of all, when sudden death interrupted his career and forever removed him from the sphere of usefulness which he so successfully filled. He was thrown from his horse on the afternoon of the 19th of November and was almost instantly killed. Short as his term of official connection with the school had been, he had won the affection of both his colleagues and pupils, and his memory will ever be sacred to each one of them. To the school his loss is well-nigh irreparable, and by the community at large he will be missed, not merely as a teacher but as a citizen who in many other ways served and benefited his fellow creatures. To myself his death was, in every sense, a bereavement, and I shall never cease sincerely and deeply to mourn for him.

Fortunately the vacancy caused by this melancholy event was not of long continuance. The Committee on the school, on the fourth day of December, unanimously elected Dr. Franklin Taylor to fill the chair. Dr. Taylor entered at once upon his duties, and on the twentieth day of December the action of the Committee was confirmed by the Board of Public Education.

The average attendance for 1878 was 443.01. As anticipated, this is less than in 1877, owing to the fact that no class was admitted in February of either 1877 or 1878. Hereafter two classes per annum will be admitted, as heretofore, and the school will only too soon regain its over-crowded condition.

In anticipation of this, it will be well to consider some practicable and not too costly way of extending the school building so that the increasing numbers desiring to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by the institution may be accommodated within its walls. Attention has before been directed to this matter, and yet nothing has been done. It cannot, therefore, be deemed premature to refer again to it now, in view of the near approach of the necessity for more room, and the long time required to secure official action on the part of the proper authorities. The importance of the subject warrants an earnest and urgent appeal to those who have the responsibility to take up the question with as little delay as possible.

The usual notices of the commencement exercises, in February and June, 1878, are appended, together with lists of those who received degrees and certificates and who were declared distinguished and meritorious.

The tendency that has prevailed of late years to extend the curriculum of most higher schools and colleges, so as to embrace, as far as possible, a smattering of almost every branch and subdivision of knowledge, is gradually being counteracted. In this school the evil effects of such a course were long ago recognized, and no opportunity of judiciously narrowing the range of studies, and increasing correspondingly their thoroughness, has been missed. An examination of the programme of studies, as submitted in this report, will show that there are few if any superfluous branches, and that the various departments practically supplement each other. For example, four are the connected links of a chain of mathematical study. Four others unite to form a course of language and literature, and three are closely related and fundamental branches of natural science. Thus there are left but three independent chairs, whose necessity will be admitted without hesitation, viz., political economy and intellectual philosophy, history and mechanical and engineering drawing. The difficulties which are encountered in the practical working of the institution arise, therefore, not from the multiplicity or distracting variety of the studies, but from the undue size of the classes and from the defective preparatory training of many of the students admitted into the school. The advantages of the school are sought by so many that the professors are often unable to do full justice to themselves or to their students.

Although owing to the fact already stated that but one class was admitted in 1877, and but one in 1878, the numbers in attendance have been somewhat reduced, the resumption of the system of semi-annual admissions will soon overcrowd the school, and the evil is already experienced in some of the classes. In 1879 the school will contain about six hundred, and the following year, 1880, will, in all probability, carry the numbers up to seven hundred, which figure it will be remembered was very nearly reached a few years ago, prior to the temporary alteration of the method of admission. A still more serious evil, however, is the unprepared and undeveloped condition of the minds of many of the students promoted into the institution. The desire to gain admission seems to outweigh with both parents and children the terrible injury which results to both the intellect and the character of youth who, in spite of all rules to the contrary, are forced into a grade of school for which they are not either mentally or morally ready.

The cry should, therefore, not be against the higher education, which is one of the greatest safeguards of the State, nor against its cost, which, in this city at least, is not appreciable, but against the wresting of so inestimable a privilege from the boys who can improve it, in order to confer it on others who are unfit for it, and therefore unable to make use of it with benefit to themselves or to society.

Erroneous statements have of late appeared in the public journals, both as to the cost per capita of the High School and as to the nature and results of its course of study, which, what has just been said will serve in some measure to correct. Perhaps if those who recklessly made these assertions would take the trouble to inform themselves as to the facts of which they are so conspicuously ignorant, there would be displayed a more generous feeling towards a school which for forty years has been quietly but effectually doing a useful work in the community.

If there is one want that is felt more than any other in this country, it is that of mental training. In every department of labor the great demand is for men who can think, and so guide with intelligence both their own actions and the actions of others. There are few minds, however gifted, which can ever attain the capacity for clear and sustained thought without the systematic training which the higher schools provide, and such training should therefore be within the reach of all who can use it with advantage. Such minds are not, however, confined to the wealthier classes, who can purchase their own education; nor yet are they confined to classes who are willing to accept as a charity what they cannot afford to buy. On the contrary they often belong to those who, without just such schools as this, would never receive the development which alone can qualify them to be of service to the community in which they live. As to the benefit of the training received at this school, practical illustrations are constantly forthcoming. On the bench, at the bar, and in the medical profession, alumni of the school are daily assuming more and more prominent positions. Its graduates have, only recently, taken the foremost prizes and honors at the commencement of a leading medical college, and the walks of business and industrial life are crowded with young men whose faculties have been developed and quickened by its course of study.

May the hope be indulged therefore, that the citizen who is disposed to question the usefulness of the institution will visit it and see for himself what its claims on the taxpayer really are.

GEO. I. RICHIÉ,
President.

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL.

COMMENCEMENT SEVENTY-NINTH TERM, ENDING FEBRUARY 14th, 1878.

After prayer by the Rev. Charles W. Buoy, addresses were delivered by the following members of the graduating class, viz:—Messrs. Julius C. Levi (Fourth Honor), Harry W. Autenrieth (Third Honor), Ormond Rambo (Second Honor), H. Leslie Morse, Charles M. P. Grayson, E. Augustus Miller, and Joseph L. Greenwald.

A Masters' Address was delivered by Wm. H. Peterman, Esq., of the Class of February, 1873, and the Valedictory Address was delivered by Mr. Alexander J. D. Haupt, of the graduating class.

The First Honor was awarded to Mr. Cornelius D. Mecutchen.

The announcement of those entitled to Certificates of Qualification to Teach was made by Mr. James Long, President of the Board of Public Education.

The exercises were interspersed with music by Hassler's Orchestra.

REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL
OF THE
GIRLS' NORMAL SCHOOL
FOR THE

Year ending December 31st, 1878.

TO MESSRS. SIMON GRATZ, M. P. HUTCHINSON, JOHN M. CAMP-BELL, WILLIAM Y. COLLADAY, A. S. JENKS, RICHARDSON, L.
WRIGHT, GEORGE F. BARKER, JAMES LONG and CHARLES F.
ABBOT.

GENTLEMEN:—In conformity with an established custom, the annual report of this school for the year ending December 31st, 1878, comprising parts of the fifty-eighth and fifty-ninth terms, is respectfully submitted.

The Normal School is, from the character of its organization, closely identified with the entire system of public schools in the First School District of Pennsylvania. Those who desire to study our public school system naturally look with special interest to this institution, both as regards its internal arrangements and external relations. Perhaps no school in the country is more honored in the number and character of its visitors. During the year just ended there were, exclusive of Members of the Board of Education, two thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven. The greatest number on any one day was one hundred and seventy-one. They come not only from our city, our State and our country, but nearly every foreign land is represented in the numbers that inspect the class rooms, patiently listening to the recitations, and examining the methods of teaching. Of these visitors a few are prompted by mere curiosity; but the majority are educators, with a problem to solve, the great problem of the age "How to teach?" They are deeply interested in "Methods." They want the best. They are diligent searchers for a new truth in the science of teaching, or for an old truth in a new dress. Appreciative grateful words are not wanting, but their presence is a higher compliment than any eulogy they can utter.

ADMISSIONS.

The following statement shows the number of pupils in attendance at the beginning and end of the year, also the number admitted and withdrawn since the last report:

| | | | | | | |
|--|---|---|---|---|---|-----|
| Attending school, January 1, 1878, | - | - | - | - | - | 921 |
| Graduated or discontinued, from January 1, 1878, to June 20, 1878, | - | - | - | - | - | 301 |
| Remaining, | - | - | - | - | - | 620 |
| Admitted at the close of the term, | - | - | - | - | - | 325 |
| Never attended, | - | - | - | - | - | 5 |
| Attending school September 1, 1878, | - | - | - | - | - | 940 |
| Discontinued, from September 1, 1878, to December, 31, 1878, | - | - | - | - | - | 10 |
| Attending school December 31, 1878, | - | - | - | - | - | 930 |

Since the establishment of the school in February, 1848, five thousand four hundred and eighty names have been registered. Of this number two thousand two hundred and ninety-eight have graduated, and two thousand five hundred and seventy-eight have been appointed to situations as teachers. Of those now engaged in the public schools of this city as teachers, nearly eighty per cent. have been pupils in this school.

The following statement will serve to show to what extent, at the present time, the graduates desire to engage in teaching:

| | | | | | | |
| Left during the year by graduation, | - | - | - | - | - | 147 |
| Left during the year before graduation, | - | - | - | - | - | 149 |
| Never attended, | - | - | - | - | - | 5 |
| Total, | - | - | - | - | - | 301 |

| | | | | | | |
|--|---|---|---|---|---|------------|
| Graduates of this year engaged in teaching during the same period, | - | - | - | - | - | 24 |
| Appointed to situations as teachers before graduation, | - | - | - | - | - | 3 |
| Graduates of this year still unemployed and desiring to teach, | - | - | - | - | - | 110 |
| Graduates who do not intend to teach, | - | - | - | - | - | 13 |
| Left on account of ill health, | - | - | - | - | - | 7 |
| Left in consequence of being needed at home, | - | - | - | - | - | 37 |
| Admitted but never attended, | - | - | - | - | - | 5 |
| Left on account of failure at examination, | - | - | - | - | - | 102 |
| Total, | - | - | - | - | - | 301 |

|--|---|---|---|---|---|-----|
| Graduates of this and previous years appointed to situations as teachers, | - | - | - | - | - | 110 |
| Graduates of this and previous years still unemployed and desiring to teach, | - | - | - | - | - | 255 |

At the close of the examination held in June three hundred and twenty-five pupils were admitted from the Girls' Grammar Schools, after an examination in Reading, Penmanship, Orthography, Grammar, Parsing, History of the United States, Geography, Definitions, Composition and Arithmetic. While the present plan of admissions furnishes better pupils than that formerly in operation, it fails to supply the best of those who desire to become teachers. From the foregoing statement it will be seen that many, after frequent trials, fail utterly, and are compelled to leave. The school suffers if a single pupil does not complete the full course of instruction. What, then, is the loss when such a large percentage fail entirely? But the greatest evil befalls the pupil who enters prematurely. She believes herself qualified to pursue successfully the prescribed course, but, after repeated and, perhaps, faithful efforts, she finds that her school life has been a miserable failure. With the mind and sometimes the body permanently injured, with hopes blasted and youthful aspirations unsatisfied, she leaves, carrying with her a sense of an irreparable wrong.

It is to save the young and inexperienced from this terrible disappointment that a change in the mode of admission is proposed. A failure to be admitted carries with it no such acute pain as a want of success after admission. Disappointment in the attainment of an object is hard to bear, but disappointment in the possession of it is far worse. It is suggested that the best and most satisfactory plan so all concerned would be competitive examinations, conducted under the supervision and direction of the Committee on the school, with such assistance as the Board of Education, in their wisdom, may designate. Whether the examinations are conducted by those who instruct the candidates (which, however, is an anomaly in the history of school government), or by others, is a matter of little importance to the school, if the result is to secure to the school the best of those who desire to enter. Such a plan as presented above would remove the necessity of spending so much time with the junior classes in doing the work which can be better done in the Grammar Schools. Greater opportunities would then be afforded for the acquisition of knowledge, and of the best and most efficient methods of imparting it.

The establishment of the Normal School on such an extensive and comprehensive basis as an integral and essential part of the public school organization necessarily presupposes a systematic course of promotion from the lowest Primary to the highest class of the Grammar and Normal Schools, based on a competitive examination as the only positive proof that the distinction is fairly won. No principle in our public school system is more thoroughly established and more universally unchallenged than this:—No promotion without a strict, thorough, impartial examination. Principals of Primary and Secondary Schools who should propose pro rata examinations of their pupils into higher schools would be laughed at by Grammar School teachers. Yet, in an early period of education, a mistake, while injurious, may not be fatal; but in admitting an unqualified pupil to the Normal School two irreparable mistakes, equally fatal, are committed; first an injury is done to the pupil who is placed under a course of instruction from which she derives no benefit; and second, the well-qualified but disappointed applicant is deprived of the instruction which she is so capable of receiving. It is mistaken kindness to admit an unqualified pupil to the Normal School. It is gross injustice to exclude a qualified one. There is undoubtedly something radically wrong in any feature of an educational system which forces so many pupils totally unqualified into the Normal School. Many of these remain in school at a great sacrifice of time and money, and when too late to remedy the evil, find they have mistaken their vocation. None but an eye-witness can realize the wretchedness produced through these failures. The sight of blasted hopes in youth is the saddest of all life's pictures, hence much depends upon wise counsel to the young. A great responsibility rests upon those who mislead or misdirect in the choice of a profession.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study has been materially changed since the last report, and still greater changes will be made at the beginning of next year, so as to furnish the young instructor with greater experience in the practice of teaching. At the end of the third year the pupils graduate from the Normal Department, and are awarded their diplomas, provided they pass the examination at the close of the term with a general average of seventy (70) or upwards. The fourth year is partly devoted to daily lectures on the Theory and Practice of Teaching, and to such work in the School of Practice as should enable the pupils to form a proper estimate of their duty as teachers. One half the year is spent in teaching in connection with the Department of Methods. In the latter they are instructed in the best way of presenting a subject; the remainder of the year is spent in the study of such subjects as will enlarge their capacities, develop their faculties and awaken their perceptions, thereby enabling them to pursue their future life work with mutual advantage to themselves and their pupils. The opportunities thus presented are of the most valuable character, and it will be the aim of those in charge of the school to so mould its operations that, with continued support and encouragement, it may continue to merit the confidence and support of all interested in the cause of education. So rigid will be the discipline of mind, and so ample the means of acquiring experience in teaching, that no pupil will be pronounced worthy of a certificate of qualification unless she shows not only ability to impart, but such ingenuity, originality and industry as every successful teacher must possess. Thus a corps of instructors, well prepared and fitted for their work, will be the outgrowth of our Public School System.

Special training in the Art of Teaching can be acquired only in a Normal School. Without such training, teaching is nothing but a series of experiments in the school room, often resulting most disastrously in lost time and ruined dispositions. The Normal School demands that those who enter the teachers' profession should possess natural qualifications for the work. For such, it provides the information and experience essential to success. It also demands that no children shall be exposed to the dangers attendant upon instruction given by those who do not understand their duties, who possess no sympathy with childhood, and who spend their time in fruitless attempts to secure order, instead of awakening in their pupils a love of study. The teacher to be successful must love her occupation, she must have a professional interest in her work, which will stimulate her to avail herself of all the means of educational culture and improvement in her reach.

DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION.

In consequence of the modification in the course of study, authorized by the Board of Education, several changes will necessarily occur in the departments of instruction. The review of the Grammar School studies will be transferred to the work of the fourth year of the course, at which time, pupils will not only be instructed in those subjects, but they will also be required to ascertain the best methods of teaching them, and apply those methods in practice. They will not only study, but will learn how to impart their knowledge, in accordance with the views of those under whose care they are trained. The proper development of the elementary principles, taught in the Primary and Secondary Schools, and the theory of teaching, will occupy their attention very extensively. The reasoning powers will be trained to correct and logical processes. The perceptive and reflecting faculties will be carefully cultivated. Free hand drawing, music, the use of language, the laws of hygiene, the true methods of ventilation, the proper way of seating children, so as to prevent, if possible, near-sightedness; the value of proper and judicious physical exercises, modes of discipline, in a word, every thing that is essential to make the work of teacher and pupil delightful and successful will form the last year's course.

Correct thinkers always make good teachers, hence the work of the Normal School should be almost exclusively devoted to such training as will produce clear, thinking, and reflecting minds. "Not how much, but how well," should be the principle which characterizes the training of pupil teachers, and which by them is applied in every class room in every school in the City of Philadelphia.

SCHOOL OF PRACTICE.

The organization and operation of this school remain substantially the same as when the last report was made.

This department of the Normal School is one of the most interesting and valuable elements of the Institution. It affords the finest opportunities to the pupil teacher, for practice in teaching. It gives the best methods of training and instructing children of such grades as are found in the Primary and Secondary Schools. Here the pupil teacher, in the faithful discharge of her duty (all are faithful, no matter with what success they meet), finds extensive opportunities for improving her judgment, developing her mind, increasing her power of application, exercising her patience, and acquiring that steadfastness of purpose, necessary to success. This wise and well-directed practice, under the supervision and direction of permanent teachers, gives her courage to try, ingenuity to plan, and

Power to reflect on the responsibility of her position. The first and most important step, in training the teacher, is to impress her with a sense of the duty she owes to her charge. Thus impressed, she learns to appreciate the dignity and importance of the calling, and she is mentally and morally strengthened and improved for her work. The excellent management of the Principal of the School of Practice, not only secures the highest advantages to the pupil teachers, but also furnishes to the pupils such privileges as cannot be secured in regularly established schools of the same grade elsewhere. Careful supervision is exercised over the pupil teacher, her faults are corrected, until at last she can be safely trusted with the care of a class. To make this school the summum bonum, in training young instructors, it is earnestly hoped that the Board of Education will, at the earliest possible period, elect one or two additional teachers, and thus prevent the possibility of a single inaccuracy. With this aid, the school will continue to increase in popularity and usefulness. In other schools of this character, it is usual for a permanent teacher to preside in each division; in this school, we only ask for a teacher for three or four divisions, in order to make it possible that the best work may be accomplished. The value and importance of the school are best manifested by the great desire of parents to obtain admission for their children. Scores are constantly waiting to enter. It has stood every test that can possibly be applied, and has invariably come out like the pure metal from the furnace, free from dross. It need only be known to be appreciated, and the public are respectfully invited to call and examine it, that they may be familiar with its operations.

PERMANENT TEACHERS OF THE SCHOOL OF PRACTICE.

Elizabeth P. Watson,
Principal.

Lydia M. Watson,
Assistant.

The following statement shows the number of pupils in attendance at the beginning and end of the year, the number admitted, promoted and withdrawn, and the average attendance, etc., since the last report:

|--|-----|
| Number of pupils in attendance at the beginning of the year, | 307 |
| * Number promoted to Grammar Schools, - - - - | 32 |
| Number left who were not promoted, - - - - | 108 |
| Number admitted during the year, - - - - | 133 |
| Number in attendance at the close of the year, - - - - | 300 |
| Average attendance, - - - - | 295 |
| Number of applicants waiting admission, - - - - | 75 |

* The school is examined twice a year, and all found qualified are sent to the Grammar Schools. The pupils are permitted to select the school which they desire to attend, after which they are sent to be examined with the candidates from the Secondary Schools in the Section in which the Grammar School is located, and, if found qualified, are admitted. The results at these examinations have been entirely satisfactory, and show definitely the work which the school is performing.

TEACHERS.

The teachers in the various departments labor faithfully to promote the best interests of the pupils, and possess, in a remarkable degree, their confidence and esteem. The results of their labors show great thoroughness and accuracy, the chief characteristics of efficiency in teaching. The earnest efforts and intelligent methods pursued, producing animated and interesting recitations, elicit the praise and admiration of all visitors.

The school suffered a serious loss at the close of the term in June, by the resignations of Miss Eliza C. Bower, teacher of Trigonometry; Miss Elizabeth A. Brown, teacher of General History; Miss Emily J. Walters, teacher of Geometry; and Miss Kate S. Hershey, teacher of Physical Exercises. These ladies were all graduates of the school, of some years' standing, brilliant scholars, close students, conscientious and industrious teachers; they each exerted an influence for good, and presided over their departments with dignity and ability. Their loss was keenly felt, and they will long be remembered on account of their strict integrity and great moral worth. They carry with them in their retirement to private life the regard and esteem of all with whom they were associated.

Their successors, Misses Anna C. Walsh, Caroline W. Greenbank, Jane C. Wylie and Grace E. Spiegle, all distinguished graduates of the school, bring to their new positions rare ability, special adaptation and earnest fidelity. Their work thus far is an earnest, that, with experience and careful preparation, their industry and devotion to duty will place them high in the scale on that list of able and successful educators who have always adorned the faculty of this school, and have aided so materially in placing it in the elevated position which it occupies to-day among the educational institutions of this country.

ATTENDANCE.

The attendance presents the most remarkable evidence of the attachment of the pupils to the school. Many have not been absent a single session since their admission, and it is very rare to have to record a single instance of a pupil absenting herself unless stern duty or necessity compelled it. The average attendance during the year was 913, from an average roll of 914.5, or an absence of less than one-sixth of one per cent., exclusive of sickness. The average attendance, including sickness, was 892, or less than two and a half per cent. of absence.

DODD MEDALS.

At the commencement in June, the "Dodd Medals" were awarded to Misses Mary I. Campbell and S. Alice Lees, of the class admitted in January, 1875; and to Misses Frances S. Law and Kate R. Thompson, of the class admitted in June, 1875.

ART EDUCATION.

The following-named ladies were chosen from this school by the "Committee on Industrial Art Education" of the Board of Public Education, and were furnished with free scholarships in the "School of Design :”—Susannah B. Price, Leone E. Bengaurd, Ella E. Sheldon, Dora V. Scherzer, Lillie Summers, Kate Pollock and Maude M. Verner. They were selected on account of their taste and talent for Drawing; and it is earnestly hoped their deportment and labors in this new sphere will reflect credit on their alma mater, and render satisfaction to all anxious for the future success of the graduates of this school, as well as those interested in “Industrial Art,” and in the worth and efficiency of the “School of Design.”

AGE OF PUPILS.

A record is kept of the age of all pupils at the time of their admission to the school. They are required by the rules of the Board of Public Education to be at least fourteen years of age. It is hoped the period is not far distant when an increase in age will be deemed expedient, and higher attainments required for admission, so that the school may be enabled to furnish our public schools with a superior list of graduates, eminently worthy of a place in the grand army of educated women now in charge of our system of education, of which this institution is so important an element.

A tabular statement is presented below, showing the average age of the pupils of the several classes admitted to the Normal School from its organization to the present time.

Sherron, Adele Tibben, Sarah B. Murphy, Anna Cooper, Mary P. Morrison, Jane J. Watt, Eva A. Williams.—Total, 110.

Allied as this school is to the public system of Philadelphia, being the source from which it obtains most of its teachers, the friends of education must necessarily look with deep interest and anxiety to the results of its operations. Its success and usefulness are no longer matters of doubt. It has stood the many tests to which it has been subjected, and is still found worthy of the support and confidence of its friends and the friends of education generally. It deserves the most liberal provision for its maintenance. With gratitude for the encouragement and support received at your hands, during the year, I remain, gentlemen,

Very respectfully,

GEORGE W. FETTER,

Principal.

R E P O R T
OF THE
Architect and Superintendent of Public School Buildings,
FOR THE
YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31ST, 1878.

To the Board of Public Education, of the First School District of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN:—The following report of the progress and condition of the School buildings is respectfully submitted.

Twenty-first Section.—School-house on Manayunk Avenue, near Green Lane, was commenced in May, 1877, and finished February 15th, 1878, at a cost of $34,936. It has a capacity for sixteen divisions.

Twenty-eighth Section.—Corner of 26th and Cumberland Streets, commenced in July, 1877, and finished June 1st, 1878, at a cost of $22,784. It contains fifteen divisions.

Twenty-eighth Section.—Corner of Susquehanna Avenue and Woodstock Street, commenced in January, 1878, and will be completed about February 15th, 1879. Cost $20,768. Contains fifteen divisions.

Seventh Section.—Lombard, west of 20th Street, commenced June 15th, 1878, and finished December 15th, 1878. Contains twelve divisions. Cost $13,697. Built by Jas. A. Davis. This building is constructed of brick, with blue marble facing on the front.

Twenty-second Section.—Green Lane, Branchtown. A two-storied stone building, of four divisions. Plans were prepared and contract awarded on October 10th, 1878, to Samuel Collum for $5,836. Will be commenced in the Spring of 1879.

Twenty-fifth Section.—Corner of Broad and Macferran Streets. A three-story brick building with brown stone front, containing eighteen divisions. Plans were prepared and contracts awarded on November 27th, 1878, to George Nonemaker, for $19,220. Work will be commenced early in 1879.

Twenty-sixth Section.—Corner of 12th and Federal Streets. A two-story brick building of eight divisions. Plans were prepared and contract awarded on November 27th, 1878, to Charles O'Neill. Cost $10,947. Work will be commenced in the Spring of 1879.

Twenty-sixth Section.—Twenty-seventh Street and Passyunk Avenue. Two-storied brick building of four divisions. Plans prepared and contract awarded November 27th, 1878, to Charles O'Neill for $6,945. Work will be commenced in the Spring of 1879.

First Section.—Corner of 13th and Jackson Streets.

Nineteenth Section.—Fourth Street, south of Lehigh Avenue. For both the above, plans and specifications have been prepared. Contracts have not yet been made for their erection. Proposals were received for the one in the Nineteenth Section, but owing to the irresponsibility of the lowest bidder his proposal was not accepted. They will both lie over until Spring of 1879.

Owing to the rapid growth of the city and consequent increase in population, many of the school sections which were thought to be fully provided with school buildings, now find themselves entirely unable to furnish accommodation for the large number of children of school age, who naturally look for the means of education which they have a right to expect.

This is a question which will have to be met, and no doubt, by proper representation to the Legislature, an exception in favor of the school interests would be made in the passage and enforcement of any act limiting the amount of the bonded debt of the city. If this is not done, the children will have to be packed in rented buildings, which, from their make-shift character, are entirely unfitted for the purpose.

CASUALTIES.

On the 23d of October, from an early hour up to eight o'clock in the morning, occurred the most severe hurricane in the memory of that noted person "the oldest inhabitant."

Many buildings were seriously injured, some entirely destroyed. The school buildings did not escape. A number were more or less injured, several roofs, chimneys, and fences were blown down. The cost of repairs was between four and five thousand dollars. When it is remembered that the hurricane extended over the whole county, and that the number of school-houses is near two hundred, most of which stand in very exposed positions, the Board may be allowed to congratulate itself on the trifling loss involved.

On the fifth day of November, while the Shippen School house in the Tenth Section, was being used as a polling place for holding the election, a fire occurred which destroyed the upper part of the building, and seriously injured the entire structure. As the building was not insured, the cost of repairing it had to be borne by the city. After receiving proposals, the contract was awarded to Jas A. Davis, for $3,325. The repairs will be completed about February 15th, 1879. Independent of the injury to the building, the furniture was also either destroyed or seriously injured. This will probably involve an additional expenditure of about $500. As a thorough examination has failed to develop anything wrong in the furnace or flues, the natural conclusion is that the fire was caused by the drunken carelessness or malicious action of some one who had access to all parts of the house during the time preceding its destruction.

When it is remembered that the price paid by the city for the rental of polling places is only five dollars, the folly of turning several hundred children and their teachers out of school for the purpose of using the building for any such purpose, would seem to be apparent, and yet the Board of Education, it appears, has no power or influence to prevent it.

On the 13th of November, the Rutledge School, at the corner of Seventh and Norris streets, in the Twentieth Section, was damaged to the extent of about $25, by fire, which was caused by an imperfect flue. On examination it was found that all the flues were in the same unsafe condition, being surrounded by only four-inch walls, with the mortar in many places entirely eaten out by the gases.

It was deemed best to rebuild the whole at a cost of $368, which was done on contract by Mr. T. Y. Severn.

As usual, during the summer vacation, opportunity was taken to make various repairs and alterations. These were in all cases awarded to the lowest bidder, and as very few of the contractors were previously known to any member of the awarding committee, many of the contractors proved to be incompetent, resulting in too many cases in the work being done in a very inferior manner. Where the inferiority was of a character to warrant it, the work was condemned by your Superintendent and claim for payment denied. This occurred in several instances, and seems to be the only remedy.

Your Superintendent desires again to call attention to the condition of many of the new buildings, erected within the last ten years. It is a well-known fact, that any large building (especially a stone one) that is hastily constructed, more particularly where the soil may be peculiarly unfavorable, will settle more or less for a year or two after completion, causing cracks in walls and plastering. This has been the case in many of our school-houses, causing no injury to their strength, but impairing their beauty and proving great indifference on the part of those in charge of them, the same old cracks being maintained from year to year until they are now black with age, and an eye-sore to all beholders.

I would suggest that the Board, through its Committee on Property, take the matter in hand, as the Board too often gets the censure for their unsightly appearance.

Before closing this report, I desire to call your attention to the necessity of providing facilities for the efficient superintendence of the work on the school-buildings. Five new buildings are now under contract, and when the Spring opens four or five others will probably be started. These, with the necessary repairs and alterations to the old buildings, will require the constant visitation and surveillance of your Superintendent. The territory of the First School District covers an area of one hundred and fifty miles, and over this vast area, more than two hundred school-houses are dotted, one hundred and ninety of which are the property of the city. How are they to be reached? The expenses of your Superintendent incurred for this purpose during the last five years, have averaged over $700 per annum. While the salary of the office was fixed at $3,000, this was paid by the Superintendent out of the salary; so also during the year just closed, although the salary had been reduced to $1,800, the Superintendent paid all his expenses with the hope and expectation that Councils would reinstate the salary at the old figures, less a reasonable deduction to meet the views of citizens on the question of economy.

As councils however have fixed the salary for 1879 at $1,800, with no allowance for expenses, and as the payment of the expenses by your Superintendent would reduce his salary below that of some of the Janitors of your buildings, I respectfully refer the matter to your Board, with the request that you devise some way in which the requirements of the case can be met.

Asking your indulgence for trespassing on your patience with a matter so entirely personal, although of so much interest to myself, this report is respectfully submitted.

LEWIS H. ESLER,

Superintendent of School Buildings.

COURSE OF STUDY.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STUDIES.

Philadelphia, November 29, 1877.

To the Board of Public Education of the
First School District of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN:—The Joint Committee, composed of the Committees on University, Revision of Studies, Boys' High School, and Girls' Normal School, having had under consideration the subject of a re-adjustment of the course of studies in the Primary, Secondary, and Grammar Schools, of the First School District, respectfully report, that in the prosecution of its investigations your Committee was aided by the counsel of prominent members of the Board of Public Trusts, the Franklin Institute, and the Pennsylvania Museum of Industrial Art, of eminent private gentlemen interested in the subject of general and popular education, and of teachers in our schools of ability and experience, and that after a careful examination of the graded course of studies now in use in the schools of Philadelphia, together with the courses of study adopted in other large cities of the United States, it has prepared and herewith submits the result of its labors to the Board of Public Education for approval and adoption.

6. Written exercises with the figures 1 to 9, concrete and abstract numbers ; in addition, three columns, the sum of no column to exceed 20 ; and in subtraction, numbers with three figures, with borrowing ; problems requiring but one step in reasoning.
7. The coins of United States money not exceeding twenty-five cents in value ; and how to make change to that extent.
8. The inch, the foot, and the yard explained, and illustrated by the foot-rule, by lines, and by distances.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil.

2. Review, and principles and height of o, a, e, and c; with frequent drill the letters learned, separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters used in copying or writing words in spelling and reading lessons.

DRAWING.—1. The three kinds of triangles, right-angled, acute-angled, obtuse-angled, to be drawn, and their names made familiar by use and repetition.

2. Triangles and four-sided figures to be divided into smaller triangles, to give practice in drawing parallel lines, and lines to hit given points.

3. Diagrams of straight-lined objects and simple ornamental forms to be drawn, such as stars, crosses, having triangles, squares and oblongs as base to be filled in with points, or short lines, according to the pupil's fancy.

MUSIC.

1. The scale ascending and descending, using words, numerals, or the syllables, do, re, etc.

2. Transfer of notes to lines; one line, two notes; two lines, four notes; three lines, six notes.

3. Numerous drills in the first five degrees placed on lines and spaces; series of three sounds; two or three rote-songs within easy compass.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review previous section; add circle, half-circle, quarter-circle, diagonal and wave-line. The forms to be illustrated with pieces of paper or other objects, and each shape pointed out in common objects by the pupil.

2. COLOR.—Review colors of previous section, by new methods of giving the lessons; the three primary colors, their shades and tints.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Review previous section; add parts of upper limb: shoulder, upper-arm, elbow, fore-arm, wrist, palm, knuckles, joints, lower limbs, as hip, thigh, knee, knee cap or pan, ankle, instep, heel, ball of foot, etc.

FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Attention to be directed to the principal parts, shapes, uses, etc., of objects, as chair, table, bell, slate, fork, door, hat, book, etc., seen at home and at school.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Personal habits.—Familiar talks about bathing; cleanliness of dwelling; Conduct.—Pure thoughts; chaste language; control of temper.

Physical exercises.—1. Erect sitting position; movements of body and head.

2. Erect standing position, arms akimbo; movements of body, head, arms; marching.

3. Breathing; inhale, placing tips of fingers on the shoulders; and exhale, striking forward and downward; singing; ventilation of room.

THIRD GRADE (SECOND DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.First Section.—2½ Months.*LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; and Second Book of a series different from that used in preceding grade, one-half.

1. Drill on pronunciation, analysis, and spelling.

2. Attention to new words; explanation of reading lessons.

3. Drill on phrases and sentences to fix the thought to be expressed, to insure naturalness of tone and inflection.

4. The names of punctuation marks as they occur, and the use of each period.

SPELLING.—Primary Speller, six hundred words.

1. Special attention to vowels, to long and short vowel sounds, and to accent.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling, daily.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Reading lessons copied, or written from dictation, with punctuation marks as placed or named.

2. Oral or written reproduction of reading lessons.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of preceding grades.

Counting to one hundred by one, two, three and four, and back.

Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers one and two; no product or dividend to exceed twenty.

3. Notation and numeration to 1,000, inclusive.

4. Construction of the multiplication tables to 2 times 10, or 10 times 2; and of the division tables to 2 in 20, or 10 in 20.

5. Written exercises in addition and subtraction, with converse operations; reasons for borrowing; no result to contain more than three figures.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil, which must be at least four inches in length.

2. Review all letters one space in height; r and s; frequent drill on letters learned, separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters in words from spelling and reading lessons; and each pupil to write his or her own name; with proper capitals.

DRAWING.—1. Three-sided and four-sided figures containing similar figures with sides parallel; or having similar figures on diameters or diagonals.

2. Diagrams of straight lined objects, such as picture frames, window frames and sashes, paneled doors, houses, tables, borders, etc. Attention to angles, parallel lines, and geometric figures drawn or formed.

3. Simple curved lines, and curved lines on horizontal straight lines, vertical and oblique lines; Roman capital letters composed of straight and curved lines.

MUSIC.

1. Music chart and review; right management of vocal organs, etc.

2. The staff; lines and spaces; how numbered; and how notes are placed; degree; interval.

3. Drill on the scale ascending and descending, using numerals and syllables; on the first six notes placed on the staff; intervals or skips from one upward to four, and from four downward.

4. Idea of measure developed; the uses and the names of the barline and the double barline; two or three rote songs, not above upper E.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. Position of objects; as above, below, to the right or the left of any designated place.

2. Idea of the directions, east, west, north and south; and the position of objects in the school room with reference to these points.

OBJECT LESSONS.

[A lesson to be given each day on at least one of the subjects mentioned. Not less than one hour each week to be devoted to object lessons in each section.]

1. FORM.—Review subjects of the preceding grade; add the terms, circumference, diameter, rhomboid, sphere.

2. COLOR.—Classify colors as shades and tints of red, blue, green, purple, etc.; tell which are primary, which are secondary.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Review previous grade; add organs of sense, as ears, eyes, nose, tongue, fingers, and the uses of each as such organs.

4. QUALITIES.—By illustration and observation, as sweet, sour, salt, sticky, slippery, smooth, rough, etc.

5. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Continue lessons as in previous grades; add animals, plants, etc., as cat, dog, horse, cow, sheep, goat, hen, goose, canary bird, trees, flowers, etc. Direct attention to the most obvious parts, and to the distinguishing features of each.

Second Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Second Book completed.

1. Drill on pronunciation, analysis, and spelling.

2. Explanation of reading lessons, and drill on phrases and sentences in natural, conversational tone.

3. Punctuation marks as they occur, and the use of the question mark.

SPELLING.—Primary Speller, review and four hundred additional words.

1. Attention to silent vowels and equivalent vowel sounds, to accent and the accent mark.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily, and attention to spelling in every lesson and subject.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Reading lessons copied or written from dictation, with punctuation marks as placed or named.

2. Oral or written reproduction of reading lessons, and short sentences descriptive of objects or pictures.

3. The meaning of words to be made plain by their use in familiar phrases or sentences.

NUMBER.

1. Counting to one hundred by one, two, three, four, five, and six, and back.

2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers one, two, three, and four; no product or dividend to exceed forty.

3. Thousands explained; notation and numeration to 10,000 exclusive.

4. The terms used in subtraction explained by the teacher, and learned by the pupil; the principles illustrated.

6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction, and reverse or converse operations; in multiplication by one figure; concrete and abstract numbers; problems requiring one or two steps in reasoning; no results to contain more than four figures.

The coins of the United States money not exceeding fifty cents in value; and how to make change to that extent.

The mark for dollars; the ounce and the pound; the pint, quart and the gallon; illustrated by the appropriate weights and measures.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil.

2. Review, and principles and height of t, d, p, and q; frequent drill on letters separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters in words from spelling and reading lessons. Each pupil's name and residence, with proper capitals.

DRAWING.—1. The circle to be drawn and explained; the terms circumference, diameter, and radius, to be made familiar.

2. Arcs to be drawn and explained; quadrants by drawing a right angle and joining the sides by an arc; semicircles by joining two quadrants; circles by joining quadrants or semicircles, or on diameters, or by a circumference about a centre. Technical names to be used strictly.

3. Circles within and about squares, or on diagonals, or on radii of larger circles, or with parallel circumferences; curves on straight line bases.

4. Diagrams of simple objects having outlines composed of curved lines, or of straight and curved lines combined, such as wheels, trunks, bowls, goblets, plates, etc. Lines and figures to be described. Blackboard and card copies; memory and dictation exercises; one design.

MUSIC.

1. Drill on the scale, ascending and descending; the entire scale represented on the staff, G clef; intervals or skips from one upward to five, and from five downward.

2. The idea of expression developed (as would be represented by mezzo, forte and piano).

3. Easy songs of proper compass by rote, and by note, at the discretion of the teacher, not above upper E.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. The names of four streets nearest the school house, each side; the direction in which each runs; the direction of each from the school-room.

2. Idea of the directions north-east, south-east, north-west, and south-west, developed; exercises on relative distances.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review previous section; add surface and face, plane and curved; oval and cylinder.

2. COLOR.—The secondary colors illustrated by mixtures; their shades.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Review lessons on organs of the senses, and lead the pupils to observe some facts or things learned by each; parts of trunk.

4. QUALITIES.—Review previous section; add brittle, tough, opaque, transparent; liquid, solid.

5. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Continue lessons as in previous section, adding new objects seen going to and from school. At least six articles of clothing, by whom made, material and tools used; clothing of domestic animals and fowls.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Personal Habits.—Familiar talks about eating and sleeping.

Conduct.—Proper treatment of others; respect for superiors; honesty.

Physical Exercises.—1. Erect sitting and standing positions; movements of head, body, and arms.

2. Exercises in stooping and returning to erect position; marching.

3. Abdominal breathing without and with arms akimbo; singing and vocal exercises; ventilation of room.

FOURTH GRADE (FIRST DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.

First Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; and Third Book of any series, 60 pages.

1. Drill on pronunciation, analysis, and spelling.

2. Drill on phrases and sentences, with special attention to natural, conversational tone and expression.

3. Punctuation marks as they occur; the general use of the comma and the semicolon explained.

SPELLING.—Primary Speller; review, and five hundred additional words.

1. Attention to equivalent vowel sounds, and to the long and the short vowel marks, to accent and the accent mark.

2. Phonic, oral and written spelling daily, and attention to the spelling of words in every lesson and exercise.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Lessons and exercises written from dictation, with punctuation marks as named.

2. Oral and written reproduction of lessons, and short sentences describing objects or pictures.
3. The meaning of words explained by their use in familiar phrases and sentences.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of preceding grades.

1. Counting to 100 by one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, and eight, back.
2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers on seven, inclusive; no product or dividend to exceed seventy.
3. Orders of units reviewed; period and ones' period explained; thousands; notation and numeration to 100,000, exclusive.
5. The terms used in multiplication explained by the teacher, and learned by the pupil; the principles illustrated.
6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction; in multiplication by figures, or two with a cipher at the right; problems requiring not more than two steps in reasoning; no result to contain more than five figures.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

- WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil and the paper.
2. Review all letters less than three spaces in height; the loop principle; a, b, h, and k; frequent drill on the letters separately and in words.
 3. By imitation, other letters in words from spelling and reading less than each pupil's name, residence, and city, with proper capitals.
 4. Copy Book number 1, using the pen.
- DRAWING.—1. Simple curves, parts of circles, and circles continued; circles touching or cutting each other; curves and arcs cutting each other; uniting with each other, to be applied in forming simple ornaments.
2. Straight and curved lines combined to produce pleasing forms, frames, borders, mouldings, etc.; using the straight line as the basis. Imitation and geometric figures to be described.
 3. Diagrams of wheels, bowls, dishes, goblets, etc., continued; and circular door-heads, window frames, etc. Blackboard and card copies; imitation and memory exercises.

MUSIC.

1. Music chart and review; right management of vocal organs, etc.
2. Frequent drill on the scale, and the scale represented on the staff; intervals of the second beginning with any degree of the scale.
3. Idea of time developed; beating time; measures with two beats; scale by rote and by note not above upper E.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. Idea of scale developed; plan of school-room drawn to a scale.
2. Direction of objects in the school-room, and of important places in neighborhood from each other; the weather-vane.

OBJECT LESSONS.

[A lesson to be given each day on at least one of the subjects mentioned. Not less than one hour each week to be devoted to object lessons in each section.]

1. FORM.—Review previous grade; add cone, pyramid; compare size, as larger or smaller, thicker or thinner, wider or narrower, etc.
2. COLOR.—Review previous grade; add exercises in matching grouping similar colors; and in determining colors of flowers.
3. HUMAN BODY.—Review previous grade; add exercises by which pupils will be led to determine what they can learn from given object each sense; the teeth, and how to take care of them.

4. QUALITIES.—As in previous grade ; add flexible, elastic, combustible, inflammable, natural, artificial.

5. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—As in previous grades ; at least ten articles of food and drink, where obtained and how prepared ; food and drink of domestic animals and fowls.

Second Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart ; Third Book continued, 108 pages.

1. Drill on pronunciation, analysis, and spelling.

2. Drill on phrases and sentences ; punctuation marks as they occur ; the general use of the exclamation mark and the marks of quotation explained.

SPELLING.—Primary Speller ; review, and five hundred additional words.

1. Attention to long and short vowel marks and to vowel sounds, to accent, and to simple consonant sounds.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily ; attention to the spelling of words in every lesson and exercise.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Short sentences descriptive of objects and pictures.

2. The meaning and the use of words explained ; short sentences containing given words from Reader or Speller.

NUMBER.

1. Counting to 100 and back, by the numbers one to ten, inclusive.

2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers from one to ten inclusive ; no product or dividend to exceed one hundred.

3. Hundred-thousands ; ones' period and thousands' period explained ; notation and numeration to 1,000,000, exclusive.

4. Construction of the multiplication tables to 10 times 10 ; and of the division tables to 10 in 100.

5. The principles of multiplication illustrated ; the terms used in division explained by the teacher and learned by the pupil.

6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction, with converse operations ; in multiplication, four figures, with ciphers in the multiplier at the right or between digits ; in long division by one figure ; concrete and abstract numbers ; problems requiring not more than three steps in reasoning ; no result to contain more than six figures.

Coins of the United States money not exceeding one dollar in value ; and how to make change to that extent.

Second, minute, hour, day, and year explained ; how to tell the time by the clock ; days of the week ; months of the year, and the seasons ; quart, peck, and bushel explained ; illustrations.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pencil and the pen.

2. Review, and the remaining small letters j, y, g, f, and z ; with frequent drill on the letters separately and in words.

3. Each pupil's name, residence, school and city, with proper capitals ; other capitals needed in spelling and dictation exercises, by imitation.

4. Copy Book number 1, using the pen.

DRAWING.—1. Reversed curves by aid of straight lines divided into halves, thirds, etc., to determine the arcs and the segments.

2. Straight lines, curves, and reversed curves combined to form simple ornaments, which may be filled in with designs, compound curves, etc.

3. Diagrams of simple objects such as goblets, pitchers, vases, urns, etc. ; one original design ; dictation and memory exercises.

MUSIC.

1. Idea of expression further developed ; the marks mf, f, and p, explained as used ; exercises on the scale.

2. Idea of time and measure further developed; measure with three and four beats; the scale by syllables; intervals or skips from one upward to six, and from six downward.

3. Review of names; uses and meanings of terms and marks used: songs by rote and by note.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. Diagram of a few important streets, showing the location of some of the prominent places in the city.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review previous section; add prism, shell or spiral-shape; exercises on comparative sizes; exact lengths from one inch to one yard.

2. COLOR.—Review, and extend the exercises in matching, classifying, etc.; and in determining colors of ribbons, articles of dress, etc.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Review previous section, and extend similar exercises; proper articles of food, and proper manner of eating.

4. QUALITIES.—Review previous section; add fragrant, pungent, astringent, porous, absorbent, fusible, soluble.

5. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Review previous section, and continue similar exercises. Notice covering, food, head, eyes, ears, nose, teeth, and feet of at least ten domestic animals and fowls.

MISCELLANEOUS.

PERSONAL HABITS.—Avoidance of the use of tobacco, stimulating drinks, alcohol, etc.; good and bad habits.

CONDUCT.—Care of private and public property; obedience to law; industry; proper motives for right actions.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—1. Movements of head and body; stepping forward, backward, to the right and to the left.

2. Chest development; fore-arm and shoulder movements; marching.

3. Abdominal and chest breathing with arms akimbo; singing and vocal exercises; ventilation of room.

SECONDARY DEPARTMENT.

FIFTH GRADE (FOURTH DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.

First Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Third Book continued, two-thirds.

1. Position of vocal organs and body; drill on phrases and sentences to secure naturalness of expression.

2. Familiar talks about lesson before reading; punctuation marks as they occur, and their general uses.

SPELLING.—Second Speller of any series, eight hundred words.

1. Attention to silent vowels; to equivalent vowel sounds; to simple consonant sounds; to accent.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; a sentence or short extract copied or written from dictation daily; attention to spelling in every lesson and exercise.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Oral and written reproduction of lessons; short sentences descriptive of objects and pictures.

2. The meaning and the use of words illustrated; short sentences containing given words from Reader.

3. The correction of common errors of speech; such as, ain't for am not or are not; won't for will not; done for did; seen for saw.

NUMBER.

GENERAL REVIEW of important definitions, principles, operations.

1. Orders of units and periods; millions explained; notation and numeration to millions, inclusive; Roman notation to L.

2. ORAL OR MENTAL EXERCISES.—Addition and subtraction, with converse operations; multiplication and division; no number or result to exceed one hundred; no problem involving more than three operations.

3. WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Addition and subtraction with converse operations; multiplication by four figures, with ciphers at the right and between digits; division by two figures; concrete and abstract numbers; operations involving not more than three steps in reasoning; no number or result to exceed millions.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pen.

2. Review principles, height and slant of small letters, in Copy Book No. 2.

3. Capital O principle; formation and analysis of O and E; drill on letters separately and in words.

4. By imitation, other capital letters needed in written exercises (always according to the adopted system of penmanship).

DRAWING.—1. The ellipse; the circle and the ellipse frequently contrasted that their essential features may be distinguished and described by pupils.

2. Diagrams of circular and elliptical objects, such as barrels, jars, etc.; exercises; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. Idea of globe developed; of the shape of the earth; of surface and of the surface of the earth; two proofs that the earth is round.

2. Idea of countries developed; of continents, grand divisions, and the ocean; of maps; the uses of the globe and of maps.

3. Definitions and illustrations of continent and island; hill and mountain; plain and valley; spring, creek, and river; ocean, sea, and lake.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day, divided between two lessons; under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music charts and general review; attention to position, quality of tone, tune and time.

2. Whole, half, and quarter notes and rests; degrees and intervals; measures, and two-part and four-part measures; beating time for notes and rests.

3. Exercises on the scale completed, and on the staff, with intervals or skips from 1 to 2, 1 to 3, etc., upward to 8; also by syllables; three or four songs, no note above upper E, by note, and afterwards by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Review forms; what colors harmonize or look well together; exercises on size, adding surface from a square inch to a square foot.

QUALITIES.—Exercises leading pupils to find what qualities given objects possess; and which quality renders the object most useful.

HUMAN BODY.—Names and general uses of principal bones, as skull, jaw, shoulder-blade, collar-bone, ribs, spinal column.

TRADES.—Farmer, miller, baker, butcher, shoemaker, tailor, seamstress, hatter, milliner; materials and tools used; articles produced.

Second Section.—2½ Months.LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Third Book completed.

1. Accent, pronunciation, tones, inflections; drill on phrases and sentences.

2. Familiar talks about lesson before reading; punctuation marks as they occur, and their general uses; abbreviations.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to vowels and vowel marks, and accent; to simple conson sounds.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meaning of words illustrated; use of given words from Reader; short descriptions of objects, oral and written.

2. The correction of common errors, such as, his'n for his, etc.; gave given; took for taken; have saw for have seen.

3. Objects and words; name-words or nouns; action-words, or verbs; in sentences developed; numerous sentences containing nouns and verbs; no and verbs to be framed in sentences.

NUMBER.

1. Ten-millions explained; notation and numeration to ten-millions, inclusive; Roman numerals to C.

2. ORAL OR MENTAL ARITHMETIC.—Addition and subtraction, with converse operations; multiplication and division; no number or result to exceed two hundred; no problem involving more than three operations.

3. WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Addition and subtraction, with converse operations; multiplication by five figures, with ciphers at the right and between digits; division by three figures; concrete and abstract numbers; no number or result to exceed ten-millions; operations involving not more than three steps in reasoning.

TABLES.—Linear measures, inch, foot, yard, rod; liquid measures, gill, pint, quart, gallon; weight, ounce, pound, hundred weight, ton. For exercises the tables learned, easy reductions, mental and written, involving only integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Review; Copy Book No. 2; formation and analysis of O, E, and D; drill on letters separately and in words.

2. By imitation, other capitals needed in dictation and other written exercises (according to system adopted).

DRAWING.—1. Arcs of circles and ellipses touching and cutting each other to be applied in simple ornaments.

2. Straight lines and curves; reversed curves forming segments of circles and ellipses, such as barrels, fruit jars, etc., to be filled in with simple figures; dictation and memory exercises, and on altering size of copies; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. Rotation of the earth; day and night; the names of the seasons; climate of equator and poles; five belts or zones on the earth's surface, with general climate of each.

2. Explanations and illustrations of sphere and hemisphere; general position of the continents, the grand divisions and the oceans, shown on the globe and on maps.

3. Definitions and illustrations of peninsula and cape; gulf, bay, and sound; isthmus, strait, and channel.

MUSIC.

1. Exercises on scale and staff, from lower C to upper E; intervals or skips from 8 to 7, 8 to 6, etc., downward to 1; also by syllables.

2. Eighth note and rest; the dot, and the dotted whole, half, and quarter note; beating time; the tie.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; exercises embracing subjects learned in three or four songs of proper compass, by note and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Review forms; arrange colors that harmonize; exercises in size, adding square yard.

QUALITIES.—Exercises continued, leading pupils to find what important qualities objects possess, and their uses.

HUMAN BODY.—Familiar talks about the muscles, and the necessity and importance of exercise.

MATERIALS.—Hay, straw, wood, stone, brick, cotton, wool, silk, leather ; where and how obtained, and for what used.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Right and wrong ; politeness at home ; kindness to playmates ; proper treatment of dumb animals ; honesty.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting and standing properly, and in breathing ; singing and vocal exercises.

2. Chest development ; free gymnastics of the arms, etc, in accordance with the system of some accepted manual ; marching ; ventilation of room.

SIXTH GRADE (THIRD DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.

First Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart ; Third Book of a series different from that used in the preceding grade, one half.

1. Position ; pronunciation, tone, inflection, emphasis ; drill on phrases and sentences.

2. Familiar talks about lesson before reading ; marks and abbreviations as they occur.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to vowels ; to vowel and accent marks : to simple consonant sounds ; and to silent consonants.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily ; a sentence or short extract copied or written from dictation daily, with marks as made or named ; attention to spelling in every lesson and exercise.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. The meaning of words illustrated ; short descriptions of objects, oral and written.

Review of preceding grade in grammar.

3. Declarative and interrogative sentences ; initial capitals ; the period and the question mark ; numerous drill exercises.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Hundred-millions, and millions' period explained ; notation and numeration to hundred-millions, inclusive ; Roman numerals to CL ; notation and numeration of dollars and cents.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—1. Mental arithmetic always in connection with written arithmetic ; the same principles, the same topic in both, taken at the same time.

2. Multiplication with ciphers in the multiplier ; division by four figures, with ciphers at the right ; practical and converse operations in the four fundamental rules ; concrete and abstract numbers ; no number or result to exceed hundred-millions ; problems involving not more than four steps in reasoning.

TABLES.—1. Counting, single things, dozen, gross ; dry measures, pint, quart, peck, bushel ; paper, sheet, quire, ream.

2. The uses of each ; mental and written reductions involving only small integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pen.

2.—Review ; oval principle with formation and analysis of X, Q, and V drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences ; Copy book No. 3.

3. By imitation (according to adopted system of penmanship), other capital letters needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—1. The oval; the circle, the oval, and the ellipse to be frequently contrasted, until their essential features can be readily distinguished and described.

2. Diagrams of circular, oval, and elliptical objects; such as dishes, vases, urns, etc.; dictation and memory exercises; continued exercises in changing size of copies; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

GENERAL REVIEW of the preceding grade; the globe and outline maps.

1. The zones of each grand division, with the general nature of the climate, productions, animals, and inhabitants of each zone.

2. Map of North America.—General boundaries, with some idea of size.

Land Divisions.—British America, United States, Mexico; general boundaries of each, capital, general idea of size. General nature of surface, their mountain systems and central plains; climate, productions, animals, and inhabitants of each. Locate Greenland, Iceland, Newfoundland, and West Indies; Nova Scotia, Florida and Alaska; Isthmus of Panama.

Water Divisions.—Oceans; Caribbean Sea; Gulf of St. Lawrence, Mexico; Hudson Bay, Baffin; Davis Strait, Behring; a river draining each of these slopes,—Arctic, Atlantic, Gulf, Pacific.

3. When America was discovered; by what nations the early settlements were made; the Indians; the Declaration of Independence; the Revolution.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day, divided between two lessons; under general directions of special music teacher.

1. Music charts and review; attention to position, tone, tune, time, and expression.

2. Explain how kind of measure is shown; double and quadruple measures; value of each note and rest in shorter notes and rests; beating time; drill.

3. Exercises on skips or intervals, scale and staff, using syllables; exercises embracing subjects learned; three or four songs, proper compass, by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Review of forms; exercises on colors of flowers and dress materials; on size, adding cubic inch and cubic foot; on weight, pound, half and quarter pound, ounce.

QUALITIES.—Attention to those qualities of objects seen at home and at school, which render them useful.

Second Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Third Book completed.

1. Position and management of breath, tone, inflections, emphasis; drill on phrases and sentences.

2. Familiar talks about reading lessons; judicious criticism of pupils' styles of reading, by teacher and classmates.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to marks; to silent letters; to combined consonant sounds.

2. Phonic, oral and written spelling daily; short extracts copied or written from dictation daily, with marks as made or named; attention to spelling in all exercises.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meaning and use of words illustrated; short descriptions, oral and written.

2. Correction of common errors, such as them for those, set for sit, has went for has gone.

3. Quality-words, or adjectives, and articles; numerous examples and sentences; formation of sentences containing given kinds of words learned.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Billions explained; notation and numeration to billions, inclusive; of dollars and cents; Roman numerals to CC.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topic in both taken in connection at the same time.

Multiplication and division, with converse operations; problems involving combinations under the fundamental rules; no result to exceed billions; problems requiring not more than four steps in reasoning; addition and subtraction of dollars and cents.

TABLES.—Square measures, square inch, square foot, square yard, square rod; cubic measures, cubic inch, cubic foot.

The uses of each; mental and written reductions under tables learned, involving only small integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Review; oval principle continued, with formation and analysis of U, W and Y; drill on letters separately, in words and in sentences; Copy Book No. 3.

2. By imitation, other capital letters (according to adopted system) needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—1. Arcs of circles, ellipses, and ovals, touching or cutting each other; to be applied in forming simple ornament.

2. Reversed curves forming circular, elliptical, and oval segments; to be filled in with simple forms and designs.

3. Diagrams of objects having circular, elliptical, and oval segments; exercise on altering size of copies; dictation and memory exercises; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. Colonies or states at time of Revolution; total population; general idea of present number and population.

2. Map of the United States.—Its general boundaries and size; capital and largest four other cities, with location.

Land Divisions.—Groups of states and territories; Capes Cod and Hatteras; three mountain systems and their component ranges; the great central plain.

General nature of the surface, climate, productions, animals, inhabitants.

Water Divisions.—Oceans; Gulf of Mexico; Delaware Bay, Chesapeake, San Francisco; six rivers draining the Atlantic slope; three, the Gulf; and two, the Pacific.

3. Map of New England States.—General boundaries; capital, largest seaport and largest inland town of each, with location.

Land Divisions.—Cape Cod; mountain ranges and groups.

Water Divisions.—Penobscot Bay, Casco, Massachusetts; Long Island Sound; longest four rivers draining Atlantic slope.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, commerce.

Journeys and voyages between cities, the location of which shall have been previously learned.

MUSIC.

1. Scale extended from lower C to upper E; skips or intervals upward and downward by syllables and letters.

2. Parts of measures; difference between parts of measures and beats; three-part measures; beating time; tones or degrees named to be properly placed on the staff, G clef; first five sounds of the scale when sounded to be distinguished by pupils.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; reading music, that is, to know where note 1 is represented, and that if note 1 is on a line, then notes 1, 3, 5, 7 are on lines, and notes 2, 4, 6, 8 are in spaces, and vice versa; three or four new songs, proper compass, by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Exercises on forms and colors of objects, and in estimating size, weight, and capacity.

ANIMALS.—Movements of animals, as walking, flying, wading, swimming, creeping, that pupils may tell what animals move in any way named; animals used as food, and what their flesh is called.

PLANTS.—A few familiar flowers; their color, general form, size, perfume, uses; general form, bark, branches, blossoms, fruit, uses, of a few familiar fruit trees.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Politeness at school; prompt and cheerful obedience; care of books and borrowed property; respect for authority; punctuality.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting and standing properly; and breathing, singing and vocal exercises.

2. Chest development; free gymnastics in accordance with the system of some accepted manual; marching; ventilation of room.

SEVENTH GRADE (SECOND DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.

First Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Fourth Book of any series, one-third.

1. Position; management of breath and voice; drill on tone, inflections, emphasis.

2. Judicious criticism of style by teacher and classmates; concert reading; two short pieces to be memorized and recited.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to marks; silent letters; simple and combined consonant sounds; pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; extracts copied or written from dictation, with marks as used or named; attention to spelling in all exercises.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. The meanings and the uses of fifty words selected from Reader; and of words generally.

Review of preceding grades in grammar.

2. Correction of common errors, such as, have saw for have seen; drowed for drew; clumb for climbed; it is me for it is I.

3. Adverbs; numerous drill exercises; formation of sentences containing given kinds of words learned; detection of kinds learned; short descriptions and narrations, written.

NUMBER.

GENERAL REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Idea of fraction carefully developed; of proper fraction; analysis of proper fractions; billions explained; notation and numeration to billions, inclusive; of dollars and cents; and of proper fractions; Roman numerals to CCC.

2. General principles of division carefully reviewed; all terms explained, and learned by pupils, as they are needed.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topics in both, at the same time; problems involving combinations under the four fundamental rules, with converse operations; multiplication and division of dollars and cents, with bills; no number or result to exceed billions; problems involving not more than four steps in reasoning.

TABLES.—Time, second, minute, hour, day, week, month, year; cubic measures, cubic inch, cubic foot, cubic yard, cord; their uses, and easy reductions, mental, oral, and written, involving only small integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pen.

2. Review; oval principal continued, Z; line of beauty, with formation and analysis of A, N, M; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences.

3. By imitation, other capital letters (according to system adopted) needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—1. The plane or flat spiral; to be applied in drawing diagrams of shells and in a few simple ornaments.

2. Straight lines, curves and reversed curves (circular, elliptical and oval,) combined to form ornaments and designs; to be filled in with simple figures.

3. Diagrams of objects or borders formed of the three kinds of curves; changing size; dictation and memory exercises; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

REVIEW of preceding grades; the globe and outline maps.

1. Map of Middle States.—General boundaries of each; the capital, the largest seaport and the largest inland city of each; largest two other cities of New York, and three of Pennsylvania; location.

Land Divisions.—Long Island; Capes May and Henlopen; the mountain system, its component ranges and groups.

Water Divisions.—Long Island Sound; New York Bay, Delaware; Lakes Champlain, Erie, Ontario; Hudson River, Delaware, Susquehanna, Ohio, Genesee, St. Lawrence, and Niagara Falls; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, and commerce.

2. Map of Southern Atlantic States.—General boundaries of each; capital, largest seaport and largest inland town of each, with location.

Land Divisions.—Bahama Islands and Florida Reefs; Capes Hatteras, Fear, Canaveral; the mountain system and its component ranges.

Water Divisions.—Chesapeake Bay, Pensacola; Pamlico Sound, Albemarle; Potomac River, James, Roanoke, Santee, Savannah, St. John, Chattahoochee; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, commerce. Journeys and voyages between cities the location of which shall have been previously learned.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day divided between two lessons; under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music chart, and general review; position, breathing, tone, tune, time, expression.

2. Figures showing kinds of measure; double, triple, quadruple measures; beating time; writing notes from dictation and naming tones or degrees of the scale.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; intervals upward and downward as they occur, from lower C to upper E; three or four songs, proper compass, by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Forms and color of objects, leaves, flowers; geometrical forms; as aids to drawing.

BUILDINGS.—Dwelling-houses, stores, hotels, theatres, hospitals, factories, schools, court-houses, prisons, light-houses, palaces; materials used in their construction, uses, some differences in style and arrangement.

ANIMALS.—A few wild animals; their general resemblance to different domestic animals; their habits of life, weapons, modes of capturing prey, degree of intelligence; elements in which they live, as on earth, in air, or in water.

Second Section.— $2\frac{1}{4}$ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Fourth Book continued, two-thirds.

1. Position, management of voice and breathing; drill on pronunciation, tone, inflections, emphasis.

2. Criticism of reading; correction of faults; concert reading; two pieces to be memorized and recited.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to marks; to silent letters; combined and equivalent sounds; to pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; extracts copied or written from dictation, with marks as made or named; constant attention to spelling.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meanings and uses of one hundred words selected from Reader; and of words generally.

2. Correction of common errors, such as et for ate or eaten; lay for lie; those kind for that kind; between you and I.

3. Proper and common nouns; initial capitals in proper nouns and their abbreviations; numerous drill examples; formation of sentences containing elements learned; detection of kinds of words learned; short descriptions and narrations, written.

NUMBER.

1. Improper fractions and mixed numbers explained and analyzed; notation and numeration of integers to ten-billions, inclusive; of dollars and cents, and of improper fractions and mixed numbers; Roman numerals to D.

2. All important terms explained, and learned by pupils as they are needed; principles and methods for factoring and finding greatest common divisor.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topic at the same time; combinations under fundamental rules, with converse operations; United States money with bills; factoring, and greatest common divisor.

TABLES.—Troy weights, grain, pennyweight, ounce, pound; circular measures, second, minute, degree, circumference; their uses, and easy reductions, mental and written, involving only integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Review; line of beauty continued, with formation and analysis of S, L, T, and F; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences.

2. By imitation, other capital letters (according to adopted system) needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—1. Two plain varieties of natural leaves; their general forms, as circular, oval, elliptical, or triangular, to be noted; their veins and edges.

2. Exercises in drawing "conventional" forms of leaves:—

a. The natural leaf used in connection with printed forms or pictures; the kind of leaf to be learned; and drawn from memory.

b. The geometrical form which the leaf most nearly approaches to be drawn, and then, by this aid, the irregular natural form; next, the natural form to be drawn, omitting all irregular details.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. Map of Northern Central States.—States north of the Ohio, between the Alleghany mountains and the Mississippi; general boundaries of each; capital, largest seaport and largest inland city of each, with location.

Water Divisions.—Great Lakes and Lake St. Clair; Strait of Mackinaw; Mississippi River, Ohio, Scioto, Wabash, Illinois, Wisconsin; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, commerce.

2. Map of Southern Central States.—States south of the Ohio, between the Alleghany mountains and the Mississippi; general boundaries of each; capital, largest seaport and largest inland city of each, with location.

Land Divisions.—The mountain system, with its component ranges.

Water Divisions.—Mobile Bay; Great Kanawha River, Kentucky, Cumberland, Tennessee, Yazoo, and Mobile; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, commerce. Journeys and voyages between cities, the location of which shall have been previously learned.

MUSIC.

1. Exercises on scale and staff from lower C to upper E; value of dotted notes in shorter notes; exercises in dictation, and in naming degrees or tones of the scale.

2. Reading music; that is, to know that note 8 is note 1 of a similar scale above, and that note 1 is note 8 of a similar scale below, and to keep these two degrees or tones in mind.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; exercises in singing tones that accord, 1, 3, 5, 8, or any two or three of them; three or four songs, proper compass, by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Forms and colors of objects, leaves, flowers; geometrical forms, as aids to drawing.

TRADES.—Those who construct dwellings, make furniture, carpets, utensils, clothing, and who supply food; name of trade and production; materials and tools used, mode of preparation.

PLANTS.—A few plants; their roots, stems, branches, leaves, flowers, seeds. Some vegetables, seeds, grains, and fruits used as food. Shade and forest trees; their general form, bark, branches, leaves; and some woods used in the trades.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Politeness in the street; regard for the convenience and rights of others; care of school property; perseverance.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting, standing, and breathing; singing and vocal exercises.

2. Chest development; systematic free gymnastics; marching; ventilation of room.

EIGHTH GRADE (FIRST DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.

First Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Fourth Book of a series different from that used in the preceding grade, one-third.

1. Position, management of the breath and vocal organs; drill on pronunciation, tone, inflections, emphasis.

2. Criticism of reading, and correction of faults by teacher and classmates; concert reading; two pieces to be learned and recited.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to combined and equivalent sounds; to marks; and to pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling, daily; extracts written from dictation, marks to be placed from the pauses and the inflections of the teacher; constant attention to spelling.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meanings and uses of one hundred words from Reader; and of words generally.

Review of preceding grades in grammar.

2. Correction of common errors, such as lay for lie; laid for lay; John and James was; I've got to go; I can't hardly tell.

3. Number; number of nouns; formation of regular plural of nouns and of those ending with y; singular of verbs; numerous drill exercises; how to arrange a letter and address an envelope.

NUMBER.

GENERAL REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Notation and numeration, including billions' period; Roman numeration to M; notation, numeration, analysis of fractions; general principles, or effect of multiplying or dividing numerator or denominator or both.

2. Explanation of terms used, to be learned by pupils; principles and methods.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topics in both at the same time; converse operations; no number or result to exceed billions' period; least common multiple; general principles of cancellation; changing fractions to lowest terms.

TABLES.—English money, farthing, penny, shilling, pound; Apothecaries' weights, grain, scruple, drachm, ounce, pound; their uses, and easy mental and written reductions involving only small integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Manner of sitting and holding the pen.

2. Review; line of beauty continued, with formation and analysis of I, J, H, and K; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences; Copy Book No. 4.

3. By imitation, other capital letters (according to adopted systems) needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—1. Two additional natural leaves; their "conventional" forms; drawings of leaves from memory.

2. A few simple rosettes and borders made of leaves conventionalized; dictation and memory exercises; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

Review of preceding grades; the globe and outline maps.

1. Map of Western Central and Pacific States.—General boundaries of each; the capital, the largest commercial and the largest inland city of each, with location.

Land Divisions.—Vancouver Island, Santa Barbara; Cape Flattery, Mendocino; the two mountain systems, their component ranges, and Pike's Peak; gold regions.

Water Divisions.—Ocean; Gulf of Mexico, California; San Francisco Bay; Strait of Fuca; Lake Itasca, Great Salt Lake; Mississippi River, Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Arkansas, Red, Brazos, Rio Grande, Columbia Sacramento, Colorado; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, commerce. Journeys and voyages between cities, the location of which shall have been previously learned.

3. Latitude, parallels, polar circles, tropics and zones.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day, divided between two lessons; under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Position, management of breath, tone, tune, time, expression.

2. Degrees and intervals further explained; tone and semitone; raising or lowering a degree a semitone; the sharp and the flat made, and their uses.

GRADED COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; exercises on tones that accompany exercises; reading music; writing from dictation, and naming of the scale learned; three or four songs by note and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Forms and colors of objects, leaves, flowers; geometric forms; as aids to drawing.

OCCUPATIONS.—Agriculture, trades, factories, arts; names of employed materials and tools used; articles produced or made, and their uses.

ANIMALS.—The movements of animals; their covering, habits, food; their division into common classes, as beasts, birds, reptiles and fishes, with examples of domestic and wild animals belonging to each class; the animal kingdom.

Second Section.—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Fourth Book, two-thirds.

1. Position, proper management of the breath and the vocal organs; inflections, emphasis.

2. Criticism of reading, and correction of faults; concert readings to be memorized for class and individual recitation.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to combined and equivalent sounds indicating accent and pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; extracts from dictation to be placed from the pauses and the inflections of the teacher; attention to spelling.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meanings and uses of one hundred words from the Reader; and of words generally.

2. Correction of common errors, such as the misuse of singular and plural nouns, or two or more singular nouns.

3. The possessive form; the possessive singular and the plural of nouns; numerous drill examples; formation of sentences using subjects learned; naming kinds of words learned; short descriptions; narrations; how to make out a plain bill, and a simple receipt.

NUMBER.

1. Notation and numeration of integers; billions' period; principles of combining Roman numerals; notation, numeration, analysis, and principles of fractions.

2. Necessary terms; principles and methods thoroughly explained and carefully learned by pupils.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—General review; the same in both, at the same time; mixed numbers to improper fractions; fractions to mixed numbers; dissimilar to similar fractions, or find the least common denominator.

TABLES.—Review preceding grades, and add mile, degree; square acre; leap year, solar year; their uses, and easy reductions, not written, involving only integral products and quotients.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Review; formation and analysis of G, P, B, and F using capital letters; drill on letters separately, in words, and in Copy Book No. 4.

DRAWING.—1. Two simple varieties of common flowers; the exercise conducted as to teach pupils to distinguish the general forms of the petals of the flower, as triangular, circular, oval, elliptical, etc.

2. The technical name petal to be clearly understood by pupils; "typical" forms of leaves, petals, and flowers.

3. Drawings of leaves and flowers; simple rosettes or borders, etc., made up of curves, leaves, and flowers; dictation and memory exercises; one original design.

GEOGRAPHY.

General review; the globe and outline maps.

1. Map of Western Territories.—The general location of each.

Land Divisions.—The two mountain systems, and their component ranges; Fremont's Peak; gold and silver regions.

Water Divisions.—Missouri River, Yellowstone, Nebraska, Kansas, Arkansas, Rio Grande, Colorado, Snake, Columbia; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, occupations, animals, Indians.

2. Map of Dominion of Canada.—General location; the capital, and Montreal, Quebec, Halifax, with location.

Land Divisions.—Ontario, Quebec, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Vancouver Island.

Water Divisions.—Oceans; Hudson Bay; Gulf St. Lawrence; Great Lakes; St. Lawrence River, Columbia; into what each drains.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, occupations, commerce.

3. Map of Mexico and West Indies.—General location; Cities of Mexico, Vera Cruz, Havana.

Land Divisions.—Central America, Cuba, Hayti, Yucatan, Lower California; the mountain system.

Water Divisions.—Ocean; Caribbean Sea; Gulf of Mexico; California.

General nature of surface, climate, soil, productions, occupations, animals, inhabitants, commerce. Journeys and voyages between cities the location of which shall have been previously learned.

MUSIC.

1. Leger-lines; exercises on intervals to upper E; on single sharps and flats; the natural and its use; notes that accord; two-part exercises.

2. Terms and marks as they occur; exercises in reading music; writing from dictation; naming degrees; three or four two-part rounds or songs; by note and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Forms and colors of objects, leaves, flowers; geometrical forms, as aids to drawing.

OCCUPATION.—Tradesmen and merchants; necessity of buying and selling commodities; how they are conveyed from purchaser to buyer; commerce or trade.

PLANTS.—Productions of the soil in the vicinity of Philadelphia; when and how cultivated; uses; which are exported.

MATERIALS.—Chalk, pencils (slate and lead), pens, ink, paper, books, glass, paint, mortar, iron; where and how prepared or made, and for what used.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Politeness in public places; even temper; order; courage to say no; industry.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting, standing, breathing; singing and vocal exercises.

2. Chest development; systematic free gymnastics; marching, ventilation of room.

GRAMMAR DEPARTMENT.

NINTH GRADE (FOURTH DIVISION).—Time, 5 Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic Chart; Fourth book completed.

1. Position; management of breath and vocal organs; articulation, pronunciation, inflections, emphasis, force, with explanations and drill exercises.

2. Criticism of reading and correction of faults; concert reading; three or four selections memorized for class and individual recitation.

SPELLING.—Review words of preceding grades, and eight hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to simple, combined, and equivalent sounds; to marks indicating accent and pronunciation.

2. Simple and derivative words; rules for spelling derivatives of word, ending with y.

3. Phonic, oral, and written spelling; constant attention to spelling in every exercise; extracts from dictation, marks to be placed mainly from pauses and inflections of the teacher.

DEFINITIONS AND ETYMOLOGY.—1. The meanings and the uses of words generally explained and illustrated. How to use a dictionary.

2. The meaning of root or stem, prefix, and derivation explained; the root, the prefix, the literal and the common or accepted meaning of the following words, with the proper use of each in a sentence:—Prefixes—a (ab, abs), ad (ac, af, an, ap, ar, as, at), con (co, cog, col, con, cor), de, dis (di, dif), ex (e, ef), in (il, im, ir), inter, ob (oc, of, op), per, pre, pro, re, sub (uc, suf, sup), trans (tru).Words.—Avert, abrupt, absolve, adduce, adhere, adjust, adjunct, adopt, adore, advert, accede, acquire, affirm, afflict, announce, appear, apply, arrive, assail, assist, attend, attest, attract, combine, command, compare, compress, cohere, concede, conceal, concert, conclude, concur, condole, conduce, confer, confide, confirm, confront, connect, conspire, consume, contribute, convene, convert, convoke, decline, deduce, deface, defame, defend, defer, deform, degrade, deplore, depose, derive, descend, describe, disarm, distribute, diverge, diverse, exact, exceed, except, excite, exhume, expand, expel, explain, export, extol, emerge, emit, erase, evade, efface.

Induce, infirm, inflame, influx, infuse, inhale, insane, inspire, invade, immature, immerse, impel, implant, import, intercept, intercede, interpose, intersect, intervene, obstruct, obtrude, occur, offend, offer, oppose, perform, permit, pervade, pervert, precede, preclude, predict, prefix, premature, prescribe, prevent, proceed, proclaim, produce, prolong, promote, provide, rebel, recede, reclaim, recline, reduce, reform, reflect, remand, repel, resist, respond, revive, revoke, revolve, subscribe, submit, subvert, succumb, suffix, supplant, suspend, transact, transfer, transform, transmit, transplant, transpose, transport, transpire, traverse.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. The sentence; the subject and the predicate; the noun and the verb; the article, the adjective and the adverb; the preposition and the conjunction.

2. Proper and common nouns; the singular and the plural of nouns; the formation of the plural; the possessive form of nouns; the formation of the possessive singular and the possessive plural; how to determine the object; the declension of nouns as far as explained.

3. The agreement of a verb with its subject in number; time of the action asserted by the verb, whether present, past, or future.

4. The forms of adjectives to denote different degrees of quality; comparison of adjectives and adverbs.

5. Correction of errors in violation of principles learned; sentence-making from principles and elements learned.

6. Simple sentence; analysis of simple sentence having single words and simple prepositional phrases as qualifiers or adjuncts of subject and predicate.

7. Short compositions descriptive or narrative, with reading lessons or object lessons as bases; the period, the question mark, and the comma separating a series of words; how to arrange a letter, to address an envelope, and make out a simple bill.

NUMBER.

GENERAL REVIEW of important terms, principles and methods.

1. Notation and numeration of integers and fractions carefully reviewed.
2. Necessary terms, principles, and methods thoroughly explained and carefully learned by pupils, as needed; tables and drill exercises.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division of fractions, with converse operations.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Writing charts; principles, formation, and analysis of small and capital letters carefully reviewed; drill on letters separately, and in words and sentences. Copy Book No 4½ or 5.

DRAWING.—Two or three additional varieties of leaves and flowers, on geometrical bases, with a few easy applications of these conventional forms in copies and designs.

2. Principles of design; symmetrical arrangement of forms in a straight line, or about a centre; repetition of the ornamental unit vertically, horizontally, or in a circle, to secure proper balancing, etc.

3. Drawings of copies and common objects involving principles explained; continued practice in enlarging and reducing size of copies; memory and dictation exercises, mainly of historic forms; two original designs; greater attention to principles and knowledge.

GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY.

GEOGRAPHY.—Review Hemispheres and United States; Pennsylvania. The globe and outline maps; general review.

1. South America as a continent, its location on the globe; general idea of size and population compared with the United States.

The mountain systems and their directions, and the great central plain, compared with those of North America; highest four volcanoes or peaks. The slope drained by the Orinoco, the Amazon, La Plata, and their branches.

The Equator, Tropic of Capricorn, zones; the general nature of the surface, climate, soil, animals, inhabitants, occupations, commerce.

Land Divisions.—Brazil, with general boundaries; its size and population compared with the United States; its mountain systems, plain, and river systems; its capital and two other important seaport cities.

The general boundaries of the other political divisions, with capital of each: location of Maracaybo, Panama, Aspinwall, La Guayra, Valparaiso.

Isthmus Panama; Trinidad I., Falkland, Terra del Fuego, Juan Fernandez, Chinca; Capes Gallinas, St. Roque, Horn, Blanco.

Water Divisions.—The oceans; Caribbean Sea; Strait Magellan; Gulf Darien. Lakes Maracaybo and Titicaca; Magdalena R., Orinoco, Amazon (with three branches), San Francisco, La Plata (with two branches), and the slope of countries drained by each.

Voyages and journeys between places learned, with commodities likely to be exchanged.

Meridians, standard meridians, longitude, east and west longitude.

HISTORY.—General idea of the extent of the world known at time of Columbus; what excited desire to make explorations; some account of Columbus and his ideas, efforts, voyages, and discoveries.

Spanish explorations.—Columbus, Amerigo Vespucci, Ponce de Leon, Cortes de Soto, Melendez; objects, results, settlement of St. Augustine; territory explored and claimed.

French explorations.—Verrazani, Cartier, Coligny (Ribault and Laudonniere), De Gourges, Champlain; objects, results, settlement of Quebec; territory explored and claimed.

English explorations.—Cabots, Gilbert, Raleigh, Gosnold; objects, results, settlement of Jamestown; territory explored and claimed.

Dutch explorations.—Hudson; objects, results, settlement of New Amsterdam; territory explored and claimed.

Review claims of different nations to parts of North America; basis of claims and first settlement by each nation; general idea of geography of territory explored and attempted settlements; names of noted persons; dates. Other portions as reading lessons.

MUSIC.

Under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music chart; scale, degrees; measures, time; whole tones and semitones in natural scale; sharp and flats; major diatonic scale with system of tones and semitones; formation of G major and F major, with signature and system of each.

2. How to determine the key-note when the signature is given or vice versa; where the tones and semitones must occur, why, and how.

3. Terms and marks as they are needed; drill on intervals; exercises in writing notes from dictation, naming tones or degrees sounded, and in reading music; two-part exercises and rounds, first by notes and afterwards by words; embracing principles learned.

OBJECT LESSONS AND ORAL INSTRUCTION.

MUSCLES.—Familiar talks about the muscles; exercise for development; use and abuse of exercise; exposure after exercise; danger of checking perspiration suddenly.

COMMERCE.—Means of commerce, roads, railroads, vessels and their varieties, navigation; why largest cities are on bodies of water, with illustrations; commodities exported from Philadelphia, and some imported commodities; some important manufactures, and manufactured goods exported and imported.

PLANTS.—Stem, with sap, pith, wood, bark; leaves, with stalk, blade, mid-vein, veins, and pulp; a few familiar leaves described and drawn.

Campaign of 1812, under Hull; Malden, Detroit, surrender of Michigan, August 16, 1812. Campaigns of 1813, under (1) Harrison,—Frenchtown, Maumee, Perry's victory, Thames; (2) Dearborn,—York, Fort George, Sackett's Harbor; (3) Hampton, attempt against Montreal.

Campaigns of 1814; (1) on northern frontier,—Chippewa, Lundy's Lane, Fort Erie, Plattsburg; (2) Washington and Baltimore,—Benedict, Bladensburg, Washington (Aug. 24), North Point, Fort McHenry; (3) New Orleans,—Pensacola, New Orleans (Dec. 23, and Jan. 8, 1815).

Important naval engagements:—Guerriere and Constitution, United States and Macedonian, 1812; Perry's victory, Shannon and Chesapeake, Squadron in Chesapeake Bay, 1813; McDonough's victory, 1814; Essex, Constitution, 1815.

Outline maps of campaigns; general result of each; geography of important places mentioned; Treaty, Dec. 24, 1814.

12. Mexican War:—Annexation of Texas, Taylor in Texas, declaration of war May 11, 1846.

Taylor's Campaign, 1846-47:—Corpus Christi, Point Isabel, Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma, Matamoras, Monterey, Buena Vista (Feb. 23, 1847.)

Scott's Campaign, 1847-48: Vera Cruz, Cerro Gordo, Contreras, Churubusco, El Molino del Rey, Chapultepec, Mexico, Sept. 14, 1847.

Other important events:—California conquered by Fremont, New Mexico by Kearney, Treaty, Feb. 2, 1848, terms.

Outline maps of campaigns; general results of each; geography of important places mentioned.

MUSIC.

Under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music charts; scales, degrees, tones, semitones, intervals, with further explanations and drill exercises; F or bass clef, with system of notes, compared with G clef.

2. Review formation of scales; formation of B, F sharp, A flat, major; how the signature and the keynote of each are determined; where semitones occur, and how; drill exercises.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; exercises in writing notes from dictation, in naming degrees, and in reading music; two-part and three-part exercises, by note and by words, embracing principles learned.

OBJECT LESSONS AND ORAL INSTRUCTION.

BREATHING.—Familiar talks about respiration; the lungs, and their obstructed action through compression, improper position, etc.; exercises for healthy development; impurities exhaled, action of air on blood in lungs, ventilation, drowning.

HEAT.—Expansion by heat, contraction by cold, with illustrations: the thermometer, heated air, draughts, chimneys, ventilation, wind, winds in navigation; general causes, applications, and uses to man.

PLANTS.—Parts of flowers,—stem, petals, stamens, pistils, seed-vessels; familiar flowers to aid in drawing.

Plants useful in trades, the arts, etc.; (1) dyes, (2) oils, (3) gums or resins, (4) stimulants, (5) medicines, (6) materials for clothing.

The country and climate or zone in which each is found; uses as articles of commerce.

ANIMALS.—Mammals; (1) two-handed, (2) four-handed, (3) flesh-eaters, canine and feline, (4) hoofed cud-chewers and non-cud-chewers, (5) cold-blooded.

Birds (1) aerial, perchers, climbers, birds of prey; (2) terrestrial, scratchers, runners, waders; (3) aquatic, swimmers.

General idea of nature and habits; country, and climate or zone in which each is found; uses as furnishing food, materials of clothing, and as articles of commerce.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Learning a trade; attention to business; avoidance of debt; a good character; self-improvement.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, five minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting and standing; breathing, singing and vocal exercises.
2. Systematic free gymnastics; marching, with view to exercise, obedience, discipline; ventilation of room.

SENIOR DEPARTMENT.

THIRTEENTH GRADE (SECTION B).—Time, 10 Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; selections.

1. Vocal culture; articulation, pronunciation, inflections, emphasis, force, pitch, quality, rate of movement, delivery; explanations and drill exercises.

2. Declamation; five or six selections memorized for class and individual recitation, one with each reading lesson.

SPELLING.—Review of preceding grades; spelling of technical words in subjects assigned to this Section.

1. Attention to silent letters; to simple, combined, and equivalent sounds; to marks indicating accent and pronunciation; the dictionary.

2. Rules for spelling; syllabication; dictation exercises; attention to spelling in every exercise.

DEFINITIONS AND ETYMOLOGY.—Meanings and uses of words generally explained and illustrated; the dictionary.

Review of preceding grades; root, prefix, suffix, literal and accepted meaning, analysis, and use in a sentence, of the following words:

Cogent, alienate, alimant, alternative, enmity, animosity, annals, arbitrator, armistice, augment, auspicious, casualty, decisive, candidate, incentive, capacitate, recipient, capitulate, carnage, accessory, precedent, censurable, discernment, preconcert, incite, classical, resuscitate, proclivity, conciliatory, excrescence, succumb, decorate, indenture, deteriorate, abdicate, edict, diurnal, meridian, discipline, docility, predominate, edify, egotistical, ambition, sedition, equivocate, longevity, extraneous, familiarity, infancy, elate, dilatory, diffidence, fictitious, affirmative, affliction, florid, fortify, fragility, suffrage, fraudulent, fruition, subterfuge, granivorous, aggrandize, egregious, debility, incoherent, hereditary, honorary, hospitable, identical, ignite, imaginary, imperious, intimate, intrinsic, subjugate, perjury, elaborate, collapse, negligence, legislature, liberate, relinquish, illiterate, longitude, soliloquy, reluctant, lunatic, dilute, malicious, malcontent, maintain, immature, medicinal, ameliorate, commemorate, emergency, merchandise.

Emigrate, prominent, administer, diminutive, promiscuous, commiserate, compromise, promissory, intermittent, commodity, mollify, admonish, premonitory, emotion, munificence, communicate, immutable, navigation, annexation, negative, neutralize, obnoxious, enormity, recognize, ignominy, innovation, equinox, nullify, renounce, enumerate, exonerate, option, ordinance, originate, ornate, expansion, apparition, compatriot, impatient, peculate, pension, suspension, penitence, impediment, petulant, complacence, supplement, replete, explicit, accomplice, implore, ponderous, portals, opportunity, potentate, deprecate, precarious, apprehend, impregnable, oppression, probation, proximity, appropriate, punctuate, impute, reputation, amputation, qualify, inquisitive, requisite, acquiesce, irradiate, eradicate, rectify, rational, ridiculous, rigorous, irrigate, derive, arrogate, abrogate, rotary, erudite, eruption, desecrate, sagacious, desultory, solution, sanction, sanguine, insatiable, conscientious, conscription, scrutinize, secular, supersede, subsidize, subsidiary, prowess, obsequies.

Obsequious, subservient, dissemble, assimilate, obstacle, extant, subsistence, stability, establish, disconsolate, solvency, absolute, aspersion, expatiate, speculate, despicable, specious, perspicuity, desperado, aspiration, resplendent, espouse, constellation, prostration, extirpate, astringent, construe, superstructure, superannuated, dissuade, essential, represent, presumption, insuperable, supercilious, resurrection, taciturn, contingent, extemporaneous, temporal, ostensible, intensity, tenacious, tenure, continuity, sustenance, extenuate, exterminate, detriment, deter, testament, context, intimidate, tortuous, extortion, tradition, detraction, tremendous, trivial, distribute, retribution, obtrude, tuition, contumacious, disturbance, ultimatum, umbrage, redundant, universal, usurp, extravagant, available, prevalent, convulsion, inveigh, develop, supervene, conventional, ventilate, verbiage, revere, subversive, perversion, diversify, advertise, veritable, vestige, inveterate, impervious, provision, invigorate, province, vindictive, virulent, advocate, equivocal, invocation, volatile, benevolence, devout.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—GENERAL review of preceding grades.

1. Further explanations of compound relatives, of the infinitive, of participles, of the tenses, and of the auxiliaries; drill on irregular verbs and conjugation; words used as different parts of speech.

2. Phrases and clauses used as subjects or objects; syntax of the infinitive and of the tenses; correction of false syntax; parsing; sentence-making.

3. Further explanation of words, phrases, and clauses used as qualifiers or adjuncts; simple sentences; more difficult complex and compound sentences; analysis and construction of sentences.

4. Composition with reading lessons, history, object lessons, and oral instruction as bases; punctuation of complex sentences; letter writing and business communications.

MATHEMATICS.

GENERAL review of important terms, principles, and methods.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Continued applications of percentage in insurance, stocks, bank discount, compound interest; partnership, cube root.

GEOMETRY AND MENSURATION.—Terms and definitions; problems to find the area and the several dimensions of the square, the rectangle, the rhombus, the rhomboid, the triangle, the trapezium, the trapezoid, the regular polygon, and the circle; the principles involved, and the construction of the necessary figures.

ALGEBRA.—Terms, definitions and principles of fundamental rules, fractions, and simple equations containing one unknown of the first degree.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Writing charts; formation and analysis of small and capital letters; Copy Book containing business forms, or forms of invitation, etc.

DRAWING.—1. Model and object drawing continued; freehand perspective; plane geometrical drawing with instruments. In freehand drawing, better quality of line to be exacted; in drawing with instruments, precision to be insisted upon.

2. Freehand and principles of industrial design further developed; special attention to conventional ornament as distinguished from merely imitative ornament; copies varied to illustrate different arrangement of the unit, as balance of sides, radiation from a stem, arrangement about a centre, etc.

3. Drawings of conventional forms, of common objects, of solids, with shading; applications of geometrical problems drawn with instruments for constructive and decorative purposes; dictation and memory exercises on historical forms mainly; three or four original designs.

GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY.

GEOGRAPHY.—1. The earth as a Planet.—Form, imaginary circles, rotation and its effects, revolution around the sun and its effects.

2. The natural divisions of the Earth.—Land and water; continents (mountain systems, table lands, low plains); islands (continental, oceanic), peninsulas and capes; oceans, seas, gulfs or bays, and river systems and drainage, in review, topically.

3. Terms and definitions; topical review embracing location of land and water; boundaries, surface (including mountain systems, plains, river systems and drainage), climate (as determined by latitude, zone, elevation), soil, general nature of productions, commerce, cities, (capitals or important commercial or manufacturing cities) general nature of government, religion, and civilization of countries embraced in review.

HISTORY.—1. History of the United States concluded, as reading lessons.

2. England.—History till Norman conquest, as reading lessons; attention to conquests by Romans, Saxons, Danes.

Important events (cause, date, consequence);—Norman conquest, Ireland conquered, Magna Charta, Wales conquered, wars with Scotland (till 1603); wars with France (till 1558); Wars of the Roses, reign of Henry VIII and of Elizabeth, Scotland united with England, Civil War, the Commonwealth, the Restoration, the Revolution of 1688, War of Spanish Succession and of Austrian Succession, the Peninsular War, and the Crimean War; Houses of English Sovereigns, and Sovereigns of each House.

3. France.—History till reign of Charlemagne as reading lessons; attention to invasion by Romans, Franks, Saracens.

Important events (cause, date, consequence);—Empire of Charlemagne, wars with England (till 1558), Salic Law, reign of Francis I., the Reformation, massacre of St. Bartholomew, reign of Henry IV, Edict of Nantes and its revocation, reign of Louis XIV (Cardinal Richelieu), war of Spanish Succession, and of Austrian Succession, the Seven Years' War; dynasties (Capetian, Valois, Orleans, Bourbon), and most celebrated sovereigns of each.

Reign of Louis XVI, the Revolution, career of Napoleon, the Restoration, the Revolution of 1830 and of 1848, the French Republic, Louis Napoleon President and Emperor, war with Russia, with Austria, and with Prussia.

4. Spain.—History till the expulsion of the Moors as reading lessons; attention to invasions of Romans, Moors, and Goths.

Important events (cause, date, consequence);—Reign of Ferdinand and Isabella, Conquest of Granada, Charles I (V of Germany), Philip II, (the Netherlands, etc.), possessions in America, Invincible Armada, War of Spanish Succession, Joseph Bonaparte, the Peninsular War, the Restoration, Isabella.

5. Some idea of Spain, France, and England at the time of their respective discoveries and explorations in America, and of the causes leading to settlements by subjects of each.

General causes and some account of the following wars affecting American Colonies;—King William's War (Revolution in England), Queen Anne's War (War of Spanish Succession), King George's War (War of Austrian Succession), French and Indian War (Seven Years' War); War of 1812 (Napoleon's Wars).

Other portions of history of England, France and Spain to be carefully read.

MUSIC.

Under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music chart and manual; review classification of measures, their forms and signs; time, its signs and beats; diatonic scales, their key-notes and signatures; expression, and rhythmical reading of music.

2. The practice of intervals with natural tones, and of intervals with sharps and flats in the different keys in G clef (and F clef, for boys).

3. Terms and marks as they occur; further exercises in vocal training; exercises in naming degrees, in writing notes indicating tones or degrees, and in reading music; two-part and three-part exercises by note and by words, embracing principles learned.

OBJECT LESSONS AND ORAL INSTRUCTION.

ELEMENTARY PHYSICS.—Attraction,—why the parts of bodies stick together; why bodies keep their form; how different bodies can be made to stick together (paste, glue, mortar, chalk and pencil marks); why bodies fall to the ground (a pound weight, lifting a stone, the common pump); why liquids rise in tubes (sponge, blotting-paper, sugar, etc.); other illustrations.

Mechanical powers.—how weight and attraction are overcome (the crow-bar, doors, wheel-barrow, pulleys, rolling barrels into a wagon, the wedge, the screw).

THE EYE.—Sources of light; the eye, its parts and its general structure; care of the eyes, injury from excessive use, from reading by dim light or at twilight, from looking at or facing bright light, from holding book too close or at wrong angle; how the pupil enlarges and contracts; how owls and cats see by night.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT.—What law is; the law-making power of the city; the councils, mayor, police, judges, courts, prisons; Boards of Education, Health, Fire Commissioners; Departments of Highways, Water, Gas; general duties of each.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Honesty in business; integrity in positions of trust; honor and character; care in choosing vocation, and perseverance after choice is made.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES, ETC.—Proper position while sitting, standing, walking; systematic free gymnastics; ventilation of room; general laws of health.

FOURTEENTH GRADE (SECTION A).—Time, 10 Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING AND ELOCUTION.—Phonic chart; vocal culture; declamation; recitations and dialogues; explanations and drill exercises.

SPELLING.—1. Constant attention to spelling; to accent and pronunciation; to marks; to rules for spelling; to dictation exercises.

2. Classes of words, as simple and compound; primitive and derivative; monosyllables, dissyllables, trisyllables, polysyllables;—syllabication.

DEFINITIONS AND ETYMOLOGY.—1. The meanings and the uses of words generally explained and illustrated; the dictionary.

2. The etymology or derivation of words generally; their literal and their accepted meanings compared; their analysis; attention to words of historic importance or nature; formation of words from given roots.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—General review of important definitions and principles.

1. Further explanation of the subjunctive and its proper use; of idiomatic uses of verbs, modes tenses, pronouns; correction of false syntax; parsing; sentence making.

2. Classes of sentences, clauses, and phrases, carefully reviewed; qualifiers of subject and predicate further explained; analysis and construction of sentences.

3. Compositions, letter-writing, abstracts from reading and other lessons; transposition from poetry to prose; biographical and historical sketches, and important general principles and rules for punctuation.

ENGLISH LITERATURE.—For pupils of Senior Department for Girls.

Literature; prose and poetry; kinds of each; different periods of literature of England; of literature of America; brief historical sketch.

Brief biographical sketch of the following authors, their important works, nature of their writings, extracts, analysis, and criticism:

English.—Chaucer, Spencer, Shakspeare, Milton, Dryden, Pope, Addison, Goldsmith, Johnson, Byron, Wordsworth, Scott, Tennyson, Macaulay, and Dickens.

American.—Edwards, Franklin, Jefferson, Bryant, Longfellow, Whittier.

Lowell, Holmes, Irving, Prescott, Bancroft, Motley, Cooper, Hawthorne, Webster, Emerson, and Agassiz.

Other authors, so far as time may permit.

MATHEMATICS.

GENERAL REVIEW of important terms, principles, and methods.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Continued applications of percentage in partial payments, taxes, duties or customs, exchange, average of payments; partnership, analysis, metric system, business calculations.

GEOMETRY AND MENSURATION.—Terms and definitions; plane geometry of lines, angles, triangles, quadrilaterals; proportion, and proportion applied to plane figures.

Terms and definitions in mensuration; problems to find solidity, surface and the several dimensions of the rectangular solids, the pyramid, the sphere and the cone; general principles of geometry involved, and construction of necessary figures.

ALGEBRA.—Terms, definitions and principles; simple equations involving two or more unknown quantities of first degree, quadratics, proportions and progressions, involution, evolution, surds, imaginary quantities.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Charts; formation and analysis of letters; copy-book.

BOOK-KEEPING and business forms, etc.

DRAWING.—1. Plane geometric drawing with instruments continued; simple applications of the geometric problems in construction and decoration; preference to Moresque forms, they being largely composed of lines that can be best drawn with instruments.

2. Drawing from flat copies, with exercises in original composition or design filling geometrical spaces; instruments to be used as they would be used by practical designers; more practice in light and shade.

2. Some exercise in producing large drawings with crayon; memory and dictation exercises with special attention to historic ornament and styles, giving facts pertaining thereto; cube, pyramid, sphere, cylinder and cone drawn, with light and shade; original designs.

GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.—1. The earth as a globe.—Its form and dimensions, —the (probable) condition of its interior,—its surface (as land, water, atmosphere).

2. The earth as a planet.—Form; rotation and its effects; revolution and its effects (theory of seasons); imaginary circles; maps and map projections.

3 The natural divisions of the earth.—(a) Land, including continents, islands, peninsulas, capes, mountains, table lands, plains; (b) Water, including oceans, seas, gulfs or bays, straits, lakes, and rivers.

4. Land.—The structure of the land; the interior and the crust of the earth; general idea of minerals, rocks (with classes of rocks), and fossils in the earth's crust; general geological history of the earth's crust; some changes now in progress; volcanoes and earthquakes (brief theory and distribution).

Relief forms,—(a) of the earth, mountains, table lands or plateaus, plains, steppes, prairies; (b) of each continent, North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia; (c) of the United States and of Pennsylvania carefully.

Islands.—(a) continental, with theory of origin, and principal chains; (b) oceanic, including volcanic islands and coral islands (with their classes); their distribution.

5. Water.—The geographical distribution of the ocean with its great subdivisions; lakes; drainage, continental, or steppe, and oceanic, with examples. Ocean movements,—waves; tides, some theory of their cause or origin; currents, some theory of their origin, and their uses.

6. Atmosphere.—The constituent parts, temperature, evaporation, winds, with some theory of their origin, of constant winds, trade winds, land and sea breezes.

7. Climate.—Modifying causes; isothermal and snow lines; climatic zones; vegetation (very brief) showing productions of different climates and how these productions affect human industries; animals (very brief), showing characteristics of different zones and continents; man (very brief), showing different races, their proportion, leading characteristics and distribution.

GENERAL HISTORY.—History of nations of remote antiquity mainly as reading lessons; attention to history of Babylon, Assyria, Egypt, Persia.

2. Greece.—History till first Persian War mainly as reading lessons; attention to Argonautic Expedition, Trojan War, wars with minor nations; laws of Lycurgus, Draco, Solon.

General cause, nature, date, and consequence of Persian invasions, Peloponnesian Wars, Sacred War, Macedonian Empire established, career of Alexander the Great, Achaean League, surrender of Corinth; other important portions to be read carefully.

3. Rome.—History till Punic Wars mainly as reading lessons; attention to the founding of Rome, the Kingdom of Rome, government by consuls, by tribunes, and decemvirs, plebeian and patrician contents, wars with surrounding nations.

General cause, nature, date, and consequence of Punic Wars, the three triumvirates, wars with neighboring states, the civil wars between Marius and Sylla, Caesar and Pompey, Octavius and Anthony, the Republic and the Empire established, separation into Eastern and Western Empire, fall of Western Empire (476), and conquest of Eastern Empire (1453).

Other important portions and history of contemporaneous nations to be read carefully.

4. The Dark Ages, the Feudal System, the Crusades, and Central and Southern Europe during the Middle Ages, as reading lessons.

5. Germany.—The Hanseatic League, the Reformation, the Thirty Years' War, Napoleon's Wars, war with Austria (1866), and war with France (1870).

Prussia.—The reign of Frederick the Great, Napoleon's Wars, the partitions of Poland, and the Empire of Germany (1866).

Austria.—Rudolph I (Hapsburg), the partitions of Poland, a separate empire (1906), Napoleon's Wars, and wars with Prussia and Italy.

Russia.—Peter the Great, Catharine II, the partitions of Poland, Napoleon's Wars, and the Crimean War.

Other important events, history of contemporaneous nations; and history of America not connected with history of the United States to be read.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.—Attention to distribution of powers of government among the three departments; the nature of the duties of each department; the qualifications of members of each, the manner of their election or appointment, their terms of service, their privileges, duties, and powers; with text of the Constitution relating thereto.

2. The clauses relating to the powers of the general government and those reserved to the states; the rights and privileges of citizens; the modes of admitting states, making foreign treaties, making appointments, of passing laws, and of amending the Constitution: the important amendments; to be carefully studied from the text of the Constitution.

MUSIC.

Under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music charts and manual; explanation of motive, phrase, and period; movement; accentuation; rhythmical reading of music.

2. The diatonic minor scale, the natural minor scale, the formation of minor diatonic scales, their key-notes and their signatures.

3. Further exercises in vocal training; registers or compass of the voice; reading music, naming degrees, and writing notes that indicate tones or degrees sounded; two-part and three-part exercises by note and by words, embracing subjects learned.

OBJECT LESSONS AND ORAL INSTRUCTION.

ANATOMY, PHYSIOLOGY, AND HYGIENE.—Mainly by charts and lectures.

1. Bones.—Their form, composition, and uses; joints, how formed and their uses; spinal column, its formation and peculiarities; teeth, their structure and preservation; broken bones, and how repaired.

2. Muscles and Tendons.—Their formation and their uses; how attached; their contraction and expansion; voluntary and involuntary muscular motion; effects of exercise, of rest; general hygiene.

3. Digestive apparatus.—The uses of the teeth; the salivary glands, their position and uses; mastication; the gullet; the stomach, its position, structure, and functions; gastric digestion; brief notice of duodenum, intestines, intestinal digestion, and lacteals; the importance of the liver; effects of chewing too little, of eating too often, too much, or irregularly; dyspepsia; general hygiene; common poisons and their antidotes.

4. Circulatory apparatus.—The general relations of the heart, arteries, capillaries, and veins; passage of blood through the heart, arteries, lungs, veins; the pulse, and the rate of pulsation; close connection between the digestive and the circulatory apparatus; quantity of blood in the system; effect of exercise and fresh air on blood and on circulation, of tight garments, of scanty clothing, and of insufficient or improper food; wounds or cut arteries, and what to do; general hygiene.

5. Respiratory apparatus.—The lungs, air cells, wind-pipe, nostrils; the ribs, the diaphragm, their muscles, and their functions; mechanical processes of respiration; the air we breathe; changes in the air from respiration, changes in the blood—arterial and venous blood; close relation between capillaries and air-vessels; the capacity of the lungs; effect of tight lacing, of improper position, of impure air, of ventilation; drowning or suffocation, and what to do; the vocal organs, and their functions; general hygiene.

6. The skin.—Its structure and uses; perspiration and absorption; effect of perspiration; close sympathy of skin with digestive and respiratory organs; of bathing, of proper clothing; scalds and burns, and how to treat them; general hygiene.

7. The nervous system.—General nature of brain and nerves; special senses, touch, taste, smell, the eye (its structure and functions), the ear (its structure and functions); general hygiene.

NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.—For pupils in Senior Department for Boys.

1. Matter and its general and specific properties, with examples and illustrations.

2. Attraction; (a) cohesion,—solids, liquids, gases; (b) gravitation—weight, pressure of water, pressure of atmosphere (balances, air-pump, pump, barometer); (c) capillary—ascend of liquid in tubes (sponge, blotting-paper, lamp-wick, sap in vegetation).

3. Motion; inertia, force, resistance, action and reaction, centrifugal and centripetal force; with examples and illustrations.

4. Mechanical powers; weight, power, fulcrum; (a) the lever and its three kinds (crow-bar, pump-handle, balance, scissors, nut-cracker, wheelbarrow, oars, door, tongs, bladder, muscles of the arm and leg); (b) the wheel and axle (windlass, capstan watch fusee); (c) the pulley and movable pulleys; (d) the inclined plane (rolling barrels into a wagon, lowering boxes into a cellar); (e) the wedge; and (f) the screw; general principles and laws; applications in machinery.

5. Heat; (a) sources (sun, combustion, friction); (b) expansion and contraction of matter (solids, liquids, gases, thermometer); (c) change of form (solids into liquids, liquids into gases); (d) conduction and radiation (conductors, non-conductors, rays of sun, stoves, clothing); applications (ventilation, wind, evaporation, fog, dew, frost, clouds, rain, hail, snow, ice).

6. Light; (a) sources (heavenly bodies, combustion, friction); (b) refraction (glass or prism, water, air, the eye); (c) reflection (looking glass, water); (d) necessary to growth and health of plants and animals.

7. General principles of vibrations and their applications in sound (the organs of hearing); and of electricity.

BY-LAWS.

I.

Officers.

The officers of this Board shall be a President, a Secretary, Assistant Secretary, First Clerk, Second Clerk, Third Clerk, and Messenger, to be elected annually at the organization of

II.

President.

He shall preside at all meetings of the Board ; determine questions of order without debate, subject to appeal to the Board ; call all committees, except when otherwise ordered by the Board ; sign and instruments under seal of the Board ; sign all orders directed by the Board ; inspect the Minutes of the Board ; call Special Meetings of the Board when requested, in three members, or when such meeting shall, in his opinion, be necessary.

III.

Secretary.

He shall keep accurate Minutes of the proceedings of the Board in a book provided for that purpose, and shall, when requested, be Secretary of all Standing Committees ; attest all resolutions and instruments under seal of the Board ; preserve all books and papers placed under his care ; notify, in writing, the members of the Board of all meetings thereof, and the members of all Committees of their appointment. He shall furnish the Chairman with a resolution appointing each Committee, and notify, in writing, the members of all meetings thereof. In case of sickness or absence of the President, he shall, at the request of three members, call Special Meetings of the Board. He shall have the care and custody of the supplies which may be ordered by the Committee on Supplies delivered to the Board. It shall be his duty, from time to time, whenever supplies are needed, to report the fact to the Board, and procure them on their order, from those persons having authority under the authority of the Board. He shall also keep a list of the Board, and hold the same subject to the inspection of any member thereof.

IV.

Assistant Secretary and Clerks.

They shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by the Secretary.

V.

Messenger.

He shall perform the duties belonging to the office of Messenger, and act as Janitor in the rooms of the Board; he shall aid the Secretary in the reception and distribution of supplies, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the Secretary.

VI.

Stated Meetings.

SECTION 1. The Stated Meetings of the Board shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Special Meetings.

SECTION 2. When Special Meetings are called, the nature of the business to be transacted shall be stated in the call and notices for said meeting, and no other business than that for which the meeting was called, shall be transacted at said meeting, except by unanimous consent.

Quorum.

SECTION 3. Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, pursuant to the following Act of Assembly, passed February 15, 1832:

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To an Act entitled "An Act to provide for education," etc.

SECTION I. That five members of the Controllers of Public Schools for the City and County of Philadelphia shall constitute a quorum for the making of orders for the payment of money, and the transaction of business generally, with this exception: that no order for the payment of money shall be made at any Special Meeting of the Board, unless a majority of the whole number be present.

VII.

Order of Business.

At the hour appointed the President (or in case of his absence a member of the Board chosen President pro tem.) shall take the chair, and direct the roll to be called. If any member shall afterwards appear, his name shall be noted. The business shall proceed, as follows, viz.:

- I. Admission of new members.
- II. The reading of the minutes.
- III. The reading of communications.
- IV. Reports of standing committees.
- V. Reports of select committees.
- VI. Unfinished business.
- VII. New business.

VIII.

Committees.

The President shall appoint, at the first stated meeting in January, of each year, Standing Committees, as follows; each consisting of five members, except the following: Committees on Estimating Night Schools, Central High School and Girls' Normal School, which shall each consist of nine; and the Committees on By-Laws and Rules, Property, Text Books, Legislation, and University of Pennsylvania, which shall each consist of seven. One of each committee, respectively, or the Secretary of the Board, shall act as Secretary of said Committees.

IX.

Duties of the Committee on Accounts.

They shall examine and report all bills and accounts, properly attested, from the Committees of this Board and of Sectional Boards. No bill of any Sectional Board shall be sanctioned unless the same shall have been approved by the said Sectional Board, at a stated or special meeting thereof, and be in accordance with the rules of this Board.

X.

Duties of Committee on Supplies.

I. They shall annually, in the month of October, cause to be inserted, in five of the daily papers of this City, an advertisement asking proposals for furnishing all necessary books and stationery, by sample, for the ensuing year. And the said advertisement shall contain notice that any article furnished this Board, not in accordance with the sample, as named below, will be rejected. One month prior to making such advertisement for proposals for the supply of pens, pen-holders, ink, ink-wells and stands, slates (other than silicate), slate and soap-stone pencils, lead pencils, rubbers, chalk, paper, and plain copy books, they shall select suitable samples of the said articles of stationery, which samples shall be exhibited, at the office of the Board, to intending bidders, and the advertisement herein directed to be made shall invite proposals for furnishing the said articles, in accordance with such samples.

II. Said proposals for supplies shall be directed to and opened by the President, in the presence of the Board, at the Stated Meeting in December, and the contracts therefor shall be awarded to the lowest bidders. Provided, however, That no contract shall be awarded to the publishers of the books or manufacturers of the stationery (excepting the manufacturers of such articles of stationery as are specified in the next preceding section), for the supply of which proposals have been invited as aforesaid, unless such proposals be accompanied by the affidavit of the bidder, made before the Mayor of any city or a Judge of any Court of Record, to the fact that the price at which the books or stationery are proposed to be supplied is not greater than that charged buyers of like quantities on a credit of sixty days. And provided further, That this section shall not be construed to require the Board to reject a bid unaccompanied by an affidavit.

III. All persons sending proposals to furnish the schools of this District with supplies of any kind, at a given price, shall accompany the same with a bond, executed by at least two persons, in such amount as may be deemed sufficient by the Committee on Supplies of this Board, conditioned for the faithful performance of any contract which shall be awarded to them pursuant to said proposals; and said bond shall accompany and be filed with the contract so awarded.

IV. They shall annually, in the month of May, cause to be inserted in five of the daily papers of this City an advertisement asking proposals for the furnishing of the necessary fuel. And such advertisement shall contain the following condition, which shall be inserted in every contract for the delivery of the coal, viz: "Each ton of said coal shall be weighed at the place of delivery, in the presence of a proper person to be appointed by the Committee on Supplies, who shall keep an accurate account of each load of coal delivered, and of its exact weight as ascertained by correct scales. And no bill shall be approved for such coal unless an affidavit of the weigher shall accompany such bill, setting forth by what contractor the coal was delivered, the date of delivery of each load, the number of tons and the quality of coal delivered, and whether weighed at place of delivery." Printed forms of said affidavit to be furnished by the Committee on Supplies.

V. They shall, annually, in the month of October, cause to be inserted, in five of the daily papers of this City, an advertisement asking proposals for printing all matter needed by the Board (accompanied with samples of paper and printing), for the ensuing year. Said proposals shall be directed to, and opened by, the Chairman of the Committee on Supplies, in the presence of the Board, at the Stated Meeting in December, and the contracts therefor shall be awarded to the lowest bidder.

VI. They shall hold monthly meetings, and preserve regular minutes of all their proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, and make a report, in writing, at the stated meetings of the Board, in April, June, October, and December, of the amount of supplies on hand, particularizing the supplies under the heads of book, charts, copy-books, blank-books, and stationery; the Committee shall also report the amount, at the date of said report, of the balance due the Board on the item of appropriation for "Books and Stationery."

VII. It shall be the duty of the Committee, at the commencement of each year, to apportion to each Section their proportion of the appropriation for books and stationery for the current year, the said apportionment to be based upon the number of pupils in the respective Sections. No Section shall be permitted to receive supplies beyond the amount so apportioned.

XI.

Duties of the Committee on Text-books.

I. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Text-books to consider applications referred to them by the Board, to introduce any new text-book or publication, or any revised or amended edition of one already in use. The said committee shall examine the same thoroughly, and shall make a written report to the Board, setting forth the reasons for or against the introduction of the same. Provided, In no case shall the Committee make a report upon any book or publication, unless each member of the Board shall have been furnished with a copy thereof (accompanied with a statement of the price at which the book will be supplied to the Board), for examination, at least two months previously to the time herein fixed for making said report.

II. The Board of Public Education shall in no case direct the introduction of any such book or publication until the next stated meeting after the presentation of the report thereon. No such book or publication shall be furnished for the use of the schools until at least one year after adoption.

III. The Committee shall not allow any book or other publication to be introduced into or used in any school of the district unless the same shall have been first approved by this Board; nor shall any new or revised edition of any book in use be introduced without the like approval.

IV. They shall, before recommending the introduction of any new book, or recommending a change in any book or series of books, determine whether such recommendation is in accordance with the Act of Assembly which forbids "any change to be made in the school books, or series of text-books, used in any school, more than once in every period of three years."

V. Not more than two text-books on one study will be allowed in the schools at the same time. In all cases where the full number of text-books is in use, one of such books shall be retired from the list before the introduction of another on the same subject.

VI. They shall also report to the Board books or other publications not proper to be retained.

XII.

Duties of the Committee on Property.

I. They shall have the supervision of the erection of all school-houses, and also of all repairs, improvements, and alterations exceeding the sum of $150.

II. They shall, before commencing operation upon any contract for the erection of a new school-house, or alterations or additions to those in the occupancy of the Board, require the contractor to give good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his contract, to be approved by them. The Committee may waive security in cases where the contract does not exceed five hundred dollars.

III. When a new school is to be opened or the location of a school changed, whereby an additional building is needed, the Committee on Property shall first approve of the rent required for the same.

IV. They shall, from time to time, inspect the real estate under the control of the Board, and report the condition of the same; they shall have all buildings and other property insured in amounts as they may deem necessary.

V. The Committee shall make a report in writing to the at every stated meeting, of all its transactions, in which shall set forth, in detail, all the contracts which it has made the current month for work and materials, the nature of the to be done and where, the kind of material contracted for and to be furnished, the contract price, the item or items of the priation from which the contractor or contractors are to be and the name or names of the contractor or contractors.

The Committee shall keep in a substantial book, provided : purpose, a full record of all its transactions, which record book be kept in the Office of the Board, and shall be at all times to the inspection of the members of the Board.

XIII.

Duties of the Committee on Central High School.

I. They shall visit the school semi-monthly, keep regular utes of their proceedings, and report annually the state of the In case of any vacancy in the Faculty, they shall recommend Board a suitable person or persons to fill the same.

II. They shall recommend to the Board the conferring *degree of Bachelor of Arts upon all who shall meritoriously completed the four years' course; and the degree of Master upon such graduates of not less than five years' standing as by their general merit, be entitled to that distinction.

XIV.

Duties of the Committee on Girls' Normal School.

I. They shall visit the school semi-monthly, keep regular n of their proceedings, report annually the state of the school, case of any vacancy in the Faculty, shall recommend a s person or persons to the Board to fill the same.

II. They shall have prepared a diploma, to be given to the pupils as shall, upon examination, be deemed worthy same.

XV.

Duties of the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and F Schools.

I. All applications for the establishment of new schools, removal of those already established, or for the formation of division. or for the change of grade of any school, shall be referred to this Committee, whose duty it shall be to report upon the same at the next Stated Meeting of the Board.

* Under Act of Assembly.

II. All applications for change in the salary of any teacher, or housekeeper shall be referred to this Committee, who shall report upon the same at the next Stated Meeting of the Board.

XVI.

Duties of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers.

I. They shall hold biennial examinations of such persons (excepting applicants for the position of music teachers) as may apply for Certificates of Qualification to teach in the public schools of the First School District of Pennsylvania; and said examinations shall be held on the second Tuesday, and following Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of April. The first examination shall be held in the month of April, 1879.

II. The Committee may require the assistance of such members of the Faculties of the Boys' Central High School and the Girls' Normal School, and of such Principals of Grammar Schools for Boys, as they may deem necessary to conduct such examinations.

When the results of any examination, which shall have been held under the provisions of this By-Law, shall be ascertained, they shall be reported by the Committee at the next Stated Meeting of the Board. Said report shall give the names of the successful persons; the particular average obtained, by each, in each branch of study; and his or her general average and position on the list.

The Committee shall cause such rules to be made, as shall secure, at all times, the utmost fairness and impartiality in the examination.

III. The Committee shall award two grades of certificates denominated, respectively, Principal's Certificate and Assistant's Certificate, to such persons as may, upon examination, be found qualified to receive the same.

IV. All applicants shall be examined on one set of questions, which shall be such as may be answered from the text-books in use in the Girls' Normal School.

V. A Principal's Certificate shall be awarded to such persons, not less than 17 years of age, as shall, upon examination, obtain a general average scholarship of not less than 75 in the following subjects:

VIII. No applicant shall be examined who shall not have the age of 17 years.

No pupil of the public schools shall be examined who have been a pupil of the Girls' Normal School or the Boy High School for at least two years.

IX. No pupil of the Girls' Normal School, or the Boy High School shall be examined, unless the name of said pupils upon a list of "applicants for examination," certified by the Principal of the school from which said pupil has been deposited with the Secretary of this Board, at least three days prior to the examination. Applicants who are not pupils of the public schools named shall also be required to register their names with the Secretary of this Board three days prior to the examination.

X. The holder of a Principal's Certificate shall be ineligible to any position in the public schools of this District except that of Principal; and, after one year's experience in the public schools, shall be eligible to the Principalship of a Primary School; after two years' experience, to the Principalship of a Secondary School; and after three years' experience, to the Principalship of a Grammar School. Provided, however, That the holder of such certificate shall not be eligible to the Principalship of a school, unless he or she shall be at least twenty years of age.

XI. The holder of an Assistant's Certificate shall be ineligible to an assistantship in any of the public schools; and, after three years' experience in teaching in the public schools, shall be eligible to the Principalship of a Secondary or Primary School.

XII. To render a person eligible to the position of Principal of a Consolidated School of four or more divisions, such person must be the holder of a Principal's Certificate, and must have had three years' experience in teaching in the public schools of this district. The holder of an Assistant's Certificate shall be eligible to the position of Principal of a Consolidated School of less than four divisions.

These provisions, however, shall not disqualify any person who is now the Principal of a Consolidated School from continuing to hold such position, or from being elected to the Principalship of any other Consolidated School.

XIII. The holder of a first grade certificate, issued, by authority of this Board, prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange such certificate for a Principal's Certificate, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby.

XIV. The holder of a second grade certificate, issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange such certificate for an Assistant's Certificate, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby.

The holders of second, third, and fourth class certificates, who attained averages of 75, and upwards, at examinations held prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange their certificates for Principal's Certificates, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby. Provided, Said applicants were examined in all the branches of study upon which the applicants for first class certificates were examined.

XV. The holder of a third or fourth grade certificate, issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be eligible to any position in a Primary or Secondary School, excepting that of Principal; and, after three years' experience in teaching in the public schools, shall be eligible to the principalship of a Primary or Secondary School, or to any assistantship in a Grammar School.

XVI. Principals of Grammar Schools who were regularly examined prior to 1865, and who are now teaching, shall be entitled to a Principal's Certificate.

XVII. No person shall be elected to the position of teacher in any of the public schools of this District, or be employed as a substitute therein, unless he or she shall have received a Certificate of Qualification, duly issued, by the authority of this Board, after his or her examination. Provided, That this rule shall not apply to teachers who were duly elected prior to the passage of the Act of Assembly, approved February 17, 1865, relative to the examination of teachers in the First School District, and who were at that time teachers in the public schools; but such teachers may be promoted, from time to time, without being required to pass an examination. And provided further, That this rule shall not apply to such Sections specially exempted by Acts of Assembly.

XVIII. No person elected by a Sectional Board to a position as teacher in any of the public schools of the District shall be entitled to any of the rights, privileges, or emoluments of such position, until said election be reported to and approved by this Board.

XIX. No person of bad character, or of intemperate or other immoral habits, shall be elected a teacher in any of the public schools.

XX. No person who, by reason of ill health, extreme age, or other sufficient cause, is incompetent to discharge the duties of a teacher, shall be eligible to a position as such.

XXI. When any election, transfer, or promotion of a teacher is reported to this Board, the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools shall ascertain whether the same is in accordance with the provisions of Sections X., XI., XII., XV., XVII., XVIII., XIX., and XX., of this By-Law, before reporting the same for confirmation by this Board; and all charges of violation of the provisions of said Sections shall be made in writing, and shall be referred to said Committee, who shall investigate, and report the facts at the next meeting of the Board.

XXII. Provisions governing the examination of members of the graduating class of the Girls' Normal School.

The examination held at the Girls' Normal School, at the close of the third year's course of study therein, shall also be an examination of the qualifications of the members of the graduating class of said school to become teachers in the public schools of this District.

Said examination shall be upon the studies taught during the third year of the course; and shall be conducted by the faculty of said school, under the supervision of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers, in such manner as may be prescribed by said Committee and the Committee on Girls' Normal School.

A Principal's certificate shall be awarded by the Committee on Qualification of Teachers to each pupil of said school, who, having obtained a general average scholarship of 85, or upwards, at the examination aforesaid, shall also obtain a general average of 85, or upwards, for her work as a teacher in the School of Practice, and for her scholarship, during the fourth year of the Normal School course.

In like manner, an Assistant's Certificate shall be awarded to each pupil who shall have obtained averages of 70 or upwards, [and less than 85,] at the said examination and during the fourth year of the Normal School course.

A pupil who, having obtained an average of 85, or upwards, at the examination aforesaid, shall receive an average of 70 or upwards, [and less than 85,] during the fourth year of the course, shall be entitled to an Assistant's Certificate.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on Girls' Normal School to certify to the Committee on Qualification of Teachers the average which shall be earned by the pupils of said school during the fourth year of the course; and said averages shall be attested by the Principals of the Girls' Normal School and of the Department of Practice therein. Thereupon the Committee on Qualification of Teachers shall issue Certificates to *the pupils who shall be entitled thereto.

XXIII. Provisions governing the examination of members of the graduating class of the Boys' Central High School.

The examination held at the Boys' Central High School, at the close of the term which completes the full course of study in said school, shall also be an examination of the qualifications of the members of the graduating class of said school to become teachers in the public schools of this District.

Said examination shall be upon the studies taught during the term which completes the full course of instruction in said school; and shall be conducted by the faculty of said school, under the supervision of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers, in such manner as may be prescribed by said Committee and the Committee on Boys' Central High School.

A Principal's Certificate shall be awarded by the Committee on Qualification of Teachers to each pupil of said school who shall obtain a general average scholarship of 85, or upwards, at said examination.

XXIV. No change shall be made in this By-Law, unless such change shall have been proposed at a stated meeting of the Board, laid over for one month before being considered, and shall have received the vote of two-thirds of the entire Board.

XVII.

Duties of the Committee on Reports of Schools.

They shall carefully examine all reports of Schools, and present an abstract therefrom to the Board; they shall report all schools in which there are more teachers than the quarterly average attendance of the pupils will warrant (as required by Rule XXIV. of the Board), and shall visit the schools as they may deem expedient for required information. In computing such average attendance, the month of June shall be excluded.

XVIII.

Duties of the Committee on Office and Expenses.

This Committee shall have the general supervision of the office and rooms of the Board, and of the office employes; determine what books shall be opened; prescribe the manner in which the records of the office shall be kept; report the amount and kind of clerical other working force that may be required from time to time, and regulate and assign the clerical duties of the office. They shall have control of the general items for carriage hire, advertising, and printing, and shall indicate the proportion of said items which may be expended by the different Committees of the Board. They shall purchase all articles necessary for the use of the Board (not otherwise provided for). All bills for such expenses shall be approved by them before they shall be allowed by the Committee on Account.

BY-LAWS.

XIX.

Duties of the Committee on Revision of Studies.

They shall observe the operation of the "Course of Instruction," as fixed by the Board, and shall report, from time to time, what change, if any, the same may require.

XX.

Duties of the Committee on Estimates.

They shall visit, as far as practicable, annually, each of the school-buildings occupied by authority of this Board, and ascertain if any repairs, additions, or improvements are necessary for the well-being of the schools.

They shall also examine the outside surroundings of all the school-rooms occupied as above, and determine what is required relative thereto, for the convenience, health, and comfort of the pupils, and for the preservation of the property of the city.

They shall prepare and report to this Board, at the Stated Meeting in October, a detailed statement, classified in "School Sections," showing the requirements of the Sectional Boards, with the estimated cost thereof.

They shall also report the amount required by the "Committee on Supplies" (as reported by them), and estimate the sum needed for the expenses of the several Committees (as reported by them), showing the entire requirements of the "First School District," prepared in form to be submitted to the City Councils (in accordance with the "Act of Assembly") as the estimated expense for school purposes for the coming year.

They shall cause a "Record" to be kept in a book prepared for the purpose, and called "Record of Committee on Estimates, stating the precise wants of the respective sections for all purposes, when increased above the estimate of the previous year, the increase of each item shall be plainly stated, so that the full particulars be submitted to this Board and to the Councils of the City, as desired. They shall meet at least monthly, and report their proceedings at each Stated Meeting of the Board.

For properly securing the object desired in the appointment of this Committee, the Secretary of this Board shall notify each Sectional Board, at least thirty days prior to the Stated Meeting of the Board in September, to report to the Board at said meeting.

mailed statement of all special items of repair needed in the respective sections for the coming year, with the probable amount needed therefor attached to each item.

They shall have power to require the attendance and services of any of the employes of this Board, so far as may seem to them proper, in performance of the duties to which they have been appointed.

XXI.

Duties of the Committee on Music.

The Committee on Music shall have charge of all matter pertaining to that study in the Public Schools. Instruction in music, in addition to that given by the regular teachers, as provided in the "Graded Course," shall be given by a superintendent, who shall be the principal Music Teacher of the District, and by a many special music teachers as the Committee may deem necessary, but not more than one for each section. The salary of the Superintendent shall be the same as that of a Principal of a Boys' Grammar School, and the salary of the special music teachers shall be fixed by the Committee, subject to the approval of the Board.

The Committee shall nominate to the Board the person to fill the office of Superintendent (when a vacancy occurs), who, after confirmation by the Board, shall hold said office until removed by the Board. The Committee, whenever they may deem necessary, shall hold examinations of applicants for positions as music teachers; such examinations to be conducted in such manner as the Committee may prescribe; and no person elected by a Sectional Board as music teacher shall be confirmed as such by this Board, unless she or he shall have received a certificate of qualification at such examination, or shall hold a certificate of qualification issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law.

The Committee shall require the Superintendent to visit and examine orally (not for promotion), each Grammar School, at least once in six months, and the lower schools as often as possible. They shall, also, require each music teacher to give instruction for at least one hour per week in each Grammar and Secondary School, and for at least one-half hour every other week in each Primary School under his or her charge. Such instruction shall comprise in the Grammar School the theory of music, and the practice of exercises and songs, and in the lower schools, the practice of exercises and songs only. No exercises, or songs shall be practiced other than those approved by the Superintendent or the committees of the respective schools; and each school shall be at all times, as to discipline, under the charge of its Principal. At the semi-annual examinations for promotion, music shall be one of the subjects of examination in each school.

The Committee shall require from the Superintendent on the first of December, March, and June of each year, a report on the progress and condition of the study of music in the schools, which report shall be, at all times, open to the inspection of members of the Board.

tisement shall contain the following condition, which shall be inserted in every contract for the delivery of the coal, viz: "Each ton of said coal shall be weighed at the place of delivery, in the presence of a proper person to be appointed by the Committee on Supplies, who shall keep an accurate account of each load of coal delivered, and of its exact weight as ascertained by correct scales. And no bill shall be approved for such coal unless an affidavit of the weigher shall accompany such bill, setting forth by what contractor the coal was delivered, the date of delivery of each load, the number of tons and the quality of coal delivered, and whether weighed at place of delivery." Printed forms of said affidavit to be furnished by the Committee on Supplies.

V. They shall, annually, in the month of October, cause to be inserted, in five of the daily papers of this City, an advertisement asking proposals for printing all matter needed by the Board (accompanied with samples of paper and printing), for the ensuing year. Said proposals shall be directed to, and opened by, the Chairman of the Committee on Supplies, in the presence of the Board, at the Stated Meeting in December, and the contracts therefor shall be awarded to the lowest bidder.

VI. They shall hold monthly meetings, and preserve regular minutes of all their proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, and make a report, in writing, at the stated meetings of the Board, in April, June, October, and December, of the amount of supplies on hand, particularizing the supplies under the heads of books, charts, copy-books, blank-books, and stationery; the Committee shall also report the amount, at the date of said report, of the balance due the Board on the item of appropriation for "Books and Stationery."

VII. It shall be the duty of the Committee, at the commencement of each year, to apportion to each Section their proportion of the appropriation for books and stationery for the current year, the said apportionment to be based upon the number of pupils in the respective Sections. No Section shall be permitted to receive supplies beyond the amount so apportioned.

XI.

Duties of the Committee on Text-books.

I. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Text-books to consider applications referred to them by the Board, to introduce any new text-book or publication, or any revised or amended edition of one already in use. The said committee shall examine the same thoroughly, and shall make a written report to the Board, setting forth the reasons for or against the introduction of the same. Provided, In no case shall the Committee make a report upon any book or publication, unless each member of the Board shall have been furnished with a copy thereof (accompanied with a statement of the price at which the book will be supplied to the Board), for examination, at least two months previously to the time herein fixed for making said report.

II. The Board of Public Education shall in no case direct the introduction of any such book or publication until the next stated meeting after the presentation of the report thereon. No such book or publication shall be furnished for the use of the schools until at least one year after adoption.

III. The Committee shall not allow any book or other publication to be introduced into or used in any school of the district unless the same shall have been first approved by this Board; nor shall any new or revised edition of any book in use be introduced without the like approval.

IV. They shall, before recommending the introduction of any new book, or recommending a change in any book or series of books, determine whether such recommendation is in accordance with the Act of Assembly which forbids "any change to be made in the school books, or series of text-books, used in any school, more than once in every period of three years."

V. Not more than two text-books on one study will be allowed in the schools at the same time. In all cases where the full number of text-books is in use, one of such books shall be retired from the list before the introduction of another on the same subject.

VI. They shall also report to the Board books or other publications not proper to be retained.

XII.

Duties of the Committee on Property.

I. They shall have the supervision of the erection of all school-houses, and also of all repairs, improvements, and alterations exceeding the sum of $150.

II. They shall, before commencing operation upon any contract for the erection of a new school-house, or alterations or additions to those in the occupancy of the Board, require the contractor to give good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his contract, to be approved by them. The Committee may waive security in cases where the contract does not exceed five hundred dollars.

III. When a new school is to be opened or the location of a school changed, whereby an additional building is needed, the Committee on Property shall first approve of the rent required for the same.

IV. They shall, from time to time, inspect the real estate under the control of the Board, and report the condition of the same; they shall have all buildings and other property insured in such amounts as they may deem necessary.

V. The Committee shall make a report in writing to the Board at every stated meeting, of all its transactions, in which report it shall set forth, in detail, all the contracts which it has made during the current month for work and materials, the nature of the work to be done and where, the kind of material contracted for and where to be furnished, the contract price, the item or items of the appropriation from which the contractor or contractors are to be paid, and the name or names of the contractor or contractors.

The Committee shall keep in a substantial book, provided for the purpose, a full record of all its transactions, which record book shall be kept in the Office of the Board, and shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the members of the Board.

XIII.

Duties of the Committee on Central High School.

I. They shall visit the school semi-monthly, keep regular minutes of their proceedings, and report annually the state of the school. In case of any vacancy in the Faculty, they shall recommend to the Board a suitable person or persons to fill the same.

II. They shall recommend to the Board the conferring of the *degree of Bachelor of Arts upon all who shall meritoriously have completed the four years' course; and the degree of Master of Arts upon such graduates of not less than five years' standing as shall, by their general merit, be entitled to that distinction.

XIV.

Duties of the Committee on Girls' Normal School.

I. They shall visit the school semi-monthly, keep regular minutes of their proceedings, report annually the state of the school, and in case of any vacancy in the Faculty, shall recommend a suitable person or persons to the Board to fill the same.

II. They shall have prepared a diploma, to be given to such of the pupils as shall, upon examination, be deemed worthy of the same.

XV.

Duties of the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools.

I. All applications for the establishment of new schools, or the removal of those already established, or for the formation of a new vision, or for the change of grade of any school, shall be referred to this Committee, whose duty it shall be to report upon the same at the next Stated Meeting of the Board.

* Under Act of Assembly.

II. All applications for change in the salary of any teacher, or housekeeper shall be referred to this Committee, who shall report upon the same at the next Stated Meeting of the Board.

XVI.

Duties of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers.

I. They shall hold biennial examinations of such persons (excepting applicants for the position of music teachers) as may apply for certificates of Qualification to teach in the public schools of the First School District of Pennsylvania; and said examinations shall be held on the second Tuesday, and following Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of April. The first examination shall be held in the month of April, 1879.

II. The Committee may require the assistance of such members of the Faculties of the Boys' Central High School and the Girls' Normal School, and of such Principals of Grammar Schools for Boys, as they may deem necessary to conduct such examinations.

When the results of any examination, which shall have been held under the provisions of this By-Law, shall be ascertained, they shall be reported by the Committee at the next Stated Meeting of the Board. Said report shall give the names of the successful persons; the particular average obtained, by each, in each branch of study; and his or her general average and position on the list.

The Committee shall cause such rules to be made, as shall secure, at all times, the utmost fairness and impartiality in the examination.

III. The Committee shall award two grades of certificates denominated, respectively, Principal's Certificate and Assistant's Certificate, to such persons as may, upon examination, be found qualified to receive the same.

IV. All applicants shall be examined on one set of questions, which shall be such as may be answered from the text-books in use in the Girls' Normal School.

V. A Principal's Certificate shall be awarded to such persons, not less than 17 years of age, as shall, upon examination, obtain a general average scholarship of not less than 75 in the following subjects:

READING,
SPELLING,
DEFINITIONS AND ETYMOLOGY,

 LOGIC,
 THEORY OF MUSIC,
 LINEAR DRAWING.

VI. An Assistant's Certificate shall be awarded to such persons, not less than 17 years of age, as shall, upon examination, obtain a general average of not less than 60 in the subjects above named.

VII. In marking results, 100 shall be regarded as the maximum value of each subject; and no certificate shall issue unless the person examined shall have obtained an average scholarship of at least 60 in each of the following branches, namely: Spelling, Definitions and Arithmetic.

VIII. No applicant shall be examined who shall not have attained the age of 17 years.

No pupil of the public schools shall be examined who shall not have been a pupil of the Girls' Normal School or the Boys' Central High School for at least two years.

IX. No pupil of the Girls' Normal School, or the Boys' Central High School shall be examined, unless the name of said pupil appears upon a list of "applicants for examination," certified by the Principal of the school from which said pupil has been sent, and deposited with the Secretary of this Board, at least three days prior to the examination. Applicants who are not pupils of the public schools named shall also be required to register their names with the Secretary of this Board three days prior to the examination.

X. The holder of a Principal's Certificate shall be immediately eligible to any position in the public schools of this District, excepting that of Principal; and, after one year's experience in teaching in the public schools, shall be eligible to the Principalship of a Primary School; after two years' experience, to the principalship of a Secondary School; and after three year's experience, to the principalship of a Grammar School. Provided, however, That the holder of such certificate shall not be eligible to the principalship of any school, unless he or she shall be at least twenty years of age.

XI. The holder of an Assistant's Certificate shall be immediately eligible to an assistantship in any of the public schools; and, after three years' experience in teaching in the public schools, shall be eligible to the principalship of a Secondary or Primary School.

1. To render a person eligible to the position of Principal of a Consolidated School of four or more divisions, such person must be holder of a Principal's Certificate, and must have had three years' experience in teaching in the public schools of this district. The holder of an Assistant's Certificate shall be eligible to the position of Principal of a Consolidated School of less than four divisions.

These provisions, however, shall not disqualify any person who is the Principal of a Consolidated School from continuing to hold his position, or from being elected to the Principalship of any other Consolidated School.

I. The holder of a first grade certificate, issued, by authority of the Board, prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange such certificate for a Principal's Certificate, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby.

V. The holder of a second grade certificate, issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange such certificate for an Assistant's Certificate, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby.

The holders of second, third, and fourth class certificates, who attained averages of 75, and upwards, at examinations held prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange their certificates for Principal's Certificates, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby. Provided, Said applicants were examined in the branches of study upon which the applicants for first class certificates were examined.

7. The holder of a third or fourth grade certificate, issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be eligible to any position in a Primary or Secondary School, excepting that of Principal; after three years' experience in teaching in the public schools, shall be eligible to the principalship of a Primary or Secondary School, or to any assistantship in a Grammar School.

II. Principals of Grammar Schools who were regularly examined prior to 1865, and who are now teaching, shall be entitled to a Principal's Certificate.

III. No person shall be elected to the position of teacher in any of the public schools of this District, or be employed as a substitute teacher, unless he or she shall have received a Certificate of Qualification, duly issued, by the authority of this Board, after his or her examination. Provided, That this rule shall not apply to teachers who were duly elected prior to the passage of the Act of Assembly, passed February 17, 1865, relative to the examination of teachers in the First School District, and who were at that time teachers in the public schools; but such teachers may be promoted, from time to time, without being required to pass an examination. And provided further, That this rule shall not apply to such Sections specially excluded by Acts of Assembly.

XVIII. No person elected by a Sectional Board to a position teacher in any of the public schools of the District shall be entitled to any of the rights, privileges, or emoluments of such position, until said election be reported to and approved by this Board.

XIX. No person of bad character, or of intemperate or other immoral habits, shall be elected a teacher in any of the public schools.

XX. No person who, by reason of ill health, extreme age, or other sufficient cause, is incompetent to discharge the duties of a teacher, shall be eligible to a position as such.

XXI. When any election, transfer, or promotion of a teacher is reported to this Board, the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools shall ascertain whether the same is in accordance with the provisions of Sections X., XI., XII., XV., XVII., XVIII., XIX., and XX., of this By-Law, before reporting the same for confirmation by this Board; and all charges of violation of the provisions of said Sections shall be made in writing, and shall be referred to said Committee, who shall investigate, and report the facts at the next meeting of the Board.

The examination held at the Girls' Normal School, at the close of the third year's course of study therein, shall also be an examination of the qualifications of the members of the graduating class of said school to become teachers in the public schools of this District.

Said examination shall be upon the studies taught during the third year of the course; and shall be conducted by the faculty of said school, under the supervision of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers, in such manner as may be prescribed by said Committee and the Committee on Girls' Normal School.

A Principal's certificate shall be awarded by the Committee on Qualification of Teachers to each pupil of said school, who, having obtained a general average scholarship of 85, or upwards, at the examination aforesaid, shall also obtain a general average of 85, or upwards, for her work as a teacher in the School of Practice, and for her scholarship, during the fourth year of the Normal School course.

In like manner, an Assistant's Certificate shall be awarded to each pupil who shall have obtained averages of 70 or upwards, [and less than 85,] at the said examination and during the fourth year of the Normal School course.

A pupil who, having obtained an average of 85, or upwards, at the examination aforesaid, shall receive an average of 70 or upwards [and less than 85,] during the fourth year of the course, shall be entitled to an Assistant's Certificate.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on Girls' Normal School to certify to the Committee on Qualification of Teachers the average which shall be earned by the pupils of said school during the fourth year of the course; and said averages shall be attested by the Principals of the Girls' Normal School and of the Department of Practice therein. Thereupon the Committee on Qualification of Teachers shall issue Certificates to *the pupils who shall be entitled thereto.

The examination held at the Boys' Central High School, at the close of the term which completes the full course of study in said school, shall also be an examination of the qualifications of the members of the graduating class of said school to become teachers in the public schools of this District.

Said examination shall be upon the studies taught during the term which completes the full course of instruction in said school; and shall be conducted by the faculty of said school, under the supervision of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers, in such manner as may be prescribed by said Committee and the Committee on Boys' Central High School.

A Principal's Certificate shall be awarded by the Committee on Qualification of Teachers to each pupil of said school who shall obtain a general average scholarship of 85, or upwards, at said examination.

XXIV. No change shall be made in this By-Law, unless such change shall have been proposed at a stated meeting of the Board, laid over for one month before being considered, and shall have received the vote of two-thirds of the entire Board.

XVII.

Duties of the Committee on Reports of Schools.

They shall carefully examine all reports of Schools, and present an abstract therefrom to the Board; they shall report all schools in which there are more teachers than the quarterly average attendance of the pupils will warrant (as required by Rule XXIV. of the Board), and shall visit the schools as they may deem expedient for required information. In computing such average attendance, the month of June shall be excluded.

XVIII.

Duties of the Committee on Office and Expenses.

This Committee shall have the general supervision of the office and rooms of the Board, and of the office employes; determine what books shall be opened; prescribe the manner in which the records of the office shall be kept; report the amount and kind of clerical and other working force that may be required from time to time, and regulate and assign the clerical duties of the office. They shall have control of the general items for carriage hire, advertising, and printing, and shall indicate the proportion of said items which may be expended by the different Committees of the Board. They shall purchase all articles necessary for the use of the Board (not otherwise provided for). All bills for such expenses shall be approved by them before they shall be allowed by the Committee on Accounts.

XIX.

Duties of the Committee on Revision of Studies.

They shall observe the operation of the "Course of Instruction," as fixed by the Board, and shall report, from time to time, what change, if any, the same may require.

XX.

Duties of the Committee on Estimates.

They shall visit, as far as practicable, annually, each of the school-buildings occupied by authority of this Board, and ascertain if any repairs, additions, or improvements are necessary for the well-being of the schools.

They shall also examine the outside surroundings of all the school-rooms occupied as above, and determine what is required relative thereto, for the convenience, health, and comfort of the pupils, and for the preservation of the property of the city.

They shall prepare and report to this Board, at the Stated Meeting in October, a detailed statement, classified in "School Sections," showing the requirements of the Sectional Boards, with the estimate of cost thereof.

They shall also report the amount required by the "Committee on Supplies" (as reported by them), and estimate the sum needed for the expenses of the several Committees (as reported by them), showing the entire requirements of the "First School District," prepared in form to be submitted to the City Councils (in accordance with the "Act of Assembly") as the estimated expense for school purposes for the coming year.

They shall cause a "Record" to be kept in a book prepared for the purpose, and called "Record of Committee on Estimates, stating the precise wants of the respective sections for all purposes, and when increased above the estimate of the previous year, the increase of each item shall be plainly stated, so that the full particulars can be submitted to this Board and to the Councils of the City, when desired. They shall meet at least monthly, and report their proceedings at each Stated Meeting of the Board.

For properly securing the object desired in the appointment of this Committee, the Secretary of this Board shall notify each Sectional Board, at least thirty days prior to the Stated Meeting of this Board in September, to report to the Board at said meeting.

They shall have power to require the attendance and services of any of the employes of this Board, so far as may seem to them proper, in performance of the duties to which they have been appointed.

XXI.

Duties of the Committee on Music.

The Committee on Music shall have charge of all matter pertaining to that study in the Public Schools. Instruction in music, in addition to that given by the regular teachers, as provided in the "Graded Course," shall be given by a superintendent, who shall be the principal Music Teacher of the District, and by a many special music teachers as the Committee may deem necessary, but not more than one for each section. The salary of the Superintendent shall be the same as that of a Principal of a Boys' Grammar School, and those of the special music teachers shall be fixed by the Committee, subject to the approval of the Board.

The Committee shall nominate to the Board the person to fill the office of Superintendent (when a vacancy occurs), who, after confirmation by the Board, shall hold said office until removed by the same. The Committee, whenever they may deem necessary, shall hold examinations of applicants for positions as music teachers; such examinations to be conducted in such manner as the Committee may prescribe; and no person elected by a Sectional Board as music teacher shall be confirmed as such by this Board, unless he or she shall have received a certificate of qualification at such examination, or shall hold a certificate of qualification issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law.

The Committee shall require the Superintendent to visit and examine orally (not for promotion), each Grammar School, at least once in six months, and the lower schools as often as possible. They shall, also, require each music teacher to give instruction for at least one hour per week in each Grammar and Secondary School, and for at least one-half hour every other week in each Primary School under his or her charge. Such instruction shall comprise in the Grammar School the theory of music, and the practice of exercises and songs, and in the lower schools, the practice of exercises and songs only. No exercises, or songs shall be practiced other than those approved by the Superintendent or the committees of the respective schools; and each school shall be at all times, as to discipline, under the charge of its Principal. At the semi-annual examinations for promotion, music shall be one of the subjects of examination in each school.

The Committee shall require from the Superintendent on the first of December, March, and June of each year, a report on the progress and condition of the study of music in the schools, which report shall be, at all times, open to the inspection of members of the Board.

and other working force that may be required from time to time, and regulate and assign the clerical duties of the office. They shall have control of the general items for carriage hire, advertising, and printing, and shall indicate the proportion of said items which may be expended by the different Committees of the Board. They shall purchase all articles necessary for the use of the Board (not otherwise provided for). All bills for such expenses shall be approved by them before they shall be allowed by the Committee on Accounts.

XIX.

Duties of the Committee on Revision of Studies.

They shall observe the operation of the "Course of Instruction," as fixed by the Board, and shall report, from time to time, what change, if any, the same may require.

XX.

Duties of the Committee on Estimates.

They shall visit, as far as practicable, annually, each of the school-buildings occupied by authority of this Board, and ascertain if any repairs, additions, or improvements are necessary for the well-being of the schools.

They shall also examine the outside surroundings of all the school-rooms occupied as above, and determine what is required relative thereto, for the convenience, health, and comfort of the pupils, and for the preservation of the property of the city.

They shall prepare and report to this Board, at the Stated Meeting in October, a detailed statement, classified in "School Sections," showing the requirements of the Sectional Boards, with the estimated cost thereof.

They shall also report the amount required by the "Committee on Supplies" (as reported by them), and estimate the sum needed for the expenses of the several Committees (as reported by them), showing the entire requirements of the "First School District," prepared in form to be submitted to the City Councils (in accordance with the "Act of Assembly") as the estimated expense for school purpose for the coming year.

They shall cause a "Record" to be kept in a book prepared for the purpose, and called "Record of Committee on Estimates, stating the precise wants of the respective sections for all purposes, and when increased above the estimate of the previous year, the increase of each item shall be plainly stated, so that the full particulars can be submitted to this Board and to the Councils of the City, when desired. They shall meet at least monthly, and report their proceedings at each Stated Meeting of the Board.

For properly securing the object desired in the appointment of this Committee, the Secretary of this Board shall notify each Sectional Board, at least thirty days prior to the Stated Meeting of this Board in September, to report to the Board at said meeting, a detailed statement of all special items of repair needed in the respective sections for the coming year, with the probable amount needed therefor attached to each item.

They shall have power to require the attendance and services of any of the employes of this Board, so far as may seem to them proper, in performance of the duties to which they have been appointed.

XXI.

Duties of the Committee on Music.

The Committee on Music shall have charge of all matter pertaining to that study in the Public Schools. Instruction in music, in addition to that given by the regular teachers, as provided in the "Graded Course," shall be given by a superintendent, who shall be the principal Music Teacher of the District, and by a many special music teachers as the Committee may deem necessary, but not more than one for each section. The salary of the Superintendent shall be the same as that of a Principal of a Boys' Grammar School, and those of the special music teachers shall be fixed by the Committee, subject to the approval of the Board.

The Committee shall nominate to the Board the person to fill the office of Superintendent (when a vacancy occurs), who, after confirmation by the Board, shall hold said office until removed by the same. The Committee, whenever they may deem necessary, shall hold examinations of applicants for positions as music teachers; such examinations to be conducted in such manner as the Committee may prescribe; and no person elected by a Sectional Board as music teacher shall be confirmed as such by this Board, unless he or she shall have received a certificate of qualification at such examination, or shall hold a certificate of qualification issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law.

The Committee shall require the Superintendent to visit and examine orally (not for promotion), each Grammar School, at least once in six months, and the lower schools as often as possible. They shall, also, require each music teacher to give instruction for at least one hour per week in each Grammar and Secondary School, and for at least one-half hour every other week in each Primary School under his or her charge. Such instruction shall comprise in the Grammar School the theory of music, and the practice of exercises and songs, and in the lower schools, the practice of exercises and songs only. No exercises, or songs shall be practiced other than those approved by the Superintendent or the committees of the respective schools; and each school shall be at all times, as to discipline, under the charge of its Principal. At the semi-annual examinations for promotion, music shall be one of the subjects of examination in each school.

The Committee shall require from the Superintendent on the first of December, March, and June of each year, a report on the progress and condition of the study of music in the schools, which report shall be, at all times, open to the inspection of members of the Board.

The Committee shall prepare and present, at the stated meeting in December, an annual report, also, for publication.

The Committee shall require the Music Teachers, and invite the regular teachers to meet the Superintendent, at least once a month, at such times and places as the Committee may prescribe, for instruction in music and in teaching the same.

XXII.

Duties of the Committee on By-Laws and Rules.

All proposed changes in the By-Laws and Rules of this Board shall be referred to the Committee on By-Laws and Rules. But no amendments to said By-Laws or Rules, or alterations of them, shall originate with the Committee.

Unless otherwise instructed, said Committee shall report to the Board, at the regular Stated Meeting immediately succeeding the one at which the proposed changes or amendments shall have been referred to them.

XXIII.

Duties of the Committee on Audits.

They shall examine the date upon which warrants are drawn, and shall certify, by initials of Chairman, or in some other satisfactory manner, on each warrant, that such warrant is properly vouched for.

They shall audit the cash account and expenditures of the office of the Board, as kept by the Secretary, and shall certify the same on the cash book, at least quarterly in every year.

They shall have the supervision of all warrants, the payment of which is suspended or delayed; and shall make a report to the Board at least semi-annually, of all such suspended or delayed warrants, stating the cause for such suspension or delay.

XXIV.

Committees shall report at the next Stated Meeting, upon all matters referred to them by the Board, except wherein otherwise ordered. And, hereafter, in all reference of matter to the respective Standing Committees, it shall be with power to act, unless otherwise provided.

XXV.

The Minute Books of the several Committees of the Board shall be deposited at the office of the Board, subject to the inspection of the members of the Board.

XXVI.

Approval of Bills by Committee.

Every Committee which may have the approval of any bill or account, shall have a separate stamp, whereon shall be cut the style of the Committee. No bill shall be considered as approved by any Committee, unless the same shall be stamped by the Chairman, or, in his absence, by the Chairman pro tem., at a meeting of the Committee, and the name of such Chairman then and there written over the same. The Chairman of the Committee on Accounts may stamp his name on bills approved by said Committee.

XXVII.

Hereafter none of the Public School-buildings of this District shall be named after living persons.

XXVIII.

Amendments.

No amendment shall be made to these By-Laws unless proposed at a Stated Meeting and laid over for one month before being considered. Provided, nevertheless, That any By-Law may be suspended by the concurring vote of two-thirds of the entire Board at any Stated Meeting.

XXIX.

Mathias' Manual is adopted for the government of the Board.

RULES.

I.

The office of the Board shall be kept open from the hours o'clock, A. M., to three o'clock, P. M.

II.

All communications to this Board for alterations, addit repairs to school-houses, or for changing the grade of a school, permission to increase the number of teachers in any school an increase in the salaries of teachers or housekeepers, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee by the Chair, unless otherwise ordered.

III.

All contracts for building school-houses, for repairs, alterations or improvements of the same, and for the purchase of any lot shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Board.

IV.

Sectional Boards shall not make any contract beyond the one hundred and fifty dollars, without first obtaining permission from this Board.

V.

All bills from the several sections must be presented at the meetings of the Board at least one week prior to the Stated Meetings of the Board, otherwise they shall lie over for one month.

VI.

No Sectional Board shall have power to purchase any book or stationery now furnished by this Board.

VII.

No bills shall be paid by this Board for the services of a substitute employed in case of sickness or absence of any teacher.

VIII.

All bills for the salaries of teachers and janitors, shall be paid by the Sectional Boards at their meetings in February, May, and November.

Janitors receiving a salary of $400, or upwards, shall be required to be in attendance during the school sessions, and no janitor shall receive compensation for more than one building. They shall be required to have the school-house opened at least fifteen minutes before the time fixed for opening the schools, and pupils shall be allowed to enter the school on their arrival at the building.

IX.

The Directors of the Sectional Board shall require the principal teachers in their respective Sections to keep registers of the age, name, and date of admission, and place of birth of each pupil, and the name, residence, and occupation of his or her parent or guardian, as well as a record, in which they shall accurately note the exact time when the several teachers shall arrive at the schools in the morning and the afternoon.

X.

The Sectional Boards shall require from the principal teachers, in accordance with the prescribed form, monthly reports, which shall be approved by a Visiting Director. They shall, also, require from said principal teachers, to be approved by a Visiting Director, quarterly reports, stating to what extent the Course of Studies, as prescribed in the printed "Course of Instruction," adopted by this Board, together with the rules connected therewith, are adhered to.

XI.

The principals of the schools of this district shall keep a daily record of the number of pupils actually present, and the number absent on account of sickness, and in computing the average attendance for the day, the sick shall be computed as in attendance.

The principal teacher in each school shall send to the Secretary of the Sectional Board, to be forwarded by him to the Secretary of this Board at least one week previous to the first day of January, April, July, and October, a quarterly report, approved by one of the Visiting Directors; and an annual report at least one week previous to the first of January, also approved by a Visiting Director. The Secretary shall not deliver the warrants for the said principal teachers' salaries until the quarterly and annual reports are deposited with him.

XII.

All supplies of books and stationery shall be obtained by a requisition upon the Secretary of this Board, signed by the Principal of the school and attested by one of the Visiting Committee.

No book shall be used in the Public Schools as a text-book, unless duly authorized by this Board.

Any teacher who shall permit any book not on the list of supplies, to be used as a text-book in his or her school, shall, upon proof of the offence being made, be stricken from the pay list of the Board.

No pupil shall be requested or required to purchase any book, except to replace a lost or damaged book.

No teacher shall be permitted to sell to the pupils any supplies received from this Board.

Any teacher who shall traffic in, exchange, or sell any of the supplies furnished to the schools, or shall in any other way violate the rules of this Board, shall, upon the proof of such charge, be stricken from the pay list of the Board.

All books shall be stamped or stenciled, in several places, as follows (before supplying them to the schools): "The property of the Board of Public Education of the First School District of Pennsylvania."

XIII.

When the average required for the appointment of an additional teacher has been attained in any school, the Sectional Board having charge of such school may appoint such additional teacher, subject to confirmation or rejection by this Board at its next Stated Meeting, Provided, That no division shall be formed or teacher confirmed without the approval of the Committee on Grammar, Secondary and Primary Schools, who shall visit the schools and ascertain the average attendance and number in waiting justify the same.

XIV.

All bills for the salaries of teachers must be presented in the names of such teachers.

XV.

In all cases where the salary of the teacher does not exceed four hundred dollars, females shall be employed.

XVI.

Sectional Boards shall be required to forward all bills passed by them, and a schedule thereof; said bills to be properly endorsed specifying the number of the Section, the name of the individual whose favor drawn, and for what account and the amount. All bills must be approved by at least two members of the Committee on Accounts of the Sectional Boards.

XVII.

No pupil of one school shall be admitted into another without transfer or written permission, signed by the Visiting Committee of the school from which said transfer is made, and approved by a Committee of the school to which the same is presented. Nevertheless, a pupil in good standing in any of the schools of this District shall in no case be refused a transfer to a school of the same grade nearer his or her residence; and it shall be the duty of the Comm tee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools, to stop the supply of any school whose Committee shall violate the above rule.

XVIII.

No pupil shall be received into any of the schools of this District who is not bona fide domiciled therein. In case of the removal of a pupil from the District, he or she shall no longer be received into any of said schools. Provided, This rule shall not apply to schools expressly excepted by the Act of Assembly.

XIX.

Morning and afternoon sessions shall be held in all the schools of the First District; the morning sessions to commence at 9 A. M., and close at 12 M., and the afternoon session to commence at 2 P. M. and close at 4 P. M., except from the first of June to the commencement of the summer vacation, and from the first to the fifteenth of September, there shall be one session only from 9 A. M. to 12 M., with thirty minutes intermission. One hour and a-half of said session shall be devoted to recitations, and one hour and a-half to the preparation of the lessons for the succeeding day. When it shall be found necessary by the Visiting Directors, by reason of bad weather, to hold one session, the same shall be of five hours' duration, including a recess of twenty minutes. In every case of violation of this rule, the further supplies of the school violating the same shall be stopped by the Committee on Grammar, Secondary and Primary Schools; and report shall be made thereof to this board, at its next Stated Meeting, by said Committee.

SEC. 2. At the opening of each session of the schools, at least ten verses of the Bible shall be read, without note or comment, to the pupils by the principals, or, in his or her absence, by one of the assistants. A suitable hymn may also be sung.

XX.

In making the average attendance for the monthly and quarterly reports, the number absent from sickness shall be computed with the number actually present.

XXI.

Pupils who shall have honorably completed the course of studies prescribed for the "Senior Class," to the satisfaction of the Principal and Visiting Committee, shall receive a suitable diploma at graduation.

XXII.

The morning session of the Primary, Secondary, and Grammar schools shall be devoted to recitations by the pupils, and explanations and instructions by the teachers. The afternoon sessions shall be given entirely to the preparation of lessons by the pupils, under the care and supervision of the principal and assistant teachers.

Home study may be optional with pupils, but shall not, in any case, be required by the teachers. When text-books are taken home by pupils, it shall be those only each day in which recitations have been prepared in the afternoon for the ensuing day; and no addition shall be made to the lesson assigned on account of the books being taken home. The true principle in education is, "Not how much, but how well." Short lessons are, therefore, enjoined in all cases, and teachers prohibited from using the text-books in recitations, except in Orthography, Etymology, and Reading.

XXIII.

Promotions from the Primary to the Secondary, and from the Secondary into the Grammar Schools, shall be made semi-annually. The principals of the Grammar Schools shall prescribe and regulate the manner of all such promotions, but all promotions must be restricted to those pupils who attain the highest average scholarship, as shown by the average of the daily marking during the previous term, combined with the average marks that may be obtained at such semi-annual examinations; the pupils of the Primary Schools, as regards their promotion to Secondary Schools, to be exempt from the application of so much of the provision of this Rule as refers to the term average, promotions from the Primary Schools to the Secondary Schools being made on the averages obtained on the written examinations only. Promotions, however, from one division of any school to a higher division of the same school may be made whenever, in the judgment of the Principal, the progress of the pupil may require; but all promotions from one grade of schools to another must be made conformably to the above.

All examinations, so far as practicable, shall be in writing, and shall occur semi-annually, during the last two weeks of the months of June and January, respectively; Provided however, that candidates for admission into the Central High School may be examined during the first two weeks of January and June, and candidates for admission into the Girls' Normal School may be examined during the first two weeks of June.

XXIV.

The "Graded Course of Instruction," and the rules accompanying the same, shall form a part of the rules of the Board, and shall not in any respect be changed, unless such change shall be proposed at one Stated Meeting of the Board, to be acted upon at the next, and shall receive the approval of two-thirds of the whole Board.

The studies of the Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools shall be pursued in the order laid down in the "Graded Course of Instruction," and no omission therein or addition thereto shall be permitted.

The period of six months shall be devoted to the instruction of each division in the studies allotted to it. Any Grammar School, in which shall be introduced studies not sanctioned by this Board, shall be reduced to the grade of a Consolidated School.

XXV.

In all Grammar Schools requiring the services of three or more assistant teachers, the class taught by the Principal shall be designated and known as the "Senior Class," and shall pursue, under the special instruction of the Principal, the Supplemental Course of Studies prescribed in the "Graded Course of Instruction," approved by this Board. The remaining classes shall be designated and known as the First, Second, Third, Fourth, etc., divisions, respectively, and shall be in charge of the respective Assistant Teachers, under the supervision and direction of the Principal.

Pupils who shall have completed the course of studies of the first division of a Grammar School, shall be promoted into the Senior Class of the Grammar School.

The lower two divisions of such of the Grammar Schools as may contain five or more divisions, exclusive of the Senior Class, shall receive, in equal numbers, the most proficient pupils of the secondary department, and the course of study in said lower two divisions shall be identical, and promotion shall be made from both into the next higher division of the school.

XXVI.

The average attendance of pupils of the Senior Class, of a Grammar School of four or more divisions, shall not be less than thirty (30); and each division of the Grammar and Secondary Schools shall contain at least an average attendance of forty pupils to each teacher.

The average attendance in the Primary Schools shall not be less than forty to each teacher, except in the lowest division, which shall not exceed fifty.

XXVII.

Primary and Secondary Schools may be conducted under one Principal, when both are located in the same building, and there are not less than eight divisions in the two schools combined, with an average attendance of forty pupils to each teacher, including the Principal. In such case, the Principal shall not be required to teach a division, but shall give her entire time to superintendence of the school, and shall be responsible for the work of every department. Such organization shall be first asked for by the Sectional Board and approved by the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools.

The salaries of the Principal and Assistants in the Secondary and Primary Departments shall be the same as those paid to Principals and Assistants in Secondary and Primary Schools.

The President of the Central High School shall make semi-annual requisitions upon all schools authorized to send pupils to said institution. The quota for each grammar school shall be one pupil for each division, including the senior class. Provided, any grammar school having an average attendance of thirty pupils over the number required, shall be entitled to send an additional pupil. The quota for any other school shall be one pupil for each grammar division. If the number of pupils required for the Central High School shall not be supplied, the president shall be authorized to make additional requisitions. A certificate must be sent from each school, stating the name of each pupil sent, that he is not under thirteen years of age, and that he has been, for the six months next preceding, a student in the school from which he is sent. This certificate must be signed by the principal and visiting directors of the school and countersigned by the member of this Board in which the school is situated.

The Faculty of the Central High School shall examine the pupils so sent, in orthography, etymology, and defining, principles of grammar, and analysis of sentences, parsing, composition, reading, penmanship, history of the United States, geography, drawing, and arithmetic; and upon the last named subject, two sets of questions shall be given, to be marked as two studies.

The questions in this examination shall be such as can be answered from the text-books authorized to be used in the grammar schools. No pupil shall be admitted into the Central High School who shall not have attained a general average of 60 or upwards, in such examination.

The pupils attaining a general average of 60, or over, shall be admitted into the Central High School in the order of the averages.

The Hebrew Educational Society and the Beck School shall each be entitled to send two pupils, who are of the required age, to such examination, upon a certificate signed by the Principal and Visiting Directors of said schools, and said pupils shall, if properly qualified, be admitted from said schools.

XXVIII.

At the stated meeting of the Board which immediately precedes the admission of a new class to the Girls' Normal School (or soon after, if necessary) the Committee on that School shall present a report stating the quota of pupils which the respective School Sections shall be entitled to promote to the Normal School in the manner hereinafter specified.

When the Board shall have taken action on said report, the Principals of the Grammar and Consolidated Schools in said sections shall be notified, by the Committee on Girls' Normal School, of the number of pupils who, if properly qualified, will be admitted from said schools respectively.

Prior to their admission to the Girls' Normal School, said pupils shall be examined in Arithmetic, Definitions, Spelling, Reading, Penmanship, Principles of Grammar, Parsing, Composition, Geography (excepting Physical Geography), and History of the United States; and no pupil who shall fail to obtain a general average of 60, or upwards, at said examination, shall be admitted to the School.

Said examination shall be conducted by a Committee of Principals of the Girls' Grammar Schools; who shall be selected, by lot, by the Normal School Committee.

The questions at said examination shall be such as can be answered from the text-books authorized to be used in the Senior Classes of the Girl's Grammar Schools; except that, in the examination on Geography and History of the United States, the questions shall be such as can be answered from the text-books used in the first division of the Grammar Schools.

Each Grammar or Consolidated School may send to the said examination double the number of pupils who, if properly qualified, would form the quota which the school may be entitled to promote to the Girls' Normal School; and such of said pupils as shall make the highest general averages (not less than 60), shall be selected to form the quota of the school.

Such of the remaining applicants for admission to the Girls' Normal School, as shall have made the highest general averages (not less than 60), shall be selected to fill any deficiency in the supply of the pupils required for the Normal School, which may be caused by the failure of any Grammar or Consolidated School to secure its quota of pupils at said examination.

No pupil of any Grammar or Consolidated School shall be allowed to attend said examination, unless her name appears upon a certificate, signed by the Principal of the school from which she is sent, and countersigned by the Member of the Board of Public Education who represents the Section in which said school is located, stating that said pupil has, for not less than six months immediately preceding the date of said certificate, been a member of the Senior Class of the school, and that she will be at least fourteen years of age on the first Monday of September following the date of the certificate.

The Hebrew Educational Society, the Beck School, and the University School shall, each, be entitled to send four pupils, who are of the required age, to said examination, upon a certificate signed by the Principal and Visiting Directors of the school; and two of said pupils shall, if properly qualified, be admitted from each of said schools.

XXIX.

The commencements of the Central High School shall be held on the Thursday after the second Tuesday in February, and on the last Wednesday in June.

The Commencement Exercises of the Girls' Normal School shall be held annually, during the month of June.

XXX.

The studies pursued in the Consolidated Schools may embrace all grades taught in the Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools, inclusive, and such supplies shall be furnished as the attainments of the pupils may require.

XXXI.

The summer vacation of the schools shall consist of the months of July and August. The schools shall be closed from the 1st of December till the 2d of January; on Washington's Birthday Friday and Easter Monday; on the 4th of July, and on State Thanksgiving and Fast Days.

The Committee on Accounts shall deduct from the salaries of teachers of such schools as close before the time of vacation specified, a proportionate amount of their respective salaries. The Committee on Office and Expenses is vested with authority to order the Public Schools of this District to be closed on occasions in the opinion of the Committee, shall render such orders as may be visable.

XXXII.

Hereafter all schools in this District shall be recognized by books of the Board by numerals only, and Sectional Boards required, in all reports relating to said schools, to adopt such numbers by which their schools shall be registered in files.

XXXIII.

No child shall be admitted or continued as a pupil in the First School District who has not been vaccinated. It shall be the duty of the Principals to report, quarterly to the Sectional Boards the number of non-vaccinated children admitted as pupils to their schools, and the names of any, who have not been vaccinated; and these reports, when received, shall be transmitted to the Board of Public Instruction. If the Sectional Boards, and in any instance where a Principal fails to comply with this rule, the salary of said Principal shall be withheld until the rule shall be complied with. When a child is afflicted with varioloid, scarlet fever, diphtheria or measles shall exist in the family of any pupil of the Public Schools is a member of the same, he shall not be permitted to attend school until he or she has received the certificate of a physician stating that all liability to contract with the members of the family of such child has passed away.

XXXIV.

It shall be the duty of every teacher hereafter elected or promoted, by any Sectional Board, before entering upon the duties of the position to which he or she may have been elected, or promoted, to register his or her name in the book of the Board, with the date of certificate of qualification, position and also that to which elected, promoted, or transferred.

XXXV.

No agent or other person interested in the sale of books or supplies shall be permitted to visit teachers at the school for the purpose of interesting them in the sale of these articles. Teachers are requested to report to this Board the names of the persons who after violate this rule.

XXXVI.

None of the Public School-buildings of this District shall be used for any other than Public School purposes.

XXXVII.

The Rules and regulations of this Board shall be kept prominently posted in each school of this District.

XXXVIII.

These rules shall not be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the whole Board, nor shall they be changed, unless said change be proposed at one Stated Meeting of the Board, to be acted upon at the next, and shall receive the approval of two-thirds of the whole Board.

XXXIX.

Plan for grading the salaries of the teachers of the public schools on the basis of experience and efficiency.

SCHEDULE A.

GRADATION UPON A RELATIVE BASIS.

I.

The standing of teachers in scholarship shall rest upon their Certificates, as already provided in Section XVI. of the By-Laws of this Board.

II.

The salaries paid to teachers of the public schools of this City shall be apportioned upon the basis of their teaching experience and efficiency. For the purpose of this apportionment, such teachers shall be suitably classified according to the number of years they have been actually employed in teaching.

To the class of teachers having the least experience, the lowest salary shall be affixed. To this salary shall be added a suitable sum to constitute the salary of the next class. And so on, adding continually the same increment to each class of salaries in order to fix the salary of the class next higher.

III.

To pass from any one of the above classes to the next higher one, the candidate shall present proof of the length of his or her service in the public schools of this District. The records of this Board shall be taken as evidence of such service.

IV.

Additional compensation shall be given to principals of the public schools, for the performance of the administrative duties required of them; and to all assistants in grammar schools, and certain assistants in consolidated schools, in consideration of the fact that their duties demand a larger amount of time than is needed to be given by assistants in other grades of schools.

Plan for grading the salaries of the teachers of the public schools on the basis of experience and efficiency.

To take effect on January 1st, 1880.

SCHEDULE B.

GRADATION UPON AN ABSOLUTE BASIS.

I.

The standing of teachers in scholarship shall rest upon their Certificates, as already provided in Section XVI. of the By-Laws of this Board.

II.

The salaries paid to teachers of the public schools of this City shall be apportioned upon the basis of their teaching experience and efficiency. For the purpose of this apportionment, all teachers shall be classified as follows:

Teachers who have actually taught five years, and over.

Teachers who have actually taught four years, and less than five.

Teachers who have actually taught three years, and less than four.

Teachers who have actually taught two years, and less than three.

Teachers who have actually taught over one year, and less than two years.

Teachers who have actually taught less than one year.

To the class of teachers last above-named, there shall be paid a salary of three hundred and twenty dollars. To this salary shall be added the sum of thirty dollars, to constitute the salary of the next class; and so on, adding continually thirty dollars to the salary of each class, in order to fix the salary of the next higher class.

For the year 1880 all persons who have been confirmed as teachers in the schools of this city during the year 1879, shall be classified as teachers who have taught over one year and less than two years.

Service in the public schools of other school districts shall be computed in the case of any person who may be elected principal of a boys' grammar school or a consolidated school in this district.

No advance in the salary of a teacher shall be made for any fraction of a year.

III.

To pass from any one of the above classes to the next higher class the candidate shall present proof of the length of his or her service in the public schools of this district. The records of this Board shall be taken as evidence of such service.

IV.

Additional compensation shall be given to principals of the public schools, for the performance of the administrative duties required of them; and to all assistants in grammar schools, and certified assistants in consolidated schools, in consideration of the fact that their duties demand a larger amount of time than is needed to be given by assistants in other grades of schools.

This compensation shall be graded in accordance with the following classification: and the principals and assistants therein named shall receive, as additional compensation, the following sums, respectively, viz.:

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Gentlemen of the Board of Public Education.

In presenting my report for the year, I take pleasure in calling your attention to facts and statistics which indicate successful results from your arduous labors, and to improvements which have been introduced after patient and careful consideration. It is a far less agreeable, though a more important duty, to speak of defects which need to be remedied in order that the labor and expenditures of the department may be productive of the greatest possible good.

At no recent period have the methods, character, and results of popular education been so generally and earnestly discussed as during the year. This is in a measure attributable to two very different causes; on the one hand, to the partial introduction of scientific methods of instruction, with greatly improved results; and on the other, to a failure of schools to confer the benefits expected, in a well grounded knowledge of the elementary branches with a reasonable moral training. With some persons, dissatisfaction in this respect has become so intense, as to lead them to question the advantages of education, holding it responsible for the very sins of ignorance. To send children to school is the natural duty of parents, but it does not follow as a necessary consequence that they will be educated there. To see that this is accomplished is the real duty, and one that will require more time and effort than simply to enter the child's name on the school roll. No time can be more profitably spent. Parents who do superintend and direct the education of their children should see that the school management is in the charge of persons whom they would choose as guardians for their children. This is an obligation they owe to their children, the neglect of which may influence their whole future. Differing from all other young life to be trained, the child is affected not only by the instruction it receives, but equally by the character of the instructor. Whatever may be unavoidable in other departments, nothing should be tolerated in this which is not worthy the direction and imitation of youth.

NEW COURSE OF STUDY.

During the year, the new course of study has been the rule for instruction in the schools, and it is gratifying to state that it has proved worthy of the expectations entertained of it. Many errors have occurred in its application, from misunderstanding its requirements, and from inadequate knowledge of the principles upon which it is based. This must be expected under our system of schools divided into sections largely independent of each other, and in the absence of any competent superintendency, clothed with power to correct errors, instruct teachers, and report changes and regulations necessary to accuracy and success. Where it has been correctly taught, marked improvement in the progress of pupils has resulted. The class room under its method has ceased to be distasteful to the scholar, and has become an entertaining place.

BOARD OF PUBLIC EDUCATION.

LIMIT OF STUDIES TAUGHT IN THE SCHOOLS.

In this connection, reference may be made to the much discussed question of what should be the limit of studies taught in the schools. It is a subject upon which there are different opinions, sustained by equally substantial reasons. Those who would limit the number to a few of the most rudimentary branches, believe it necessary to thoroughness in them, by reason of the comparatively brief period which the average pupil has to devote to instruction in school. They maintain that materially to extend the course, is to give a superficial knowledge of the subjects taught. The opposite view is, that a more extended curriculum does not necessarily interfere with a well grounded knowledge of these elementary branches, which they regard as the instruments of knowledge, rather than as knowledge itself. The advocates of this view contend that it is the very office of the school to give the child some knowledge, however slight, of himself, the planet on which he lives, the laws and sciences which relate to it. They believe that a love of knowledge, with its influence upon life and character, can not be implanted by a drill in the elementary branches, and that such an interest is the best work of school instruction. Diversity of thought is refreshment, and gives vigor and strength to the mental powers. Subjects of a comprehensive character give interest to the pupil, and make him capable of application. Education is a life pleasure, for which the schools should lay the foundations.

Whatever difference of judgment there may be on this question, all will agree that the greatest possible economy of time should be attained, and only practical and lasting results considered. By the combination of studies in the advanced classes, time could be saved, and the instruction better impressed than through the system of a text book for each subject. Mr. Charles Adams, Jr., refers to the experience of the schools of Quincy, Mass., in a paper prepared for the association of School Committees and Superintendents of Norfolk Co., Mass., from which I beg to quote. He says, "the grammar grades, concentration was reduced to a simple system. Instruction in reading, writing, grammar, spelling, and to a very considerable degree in history and geography, were combined in two exercises, reading and writing. The old reader having disappeared, the teacher was at liberty to put in the hands of the children geographies or histories or magazine articles, and having read them first the scholars might write of them afterwards, to show that they understood them. Their attention was thus secured, and the pen being continually in hand, they wrote as readily as they spoke, and spelling came with practice. Under this system the absurdity of ever having expected any adequate results from the old one became apparent. How even the poor results which had been obtained, were obtained, was matter of surprise. To illustrate this it is but necessary to review to some of the other branches of education, and realize the method in which they are acquired, to then compare it with the methods adopted in the schools for imparting branches scarcely less difficult. Take, for instance, writing and talking. Every child acquires these perfectly; he is wholly at home on his feet, and talks with absolute facility. He acquires them thus perfectly by constant practice. He never in his life would learn to w firmly or to talk fluently, if he were shut up in a sitting posture, and after being elaborately instructed in the principles of equilibrium and articulation, were practiced in actual walking and talking for half an hour a day each. Yet this was exactly what was done under the old system of the Quincy schools as respects reading and writing. The grammar and the copy book effectually put a stop to all chance of facility in either, for children are slow to learn, and the time given to the study of formulas is time lost in practice."

THE NEW BASIS AND SYSTEM OF PAYING SALARIES.

The most important work of the year was the adoption of a new basis and system, upon which to pay the salaries of teachers; to take effect on the first of the coming year. The principle adopted of paying salaries upon the basis of term of service and efficiency, will render the organization of schools flexible; and, where their organization is intelligently effected, the change must greatly improve their efficiency. The old system of paying salaries according to the grade of studies taught, the smallest pay being given to the teacher instructing in the lowest primary class, with higher compensation to teachers of each advancing grade, was based upon an erroneous theory, and greatly impaired the effectiveness of the schools. That it was unsupported by reason, will be apparent when we consider that the entire range of these grades embraced little more than the elementary branches, and that all teachers were required to pass a similar examination, which rendered them eligible to instruct in any of the grades. By placing the novice, the inexperienced workman, at the inception, there was a violation of a well established principle which requires that the foundation, the preliminary work, should be thoroughly well done to ensure a perfect completion. In this respect it was, also, in direct opposition to the rules of some of the most carefully managed school districts of the country, which require special care in selecting experienced, capable teachers for the lowest primary grades. This is in accordance with the expressed judgment of the most eminent educators, "that the greater ability is required to teach the beginner," who has no notion of order, is without any desire of knowledge, is ignorant of the object of his instruction, and who has little or no power of application. The facts to be taught him are unquestionably as much in advance of his present knowledge as those to be imparted to any grade of pupils, while he is without any previous training to aid him in grasping them. It must be clear to every one that the work of the primary school is of the most serious importance, and that if it is well done it will relieve and greatly aid the work of the higher schools. The system of basing compensation upon term of service not only makes it feasible to assign teachers to grades for which they are specially capable without doing them injustice in pay, but it secures their retention in such positions, with an advance of salary, after experience has added to their worth. It is unnecessary to speak of the numerous changes under the old plan, caused by a single vacancy, each teacher below having to be moved from the post of experience to receive an increased remuneration, or of the opportunity it offered for influence to secure the higher salaried places, regardless of merit or term of service. The importance of the subject was fully understood by the Board, and the reform was adopted after the most careful and protracted consideration.

It is due to the advocates of the adopted principle of salaries, to state that the system, as proposed, also embraced a provision for requiring evidence of improved efficiency, together with term of service, for the advancement of salary; and that they held this to be a most important condition. Owing to the diversity of opinion among members, it was not accepted. It is true that time affords opportunity for improved knowledge and power, but it does not necessarily furnish them. To perfect the system of grading salaries, and for its advantages to the schools, it is hoped this condition will be added at an early day.

THE AMOUNT OF SALARY TO BE PAID TO TEACHERS.

After changing the basis upon which salaries should be graded, great care was exercised in fixing the amount of pay to be received by the several classes of teachers. The City's interests and financial condition were the governing influence, and only the plainest necessities of the teacher were regarded. Salaries agreed upon as very low, for the ability and service required, were repeatedly reduced in consideration of the total sum which these amounts aggregated, until it was believed the greatest possible economy was reached consistent with the proper maintenance of the schools. The pay finally settled upon for the great mass of teachers was $320 a year for the novice teacher, with an increase of $30 annually for five years, when the maximum salary of $470 was attained.

To the profound regret of all who are acquainted with the subject, and who appreciated its influence upon the school department, the Councils of the City granted a sum that was nearly 9 per cent. less than the amount necessary to pay these small salaries. The reason given for this insufficient appropriation was that a new law was about to be inaugurated, which required, under severe penalties, that the appropriations for the year should be within the lawful estimates of tax receipts for the same. While this was true, and great reductions were made in the estimates of the several departments, no other class of the City's employees were reduced to such inadequate pay, though none deserved so high consideration. The position can only be properly filled by persons of character and education, and the present standard, in every enlightened community, requires the teacher to be an expert in the art of imparting instruction. The pay allowed is not above a laborer's wage. It is not believed that the teachers in our schools will at once abandon their positions because of such meagre compensation, but it must lead the more enterprising and capable to seek employment elsewhere, and deter persons with aspirations and ability from preparing for or accepting the position. It is hoped that in the future a better understanding of the great interest involved will lead to necessary support to this department.

STATEMENT OF THE NUMBER OF PUPILS AND SALARIES PAID IN THE LARGER CITIES.

A statement of the number of pupils, pay per teacher, and total amount appropriated for salaries of teachers, of day schools in the cities of Washington, Boston, New York, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Philadelphia, is appended for comparison.

SUPERINTENDENCY OF THE SCHOOLS.

An urgent need of this department is competent superintendence; its absence is an anomaly. There is no knowledge possessed, by any central power, of the character and condition of the schools of this district; and without such knowledge there must be waste, mutual ignorance of wants, indifference, and abuses unredressed. Nowhere is it attempted to conduct a school district of half the proportions of this, without the hourly supervision of a staff of thoroughly trained specialists in education. The effect of the inspection and direction of our schools by proper persons, clothed with sufficient power to fulfil their office, would be to increase, enormously, their results. This work not only requires an expert, but attention that is constant and systematic. Controllers and directors, chosen for the business management of the department, have neither the time nor special knowledge to enable them to discharge such duties. This work demands the service of a most liberal education, with a scientific and enlightened knowledge of educational systems—particularly that of primary education. As well might the directors of a steamship company attempt to dispense with boiler inspectors and pilots, as for the school control to assume the duties of this office.

The importance and character of this office is so well stated in the paper of Mr. Adams, which I have before cited, that I beg to quote his testimony. It may be well to add, that he introduces his paper with the statement that it is written with a desire to place on file some of the results of his ten years experience in connection with the management of the schools of Quincy. On this subject he says, "So far as the Quincy committee of 1873 was concerned, its members having reached their conclusion, it was a simple question whether they would leave things as they found them, or attempt a wholly new departure. There was no middle course open. As affairs stood, it was plain that a great waste of public money was steadily going on—that is, the statistics did not show that the town was spending an undue amount on its schools, but of the amount it was spending, not fifty cents out of each dollar were effectively spent. This waste could only be remedied in one way. The cost of the schools could not be reduced, but their quality could be improved. It was absolutely useless, however, to look for any steady improvement through the efforts of individual members of the committee. They were busy men, and they were not specialists in education. Committees elected by popular vote are entirely unequal to any sustained effort, and only through a sustained effort can the spirit necessary to any permanent improvement be infused into teachers, and a steady direction given to it.

It was determined, therefore, to ask the town to employ a superintendent of schools, and to put the working of the new system in his hands. This was done, in the spring of 1875 the necessary authority was gained. And now the first serious difficulty presented itself in the practical selection of a superintendent; for a noticeable fact, that large and costly as the common school system of this country is, and greatly as it stands in need of intelligent direction, not a single step yet been taken, towards giving it such a direction through an educated superintendency. * * *

That this should be so, is certainly most singular, for the idea of managing a school system as complicated as that of any populous New England town has now become, without the assistance of some trained specialist, is manifestly as absurd as it would be to try to manage a college without a president. Yet the superintendency is not recognized as a distinct profession, and, accordingly, trained men not being supplied for it, it has actually fallen into a sort of discredit through the wretched substitutes for trained men, to whom towns have in their distress been compelled to have recourse. * * *

They had a definite object in view, in accomplishing which, every thing depended on their selection of an agent. Their object was to improve the schools, while increasing their cost, to get one hundred cents worth of value for every dollar of the town's money. * *

To secure the services of a better grade of teachers, so qualified to give a direction of their own to their instruction, men and women of ideas, of individuality, it is termed, would have necessitated a general rise of salaries which would have increased the annual cost from fifteen dollars to at least thirty. This was out of the question. * * * * *

"The only way to improve the system, was to concentrate the directing individuality in one man, and trust to him to infuse his spirit into the others. * * *

"Education is now a science, even common school education. Only within the last thirty years has it become so. Being a science, it must, like all other sciences, be carried forward by specialists, and not experimented on by amateurs. Indeed a wise amateur is he who will recognize his own insufficiency, and call in the assistance of the specialist. In our larger cities, and most noticeably so in case of cities the size of Boston, the committee system is therefore wholly outgrown. It should long since have given away to the commission. Spasmodic, lumbering, changeable, and incapable of that sustained effort necessary to carry out any enlightened policy, the school committee, once its work has outgrown it, invariably becomes a mere focus of intrigue. Progress through it cannot be said to be impossible, but it is terribly slow and even more costly than it is slow. Our people have a democratic and perhaps healthy prejudice against commissions; but they come to them at last. Though no one yet has uttered the word, it is probably not unsafe to predict that the next interest to be entrusted to them for development, will be the common schools of our larger cities."

SUPERVISING PRINCIPALS OF SCHOOLS.

In this connection, and for the same reasons urged in behalf of Superintendency, I beg to call your attention to the importance, wherever possible, of making every principal the superintendent and director of her school, instead of head teacher as at present. In some instances the number of pupils would not warrant the employment of a person exempt from the charge of a class, but in very many cases the change could be made in the interest of efficiency as well as economy. It cannot be expected that all teachers will be persons of eminent knowledge of the science of instruction, even if much greater care were used in their selection, or that experience and devotion to their work should render them capable of self direction; but among the number of teachers in our schools persons of superior ability can be found, who would in a great measure impart their power and art to every teacher under their direction. The saving made by this change would enable the Board to fix a salary to the position of Supervising Principal, in a measure consistent with the knowledge and ability required fully to discharge the duties of so responsible an office.

The advantages of such changes of organization are so apparent that nothing should prevent their being made at the earliest possible date.

An organization that was sufficient when the department was within the limit of a possible acquaintance with every school and employe, has long since been outgrown, and should be superseded by a thorough system, adapted to the extent and necessities of so vast and vital an interest.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

the condition that would warrant asking the enactment of compulsory education laws. Such laws imply that every other agency has been used to secure the attendance of children at school. This is not the case. We are without the means of accommodating or furnishing teachers for many who are applying for instruction. Numbers of children are wasting the period which should be devoted to this instruction, because there are not sufficient school accommodations for them.

This situation has been aggravated by the reduction by City Councils of the inadequate sum asked for the employment of new teachers during the coming year, to thirty-five hundred dollars, which will be exhausted by divisions already waiting for the new year's appropriation, leaving the Board the entire year without means to meet the constant demand for increased school facilities. School buildings which will be completed in 1880, and for which there is a pressing need, cannot be used for want of means to employ teachers.

In advance of the enactment of compulsory educational laws, the injustice and cruelty of placing children at work for the sake of their wages, during the season that should be given to school instruction, should be checked by making it unlawful to employ children under a stated age, except where poverty could be shown by the parents of the child. It should also be made, by law, the duty of the police department to report, quarterly, all children not in attendance at school, so that efforts could be made with their parents to secure their attendance.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Accompanying will be found the report of Lewis H. Esler, Superintendent and Architect of School-buildings. It will be seen by this report that three school-buildings were completed during the year, capable of accommodating thirteen hundred and fifty pupils, and that four others, having a capacity for twenty-nine hundred pupils, are under contract and will be completed during the year 1880.

Small properties adjoining school-houses have been purchased during the year in the Seventh, Thirteenth, and Twenty-ninth Wards, to secure proper yard space and light, and for the purpose of improved facilities in teaching school-buildings.

Lots of ground, upon which school-houses will be erected, have been purchased in the Twenty-second and Thirty-first Wards, and the City has appropriated for school purposes an ample and suitable lot of ground in the Twenty-ninth Ward, upon which a large and much needed school-house will be built.

To provide school accommodations for the constantly growing requirements of the community, is one of the most serious duties with which this Board is charged. The erection of school-buildings has not kept pace with the demand for them; and it is a matter of the deepest regret to those whose official duties have made them aware of the fact, that, as has been stated before, many children are without instruction, for the want of school rooms.

DWELLING HOUSES USED FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES.

In a number of cases, impelled by this need, the Board has rented dwelling houses for school purposes.

It is a question whether, in view of their unsuitable character, their use is justified, even with the alternative of failing to meet this want. Crowding children into small, low-ceiled rooms must be detrimental to health, while the very limited yard space and unsuitable accommodations connected with it, are demoralizing.

The City ordinance which limits all contracts to the current year, deters individuals from erecting school-buildings to be rented to the City. In renting buildings for this purpose the City pays a high rate of interest upon the cost of more suitable buildings of its own construction.

FURTHER APPROPRIATION FOR THE PURCHASE OF LOTS AND THE ERECTION OF BUILDINGS.

The public having assumed to maintain a system of popular education, should promptly furnish means to keep pace with the rapid growth of population, which, while it adds to the power and wealth of a community, must also increase its expenses.

Of the several appropriations for the purchase of lots and the erection of school-buildings, only about fifty thousand dollars remain after paying for buildings under contract, and for which plans are being prepared. It therefore, should be determined at once what provision will be made to meet what may correctly be stated as present wants.

PURCHASE OF SCHOOL LOTS BY PUBLIC ADVERTISEMENT

The action of the Committee on Property in adopting a system of purchasing school lots by public advertisement, indicating an area affording ample competition, has resulted in securing to the City ground at a minimum price. As these lots are generally needed in the suburbs and growing districts of the City, their value is constantly increasing.

It has been the general experience that school-buildings have not answered the requirements of their neighborhoods for more than a few months after their completion. The probable necessities of the vicinity for a reasonable number of years should be considered, and the building constructed accordingly. Other expenses are the same; the increased cost of a larger building is not in proportion to its greater capacity.

FIRE-PROOF STAIRWAYS.

City Councils, by ordinance May, 1877, required certain classes of buildings, among which were school-houses, to be provided with fire-proof stairways. Since that date a special act has been necessary to except buildings erected without this feature. An act of the State Legislature, passed at its last session, requires that all school-buildings more than two stories in height should be provided with proper exterior fire-escapes. In the judgment of the Committee on Property this is a proper and most desirable safeguard. They have considered it a great responsibility to ask the approval of school-buildings without it; yet the greatly increased cost of such a construction, and the insufficient appropriations, have some times made it necessary to do so.

In two of the buildings now in the course of completion, fire proof stairways of the most substantial character are being constructed. In these buildings the question of light has been carefully considered, in its relation to the sight and comfort of the scholars. Windows are placed only on one side of the class rooms to avoid cross lights, and the desks will be so arranged that the light will fall properly on them.

It would be difficult to overstate the importance of a properly planned and thoroughly constructed school building. In its years of service many thousands of children receive the elements of an education and a powerful bias of character within its walls. In its substantial construction, it should be a lesson to the pupils of stability and honest worth; and in its plan, comfort and cheerfulness should be secured. In repair and cleanliness, it should not be surpassed by the best order of ship of war.

ASSEMBLY ROOMS.

Moral training being essential in the schools, a hall or assembly room should be provided, if possible, that the children may be brought together in furtherance of such instruction; that a spirit of order, unity, and mutual respect may be instilled. The use and value of such a room is so well stated in an article written by Professor Buisson, President of the French Educational Commission to the Centennial Exhibition, and afterwards published in the Pennsylvania School Journal, that I quote it here. "We who have never seen, and are not likely to see, anything like it in our primary school-houses, experience at first some difficulty in understanding the utility of this hall, which, it is very apparent, must increase considerably the expense of the school building.

“ But after realizing the true function of the American School, it becomes apparent that a large hall or assembly room, designed for general re-unions, is really indispensable in an educational system like that of the United States. Nothing is more beautiful, and nothing, I am persuaded, exerts a better influence, than these grand re-unions of children, brought about with a dignity and soberness of manner natural to the Americans when they form themselves into an assembly. To appreciate their effect, it is only necessary to see the children of a large school assemble in the hall. They enter step by step, marching in time, generally to the music of a piano, large and small, by classes, in the most perfect order, without any one, either the largest or the smallest, showing the slightest inclination to laugh, or to look lightly upon the ceremony, or to affect those forward airs which are too apt to distinguish boys of from fifteen to eighteen years of age among us, to say nothing of girls of the same age. Whether the re-union in the hall lasts five minutes or an hour, whether it is an assembly for prayers, for singing, for examination, or for some other purpose, the attitude of the scholars is the same, and we have nothing in our pedagogical organization which is productive of the same results. It is not only discipline, it is reflection; it is a moment, no matter how short, that leaves its mark on character; it gives unity to the school, and moulds the whole of the children into a common life. These children of different ages and sex are affected by this single and short interview in a wonderful manner, difficult to be described. The youngest among them learn from instinct, and from example of those older than themselves, respect, steady-ness of character, seriousness of manner, an idea of the greatness of the school, and I am almost ready to say, of the holiness of the place. The oldest engage in the exercises of the youngest. You will see them mark time, get up and sit down at a given signal, perform conscientiously, and without smiling, the various gymnastic and calisthenic movements, and defile in a military way in front of the platform, young gentlemen and young ladies, with an air at once serious and good humored. Then there comes a beautiful piece of sacred music, a national hymn, or a school song. The moral effect of all this is immense; it unites all these young hearts in a common love of country, which is a very important matter in the political and moral education of the future citizens of the United States.

"It is on this account that it is nowhere a question as to the propriety of these grand assembly rooms in large school-buildings, although strangers, seeing them nearly always empty, are tempted to consider them useless."

NORMAL AND CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOLS.

The Normal School, for the year beginning with September, is more thoroughly organized than before to accomplish its most important office—the training of teachers for the schools of the district.

Under the recently adopted rules of the Board, the class which had successfully graduated in scholarship, then began its fourth year, to be devoted to instruction in methods and theory of teaching, and to practice in teaching under competent supervision. By the rule referred to, certificates of qualification to teach will be

-anted to those who successfully complete the course for e year.

As it becomes more generally understood that a nowledge of the science of instructing is equally as sential as scholarship to qualify the teacher, the imortance of this school, in this respect alone, will be lly appreciated.

The value of this science has been recognized for any years by specialists in educational matters; yet e schools of the country have been so generally nder the management of amateurs, holding their potions for brief terms, that, until a comparatively recent te, no earnest effort has been made to train scholars r teachers.

At the present time so few cultivated women have quired this knowledge, that it is difficult to obtain e services of capable persons to take charge of such partments in normal schools.

The value and importance of this knowledge is cibly illustrated by the fact, that while there are ny teachers who, through long experience and in-est in their work, are able to accomplish satisfactory ults, yet their want of knowledge of the scientific inciples governing methods of instruction renders em incapable of readily imparting their art to others.

The principal of the school calls attention, in his port, to the admissions of pupils into the school, and ecommends that they be made from those showing the ighest scholarship, at examination for admission, and not upon a system of quotas, as at present. It is to be oped that the Board will consider and act upon this recommendation as early as possible. Justice to the school demands that it be supplied with the best possible material; fairness requires that pupils who are better prepared shall not be excluded by less competent applicants. Under the quota system, indifferent and careless instruction is allowed to pass its ordinary work into the Normal School, and thus escape the renovation it should receive. For not to the class of population at all, or to the grammar school only, but to the character and vigor of the system of schools, from the primary up, will depend the proficiency of the grammar graduate.

Connected with the principal's report is a carefully prepared statement of the expense of instruction in the Normal School; by which it is shown that the entire cost per capita for the year was $25.98. These figures will satisfy the most unreasonable economist. The cost of Kindergarten training in the public school department of St. Louis, in 1877, was over thirteen dollars per pupil, when all the assistants in this branch of instruction served without pay for the purpose of learning the system.

This statement of the very low cost of Normal School instruction in this City may be of value to those who would limit instruction in public schools to the most elementary branches, but to the thoughtful friends of education, who associate their welfare with that of the community, and regard education as a necessary constituent in its thrift, order, and peace, these figures will awaken questionings of adequate pay to teachers and of pupils confined to reasonable numbers.

The question of embracing in a system of public justice to the best of the oils which is compared to different primary and secondary schools, what are denominated high schools, or, in other words, of the desirability of giving in these schools what is termed a "higher education," has been discussed, not only in Philadelphia, but generally throughout the country; though the abandonment of this grade of instruction has never been seriously entertained by the public, and probably never will be, while popular education is regarded with favor.

The presence of these schools gives life and character to the whole system. They are the goal at which a better appreciation of education aims, though few reach it. The pressure of these and the efforts of teachers to carry their scholars in that direction, stimulate the entire work.

There is a very limited demand upon a reservoir for the water that is held at its highest elevation, but its presence and weight there gives fullness and promptness to the flow on lower levels.

It will always be comparatively a few who avail themselves of this higher instruction, which is to be regretted. The opponents of such schools will say the pupils are of a class which can afford to pay for such privileges. This is true of nine-tenths of the pupils in the public schools, but if it were not, the schools being supported by taxation of the class which is able to pay is likely to bear its full share of the expenses and should not be deprived of advantages.

The truth is that these schools will be used most by those who have the greatest faith in the developing power of education, without regard to their pecuniary circumstances.

To discontinue the High Schools, and limit instruction in the schools of the public to the most elementary branches, would place the stigma upon them of being intended for the indigent, who had no reasonable claim to what might be called an education. To give them such a character would largely deplete them of scholars, and the most stringent compulsory education laws would fail to restore their numbers. There is no considerable class which requires gratuitous instruction.

The free schools of this city were originally organized for the benefit of the indigent and were limited scholarship to a few thousand pupils. When the law was changed and the high schools established, forming a system of co-operative education, the entire community, so to speak, adopted this means for instructing their children.

The first motive of free schools, a charity system, still lingers in the minds of some, and may retard the progress of the present co-operative plan of education. Whatever detriment the present system may suffer from such views, its growth and progress will be steady, continually enlarging the opportunities for acquiring education, and seeking the adoption of higher standards.

The system is capable of being made so superior that the most scrupulous in regard to their children could not afford to decline its benefits.

In the report of the President of the Central High School, will be found a most interesting statement of the condition of that school, and suggestions that should receive the serious consideration of the Board. He calls attention to his former report, among the items of which it is stated "that a most serious evil is the unprepared and undeveloped condition of the minds of many of the students promoted into the institution. "The desire to gain admission seems to outweigh, with both parents and children, the terrible injury which results to both the intellect and character of youth, who in spite of all rules to the contrary, are forced into a grade of school for which they are not morally or mentally ready." The Board should correct this, that the school may fulfil its proper office.

I take pleasure in acknowledging the faithful and efficient services of the faculty of both the High and Normal Schools, and in expressing the opinion that the closest inspection of these schools will serve to improve the public estimate of their character and usefulness.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

It would not be proper to close this report without attempting an acknowledgment to the many teachers who have served the public with unsurpassed fidelity through most discouraging difficulties. The best results of the schools of this city are largely due to the personal integrity and benevolence of character of these teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD T. STEEL, President.

Each letter in the above table represents a class; "H" being the lowest, and "A" the highest in grade. The studies of each class occupy a term, or half the school year, so that the full course extends through four years.

The system of semi-annual admissions was resumed in February, 1879, and it is earnestly hoped that no change will hereafter be adopted, as the school has yet scarcely recovered from the demoralization caused by the previous legislation in this matter.

No alterations have taken place in either the Faculty or in the course of study during the year.

The average attendance was 500.29, showing, as predicted, a marked increase over 1878. This will continue until the former overcrowded condition be reached, and attention is, therefore, again urged to the importance of taking without delay the preliminary steps toward enlarging the present building or erecting a new one.

This will, before long, be a paramount necessity, and action ought not to be delayed.

The notices of the commencement exercises in February and June, 1879, will be found in the appendix, together with lists of those who received degrees and certificates, and who were declared distinguished and meritorious.

The apparatus and other material for illustration added during 1879 was distributed as follows, among the departments named.

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY.

Relief charts of Russia, Norway and Sweden, Austria, Switzerland, France, Italy, Germany, and the British Islands; one relief globe; wall map of the City of London, of Asia, of Africa, and of South America.

DEPARTMENT OF DRAWING.

Circular frame, circular ring, circular disk, sphere, cone, cone in sections, double cone, cylinder, square frame, square block, square frame and ring, cube, skeleton cube, rectangular block, rectangular pyramid, rectangular frame, triangular prism, triangular frame, pentagonal frame, hexagonal disk, hexagonal frame, hexagonal prism, hexagonal pyramid, flight of steps, single cross, double cross, three Greek vases, also ten other vases duplicated from the Greek originals; thirty-nine pieces and an adjustable stand.

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY AND CHEMISTRY.

Model of rolling machine, model of screw, Terrestrial globe, Van Babo's sulph. hyd. apparatus, screw press, grinding mill, pair of scales, mercury trough, carbonic acid reservoir, grindstone, set of minerals, Morin's apparatus for falling bodies, train of cog-wheels, set of pulleys, set of differential pulleys, crown wheel with pinion, Marcy's Sciopticon, outline maps with cases and spring rollers; Eastern Hemisphere, Asia, Africa; Western Hemisphere, Australia; North America, United States, Government map; South America, United States map, Guyot's; two electric alarm bells, with battery attachments.

DEPARTMENT OF ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY AND NATURAL HISTORY.

Forty-two magic lantern slides, representing anatomical and zoological objects; one portfolio for anatomical pictures; thirty-six frames for anatomical diagrams, with rack-work for holding the same; one mounted bird (Colymbus torquatus) from Mr. Thomas G. Gentry.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER MATHEMATICS AND ASTRONOMY

Forty astronomical diagrams framed; star charts of the Berlin Academy, also of Heis and Argelander; Schmidt lunar charts; draw-table for small telescope.

It is not desirable, especially as the last annual report has been published so recently, to restate the arguments therein offered as to the necessity and importance of the branches of study prescribed in the curriculum, and as to the erroneous statements which appeared in the public prints as to the cost of the institution. A reference to those arguments is earnestly asked if any question arise on which they have a bearing. Some words will also be found in the last report on the subject of the higher education, which, it is submitted, are not without value.

To one point it is desired to ask attention at this time:

The salaries of teachers, through the small appropriation by Councils, and the new system of grading adopted by the Board of Public Education, have, in many cases, been reduced to a point which seriously threatens the efficiency of the better grades of school. The higher education is especially imperilled.

To the strain inevitably involved in the conscientious discharge of duty in a school like this, where every chair involves special and careful study, is added an anxiety as to subsistence and a necessity for outside effort, which detract necessarily from the efficiency of the teachers; and the recent death of an exceptionally able and esteemed professor, which belongs to another year, and will find its appropriate mention in the next report, is clearly a case in which the fatal effect of such strain has resulted in private suffering and public loss. The inducements to new comers are not sufficient to the institution up to its standard, as the old and capable teachers, who have hitherto sustained us away.

is not merely the claim of a class of faithful workers which has been disallowed, but the claim of the children growing up in our midst, whose education is endangered where its value is most vital, and should be most carefully guarded.

Economy may be, and doubtless is, a necessity, but only where there are departments where it can be practised with far more judgment and effect than here, where, at times, the compensation has been conspicuously inadequate to the value of the service rendered.

REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL
OF THE
GIRLS' NORMAL SCHOOL,
FOR THE
Year Ending December 31, 1879.

TO MESSRS. SIMON GRATZ, M. P. HUTCHINSON, M. D.,
JOHN M. CAMPBELL, RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, A. S.
JENKS, GEORGE F. BARKER, WILLIAM F. MILLER,
HENRY S. GODSHALL, AND JAMES V. WATSON.

GENTLEMEN:—In accordance with an established custom, the Annual Report of this school for the year ending December 31, 1879, comprising parts of the fifty-ninth and sixtieth terms, is respectfully submitted.

The following statement shows the number of pupils in attendance at the beginning and end of the year, also the number admitted and withdrawn since the last report.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|-----|
| Attending school January 1, 1879, | - | - | - | 930 |
| Graduated or discontinued from January 1, 1879, | | | | |
| to June 20, 1879, | - | - | - | 276 |
| Remaining, | - | - | - | 654 |
| Admitted at the close of the term, | - | - | - | 358 |
| Never attended, | - | - | - | 25 |
| Attending school September 1, 1879, | - | - | - | 987 |
| Discontinued from September 30, 1879, to Dec. | | | | |
| 31, 1879, | - | - | - | 12 |
| Attending school December 31, 1879, | - | - | - | 975 |

Since the establishment of the school in February, 1848, five thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight pupils have been registered; of this number, two thousand five hundred and ninety-five have graduated, and two thousand six hundred and ninety-three have been appointed to situations as teachers. Of the last number, two thousand four hundred and thirty-one graduated, and two hundred and sixty-two obtained situations before graduation. It was the custom for many years prior to the adoption of the present plan of granting certificates, to allow the pupils in the lower grades of the school to attend the "teachers' examination," and when successful in obtaining certificates, they often received appointments before reaching class A. In accepting these appointments they of course withdrew from the school.

The following statement will serve to show to what extent the graduates desire to engage in teaching:

|--|------------|
| Graduates of this year engaged in teaching during the same period, - - - - - | 28 |
| Graduates of this year still unemployed and desiring to teach, - - - - - | 93 |
| Graduates of this year who do not intend to teach, - - - | 24 |
| During the year, one hundred and forty-three pupils left in the lower classes, as follows: | |
| On account of ill health, - - - - - | 9 |
| Deceased, - - - - - | 2 |
| In consequence of being needed at home, - - - | 23 |
| In consequence of removal from the city, - - - | 22 |
| On account of failure during the term and at the examination, - - - - - | 87 |
| Total, - - - - - | 143 |

ADMISSIONS.

The annual examination for the admission of pupils from the grammar schools, was held at the close of term ending in June. Three hundred and fifty-eight pupils were admitted from a list of four hundred and thirty-five candidates. Twenty-five of those admitted never attended.

No change has been made in the plan of admission but it is earnestly hoped that the Board of Public Education will, at an early day, take into consideration the subject of examinations for admission. A competitive examination is, without doubt, the surest and best method of imparting a healthy tone and a proper vigor to the whole school system, and of securing the advantage of the Normal School to the best qualified and most deserving pupils in the grammar schools. The best evidence that these results are not produced by the present system is furnished at each annual admission. Applicants are rejected with averages above seventy (70), while numbers of others are admitted with sixty (60) and upwards, and below seventy (70). Parents and others interested in education, not understanding the method of admitting pupils, frequently conclude that only partiality and favoritism can lead to the rejection of one candidate having seventy (70) and upwards, and the admission of another with an average f sixty (60). As will be seen from a foregoing statement, many fail entirely, and after repeated trials, are compelled to leave, not from lack of industry or ability, but from lack of preparation. Nor is this the only loss. For every disqualified candidate admitted, another eminently qualified is excluded and compelled to wait until a favorable opportunity occurs for admission. That the grammar schools may have an opportunity to furnish the very best material is imperatively demanded. The Normal School has just inaugurated a new system. The Board of Public Education, through their recent legislation, have wisely required a much higher standard in the qualification of teachers. Indirectly, they demand that certificates shall be granted to those only who possess the power to discipline and the faculty to impart. Both qualities are essential elements in the character of every teacher.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Class D.—Algebra, grammar, drawing, arithmetic, rhetoric, composition, reading, orthography, physical geography, etymology, music, general history, geometry, physical exercises, penmanship, and constitution of the United States.

Class C.—Algebra, moral science, arithmetic, drawing, composition, rhetoric, elocution, botany, orthography, etymology, music, general history, geometry, physical exercises, and mythology.

Class B.—Algebra, literature, physiology, drawing, arithmetic, composition, rhetoric, elocution, natural philosophy, astronomy, methods of teaching, music, general history, geometry, and physical exercises.

Class A.—Geology, logic, trigonometry, chemistry, music, theory and practice of teaching, free hand drawing, and methods of teaching.

At the beginning of the term, which commenced September 1st of this year, important and radical changes were made in the course of study. No language could more adequately convey a proper conception of the object of these changes than the following rule of the Committee, which now governs the school, in regard to the practice of teaching:—

RULE.—"All pupils of Class A shall have, as nearly as possible, the same term of service as teachers in the Department of Practice, and their 'teaching' average shall be determined by the principal of that department. If any pupil shall fail to receive, for her work as a teacher in that department, an average of seventy (70), such pupil shall have a second trial, and her 'teaching' average, during such second term of service, shall be marked by the principal of that department and the principal of the Normal School, separately. The mean of the two marks so given shall then be the 'teaching' average of the pupil. Whenever the mark shall be less than seventy (70), it shall be accompanied by a note or memorandum, stating fully and explicitly, the reasons of the respective principals for their estimates of the pupil's work."

As stated in the last annual report, at the end of the third year, the pupils graduate from the Normal School, and are granted diplomas, provided they pass the examination at the close of the term with a general average scholarship of seventy (70) or upwards. Those who do expect to become teachers then leave the school. The number is comparatively small, being at the last examination less than ten per cent. of those who graduate. The remainder continue the fourth year in order to prepare themselves for teachers, and prove by their work that they are worthy to receive a certificate. This year is devoted to daily lectures on the theory and practice of teaching, to observation, and actual experience in the School of Practice, and to the pursuit of such studies as will enlarge their powers, develop their faculties, and sharpen their perceptions, so as to enable them to pursue a profession for which they are preparing, with mutual advantage to themselves and their pupils. It will be the aim of those intrusted with the execution of the school rule, to deal fairly and impartially with all who seek certificates of qualification to teach, that the public may not suffer from the unprofitable results of weakness or incompetency. No pupil will be pronounced worthy of a certificate unless she develops those powers essential to the successful teacher. Such special training in the art of teaching as will test the capacity and ability of young teachers, is now given in the School of Practice; the results of this training will determine the merit of the pupil teachers. A thorough acquaintance with the subjects to be taught is essential in the instructor. One who knows, and yet has no power to communicate, cannot make the true teacher. The profound scholar may be a very unsuccessful teacher. The child readily distinguishes between the inefficient and uninteresting efforts of the mere scholar, and the developing, educating, and creating ability of one who possesses the essentials. Taking these views of the relative importance of scholarship, aptness to impart, and power to govern, with their inseparable connection, as essential qualifications in the teacher, no pupil will be recommended as a properly qualified teacher who is absolutely deficient in either of them.

DEPARTMENT OF INSTRUCTION.

In consequence of the change in the course of study during the year, a new department was created, entitled a grammar department. In this department the pupils of Class A, during one-half of the school year, are instructed in the art and practice of teaching the branches which are taught in the first division of the grammar schools. The plan pursued is as follows:—The instruction is intended to be in exact accordance with that laid down in the new course of study, adopted for that department by the Board of Public Education. Daily lessons are assigned, and the members of the class are required to study the lesson with special reference to the teaching of it. At the beginning of each recitation, a pupil, selected without previous notice, is required to teach under the supervision and criticism of the permanent teacher. This practice, in addition to the experience received in the School of Practice, affords ample opportunities to the young teacher to develop her powers for teaching, and enables her to educate properly the faculties and capabilities of her mind. It impresses her with the dignity and importance of the profession she has chosen, and, when the entire responsibility of a class is laid upon her, it enables her to select from her ample stock, well-tried methods of instruction and discipline, exactly adapted to the exigencies of the case. In a word, she is, in her profession, an expert.

Miss Lydia F. Hamor was wisely called by the Committee to the discharge of the duty of training in this department. It was believed her long experience, both as principal of a grammar school and teacher in the Normal School, would specially fit her for the work assigned; and her labors thus far furnish the most convincing evidence that the conclusion was correct. Her professional industry and expert management tend to arouse the interest and ingenuity of those under her charge, and thus render her work of incalculable value to the young teacher.

The Department of Methods, established last year, is rapidly growing in favor, with all who are familiar with its operations. This branch of the Normal School constitutes the most valuable department of the institution. Valuable, because as an educational measure, it affords opportunities for the pupil teachers to acquire plans, for actual practice in the school-room, which they could never acquire by mere theorizing. The processes are calculated to arouse thought, produce interest, and exercise judgment, thereby developing the mind, increasing the powers of application, and stimulating the energies. Plans are presented for giving instruction in every subject taught in the lower schools. In presenting these plans, the pupil teachers are led to perceive the importance and value of each step in the work. They present objections, offer suggestions, and are able to draw inferences, and arrive at correct conclusions. Thus, the whole method of teaching a subject is submitted to a logical process. As a final test of the efficiency work, each pupil teacher is required to reproduce plan in writing. These reproductions are carefully rected by the permanent teacher, and afterward cised in the presence of the class. In the preser of all plans, the graded course of instruction, a by the Board of Public Education, for the public s is kept prominently in view, in order that the teachers, as they find employment in the school aid in carrying it into execution.

SCHOOL OF PRACTICE.

The School of Practice appears to be constantly creasing in efficiency and in public favor, if the desire on the part of parents to have their ch admitted, may be taken as a criterion. Scores constantly waiting for admission. This is one most important agencies connected with the N School. It was established for the purpose of en the graduates, in connection with the departm methods, to acquire a practical knowledge of the teaching the branches studied in the public s Here young teachers are specially trained for peculiar work. Twenty pupils are constantly e in observing and giving instruction, under the c and careful supervision of three permanent te whose duty it is to advise and assist, whenever needed. The advantages of such a plan are bey doubt, and the rapid improvement of most of the teachers, in ability to control and power to i proves most conclusively the value of this depar The pupils instructed in the School of Practic also many advantages. Their teachers being young, still remember their own difficulties and the means which were successful in removing them. Consequently, they can more easily smooth the way, and more readily remove the obstacles which lie in the path to knowledge, than an older teacher, who has lost sight of her school day trials. The pupil teacher, feeling that she has her reputation to make, brings to her assistance all the information that energy and industry can collect. The recitations thus become lively and instructive, the pupils are greatly interested, all are too busy to be disorderly, and discipline is usually maintained without effort. Thus acquiring daily, correct views of work, the young teacher pursues it with an increased sense of responsibility, applies herself more closely in preparation, and learns to avoid many of those petty faults, so common, yet so inexcusable, in the instructor of youth.

During the year, Miss A. H. Hall was elected as teacher in the primary department of this school. Her long experience, ripe culture, and progressive views on the subject of early education, render her services of great value both to teachers and pupils.

The School of Practice consists of ten classes; five primary and five secondary grades, under the direction and management of the following named permanent teachers: Elizabeth P. Watson, Principal; Lydia M. Watson, teacher in secondary department; A. H. Hall, teacher in primary department.

The following statement shows the number of pupils in attendance at the beginning and end of the year, the number admitted and promoted or withdrawn, and the average attendance since the last report.

|--|-----|
| Number of pupils in attendance at the beginning of the year, - - - - - | 300 |
| Number promoted to grammar schools, - - | 31 |
| Number left who were not promoted, - - | 86 |
| Number admitted during the year, - - | 124 |
| Number in attendance at the close of the year, - | 307 |
| Average attendance, - - - - - | 290 |
| Number of applicants waiting admission, - - | 90 |

The pupils are examined twice a year, and all found qualified are sent to the grammar schools. Those selected are permitted to choose the school which they desire to attend, after which, they are examined with the candidates from the secondary schools, in the section in which the grammar school is located, and, if found qualified, are admitted. The results at these examinations have been entirely satisfactory, and show precisely the work which the school is performing.

TEACHERS.

It is an established fact that the utility and success of all schools depend entirely upon the integrity, ability, and zeal of the teachers, and that when these qualities are wanting, success is impossible. But in a normal school, professing to train those who are in turn to train others, increased ability and energy are needed. The instruction and example of the teacher in such a school are of two-fold importance. The method of instruction adopted must be a model, the result of careful forethought and ingenuity. The teachers must seek to enliven their work by their own animation, and strive to arouse the latent energies of the future teachers. To effect this the most careful preparation is absolutely necessary. The teacher, before coming to her class, must know not only what to do, but how to do. There is abundant evidence that the efforts of the teachers in their several departments are, as a rule, successful, both in the results of the examinations and in the esteem and confidence felt by the pupils. Much of the success and popularity of the school is due to the faithful efforts and untiring industry of the teachers; efforts that are worthy of a greater reward than they receive.

During the year the school sustained a serious loss in the retirement of Miss Eleanor Worthington, teacher in the department of methods. In the withdrawal of Miss Worthington the school lost a good teacher, one who felt that a great work was to be accomplished, and who found her happiness, as well as duty, in work well done. Her superior intelligence and devotion to her labors inspired her pupils to such efforts as secured the the most satisfactory results in her department.

Mrs. Clara A. Burr was selected as Miss Worthington's successor. This lady is a graduate of the "Oswego State Normal and Training School," and brings to her work the advantages of many years of experience in the special department to which she was called, combined with superior scholarship, energy of character, and love for her profession. At an examination, held to fill the vacancy, she stood at the head of the list of competitors, with an examining board consisting of the following named distinguished educators: Charles J. Stillé, LL. D., Provost of the University of Pennsylvania, Professor N. A. Calkins, Superintendent of Primary Instruction in the City of New York, Professor Edward Brooks, Principal of the Millersville State Normal School, Professor Joseph W. Wilson, of the Central High School, Mr. Edgar A. Singer, Principal of the Halliwell Boys' Grammar School, and Miss Lydia A. Kirby, Principal of the Lincoln Girls' Grammar School. These examiners unanimously recommended Mrs. Burr for the position; and she was, subsequently, elected by the Board of Public Education, to fill the post. She brings strong recommendations from some of the most eminent scholars, among them, one most eulogistic, from Prof. E. A. Sheldon, Principal of the "Oswego State Normal and Training School." Thus far her work has been satisfactory. Familiar with her subject, and able to communicate, in appropriate language, she instructs her pupils in the best methods of presenting a truth, of explaining difficult points, and of selecting appropriate and suitable illustrations.

ATTENDANCE.

The average daily attendance, including every day the school was in session during the year, and including sickness, was more than ninety-nine and three-fourths per cent., or nine hundred and thirty-five pupils, from an average daily roll of nine hundred and thirty-seven. The average attendance, excluding sickness, was about ninety-eight and one-half per cent. Such an attendance furnishes the most positive evidence of the appreciation of the advantages of the school by the pupils themselves, and of their intense desire to avail themselves of the many opportunities it affords for their culture and improvement.

DODD MEDALS.

At the Commencement held June 18th, the "Dodd" Medals were awarded as follows: Gold medals to Misses Sarah E. Wolf and Mary C. Crowell, both having the same average, 97.1; and the silver medal to Miss Mary H. Taylor, whose average was 95.9.

At the commencement held June 20th, the gold medal was awarded to Miss Lillie H. Hare, average 98.1, and the silver medal to Miss Evelyn S. Rigler, average, 96.8.

ART EDUCATION.

The following named ladies received free scholarships in the School of Design: Misses Caroline B. Kelley, Eva Wensley, Genia V. Camp, Elizabeth H. McLees, and Harriet N. Braedin. Misses Anna Sage and Letitia McCreight were appointed to fill vacancies occasioned by the retirement of ladies previously appointed. As pupils in the Normal School, these ladies exhibited superior talent for drawing, and it is hoped they will, by successful effort, reflect credit on this school, and fully satisfy those having charge of the School of Design. The last report of the principal of that school presented the names of a number of those formerly admitted from this school who had distinguished themselves by industry and ability.

COMMENCEMENTS.

At the close of the Fifty-ninth Term, ending in June, the following named ladies having completed the full course of study, graduated and received their diplomas and certificates of qualification to teach in the public schools of this city.

APPENDIX I.

A statement showing the number of teachers employed, the average attendance of the pupils, and the average number of pupils to each teacher, per annum, since the establishment of the school.

Identified as this school is with our entire school system, being in reality its basis, every friend of education must regard with deep interest the result of its operations, and rejoice in its prosperity and success. It is gratifying to all concerned in its welfare, to know that its usefulness has stood every test that has been applied to it; that it has overcome all captious opposition; that it is found worthy of the confidence and support of its friends; and that it is still considered deserving of liberal provision for its maintenance. Distinguished visitors and educators from all parts of the country, and great numbers of parents and others, interested in the cause of education, from this city, continue to throng the classrooms, to listen to the recitations, deeply interested in the methods adopted and the plans pursued. In many cases their presence is a higher compliment to the school than any words which can be uttered.

With gratitude for the support and encouragement received during the year, and with confidence that every assistance will be rendered that is necessary for the advancement and promotion of the best interests of the school in the future, I remain,

Very respectfully,

GEORGE W. FETTER,

Principal.

REPORT
OF THE
Architect and Superintendent of Public School Buildings
For the Year Ending December 31, 1879.

To the Board of Public Education of the First School District of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with the rules of the Board the following report is respectfully submitted.

The new school house at the corner of Susquehanna Avenue and Woodstock Street, in the Twenty-eighth Section, which was commenced in 1878, was completed in February, 1879. The building is three stories in height, built of stone, and contains fifteen class-rooms, teachers' rooms &c. The contract price was $20,768. Columbus Tweed was the builder.

Twenty-fifth Section.—On November 27, 1878, a contract was entered into with George Nonemaker, for the erection of a three-storied stone and brick building, at the corner of Broad and MacFerran Streets, but work was not commenced until the Spring of 1879. It is still unfinished. The capacity of the building is eighteen class-rooms. The cost, $19,200.

Twenty-sixth Section.—On November 27, 1878, a contract was made with Charles O'Neill, Jr., for the erection of a two-storied brick school-house, at the corner of Twelfth and Federal Streets. Work was commenced early in March, 1879, and the building finished in the latter part of October, of the same year. There are eight class-rooms, teachers' retiring rooms, &c. The cost was $10,947.

Twenty-sixth Section.—At the same date with the above award of contract, the Board contracted with Charles O'Neill, Jr., for the erection of a two-storied, four division, brick building, at the corner of Twenty-seventh Street and Passyunk Avenue, to take the place of the dilapidated old building at that point, which had long been entirely unfit for school uses. Operations commenced in March, 1879, and the building was fully completed on the fifteenth of August. The cost was $6,945.

Twenty-second Section.—On October 10, 1878, a contract was awarded to Samuel Collom, for the erection of a two-storied, stone building, on Green Lane, Branchtown. Mr. Collom, however, failed to execute his contract, and on May 31, 1879, the Committee re-awarded the contract to C. I. Smith, but on inquiry as to the standing of Mr. Smith the contract was annulled, and a new contract entered into with Charles O'Neill, Jr., for the sum of $6,697. Work at this date has not yet been commenced, but as soon as the spring opens Mr. O'Neill proposes to push the work to completion. The building will accommodate 200 pupils.

First Section.—Corner of Thirteenth and Jackson Streets. On the thirty-first of May, 1879, a contract was awarded to Charles O'Neill, Jr., for the erection of a three-storied, brick building, of eighteen divisions. Work was at once commenced, and the building has steadily progressed. It is now being plastered. The cost is $25,589.

Nineteenth Section.—At the same date with the above, a contract was awarded to Philip H. Somerset, for a three-storied, brick school-house, to be erected at the corner of Fourth Street and Lehigh Avenue. This building has eighteen class-rooms, teachers' retiring rooms, &c. The cost will be $28,898. Preparation for plastering is progressing.

The last two buildings contain several new features which are marked departures from the plans heretofore used: colored bricks have been extensively introduced in ornamentation. Stone stairways, and corridors supported on iron beams, constitute another improvement, and, being entirely fire-proof, commend themselves to universal favor.

During the summer vacation, the usual routine of repairing the school properties in the different sections was followed. Owing to the reduction by City Councils of the amount asked for by the Board of Public Education, the repairs could not be made either as extensively or as thoroughly as was desired; the money was therefore used where most imperatively needed, and with good results, many old defects being cured and long needed repairs accomplished.

INCIDENTS.

On April 6, 1879, a large fire occurred at the corner of Fourth and Race Streets, destroying much valuable property. The school-house at corner of Race and Crown streets took fire, and was injured to the extent of about $500. The repairs were promptly made by the insurance company. The exercises of the school were interrupted for nearly two months.

Several buildings have been rented by the Board to be used for school purposes, in the different sections. Some of these are mere make-shifts, but their use is compulsory for the time being. Several of the school sections are calling loudly for additional school facilities. There are several hundred children now waiting for admittance, and no provision made for them. The matter commends itself to the attention not only of the Board, but to all friends of popular education.

The tables attached hereto show the values of the school properties in the First School District, with the location &c. corrected to date.

Respectfully submitted,

LEWIS H. ESLER,

Architect and Superintendent.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Correct expressions and answers in all lessons and exercises.

2. Oral description of objects and pictures.
3. Every reading lesson correctly reproduced, in part, in the pupil's own language.

NUMBER.

1. Counting objects, and without objects, to fifty, and back, by one, and by two.
2. Oral exercises in addition and subtraction, with the numbers one, two, three, and four; no sum or minuend to exceed fourteen.
3. Ones and tens explained; notation and numeration to 100 inclusive.
4. Construction of the addition tables to 9 and 10, or 10 and 9; and of the subtraction tables to 9 from 19, or 10 from 19.
5. The names and the uses of the signs $+$, $-$, and $=$; the terms used in addition to be explained.
6. Written exercises with the numbers 1 to 9; in addition, single columns, no sum to exceed 20, and double columns without carrying; and in subtraction, no minuend to exceed 20.

The coins of United States money, not exceeding ten cents in value; and how to make change to that extent.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil.

2. Principles and height of i, u, and w; frequent drill on the letters learned, that they may be exactly formed; other small letters by imitation.

N. B.—No description of the formation or the analysis of any letter to be memorized.

DRAWING.—1. Angles; angles formed of straight lines,—right, acute, and obtuse; their construction and their names to be made familiar.

2. Triangles; according to their angles,—right, acute, and obtuse; according to their sides,—all equal, two equal, all unequal; the figures, the kinds of sides and angles, to be drawn, known, and named.

3. Combinations of three, and of four straight lines, in various positions; two straight lined objects, as a kite, a star.

4. Dictation and memory exercises.

MUSIC.

1. Correct intonations in speech; proper position, and right management of voice, etc.

2. Distinction between long sounds and short sounds (as would be represented by half notes and quarter notes).

3. Intonation of first five sounds of the scale; numerous exercises in skips of two sounds or degrees, ascending and descending.

4. Three or four short rote songs within easy compass.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Oblong, round, three-sided; horizontal, vertical, oblique, parallel and perpendicular lines to be illustrated with strings, sticks, m on blackboards, etc.; square, sharp, blunt corners or angles. Attention pupils to be directed to resemblances and differences in these line forms.

2. COLOR.—Red, yellow, blue, green, orange, indigo, purple, as in vious section.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Parts, as head, face, neck, shoulders, arms, elbow, wrist, thumb, fingers, and knuckles. Pupils to point to and name the parts.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Personal habits.—Cleanliness of person and dress.

Conduct.—Obedience to parents and teachers; truthfulness.

Physical exercises.—1. Erect sitting position; movements of body right and left, backward and forward.

2. Erect standing position; movements of head and body right left, backward and forward.

3. Deep breathing through the nostrils; slow expulsion of the breath; singing; ventilation of room.

SECOND GRADE.—Time, 5 months.First Section.— $2\frac{1}{2}$ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic drill exercises; Second Book of any series, 48 pages

1. Pronunciation of words, and their analysis into elementary sounds.

2. Attention to new words, and explanation of reading lessons.

3. Repetition of short phrases and sentences from reading lessons, that the idea may give easy, natural tone and expression.

4. Oral spelling, with special attention to the long and the short sounds of vowels; phonic spelling of the simplest words; words written.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Correct expressions and answers at all times.

2. Description of objects and pictures, and reproduction of reading lessons correctly in the pupil's own language.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of preceding grade.

1. Counting to one hundred by one and two, and back.

2. Oral exercises in addition and subtraction, with the numbers one, two, three, four, five, and six; no sum or minuend to exceed sixteen.

3. Notation and numeration to 500.

4. Completion of the addition tables and of the subtraction tables; terms used in subtraction to be explained.

5. Written exercises with the figures 1 to 9; in addition, two and three columns, the sum of no column to exceed 25, with reasons for carrying; and in subtraction, numbers with three figures, without borrowing; no number or result to exceed five hundred.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil, which must be at least four inches in length.

2. Principles and height of i, u, w, n, m, x, and v; with frequent drill on the letters learned, separately and in words; other small letters by imitation.

DRAWING.—On slates by the pupils; occasionally on the blackboard.

1. Four-sided figures; according to their sides—square and rhombus, oblong and rhomboid; according to their angles,—square and oblong, rhombus and rhomboid; the figures, and the kinds of sides and angles, to be drawn, known and named.

2. Division of four sided figures by diameters and diagonals.

3. Simple arrangements of straight lines in squares and oblongs.

4. Outlines of two simple objects formed of straight lines, as a gate, a window sash; one simple arrangement of straight lines in a square by the pupils.

5. Dictation and memory exercises.

N. B.—No abstract descriptions or definitions to be required or memorized. The ruler to be used in constructing one figure each lesson.

MUSIC.

1. Proper position; right management of the vocal organs; correct intonation in speaking, reading, and singing.

2. Long and short sounds represented by half notes and quarter notes; with names of the notes; the corresponding rests.

3. The scale ascending and descending, using some verse with the proper number of words, or the numerals one, two, etc., six tones or degrees.

4. Numerous drills on skips of two sounds; three or four short rote-songs within easy compass.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review shapes of previous grade; add rhombus, rhomboid, cube; Pupils to be led to notice and point out resemblances and differences in the parts of forms; perpendicular and oblique lines and positions.

2. COLOR.—Light and dark reds, yellows, blues, greens, etc., to be pointed out; how orange, green, indigo, and purple are produced.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Parts of head and face, as crown, forehead, temple, eye-brows, cheeks, chin.

N. B.—Change the mode of presenting the subjects in review exercises.

*Second Section, —2½ Months.LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic drill exercises; and Second Book continued to page

1. Drill on pronunciation and analysis of words.
2. Repetition of phrases and sentences from reading lesson to insure naturalness of tone and inflection.
3. Oral spelling, with special attention to the sounds of the vowel phonic spelling of simple words; written spelling.
4. Constant attention to distinctness of utterance; to the position of body, etc.; and to the names of the punctuation marks as they occur.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Descriptions of objects and pictures, and reproduction of reading lesson in the pupil's own language.

2. Reading lessons copied, or written from dictation, with punctuation marks as placed or named.

NUMBER.

1. Counting to one hundred by one, two, and three, and back.
2. Oral exercises in addition and subtraction with the numbers one ten inclusive; no sum or minuend to exceed twenty.
3. Ones, tens, and hundreds explained; notation and numeration 1,000, inclusive.
4. Review the addition tables and the subtraction tables; drill exercises in addition and subtraction to produce similar terminal figures.
5. The terms used in addition and subtraction further explained by teacher, and learned by the pupil; the principles illustrated.
6. Written exercises with the figures 1 to 9, concrete and abstract numbers; in addition, three columns, the sum of no column to exceed 50; in subtraction, numbers with three figures, with borrowing; problems requiring but one step in reasoning; no number or result to exceed 1,000.

The coins of United States money not exceeding twenty-five cent value; and how to make change to that extent.

The inch, the foot, and the yard explained, and illustrated by the rule, by lines, and by distances.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil.

2. Review, and principles and height of o, a, e, and c; with frequent drill on the letters learned, separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters used in copying or writing words in spelling and reading lessons.

N. B.—No description of the formation or the analysis of any letter to be memorized.

DRAWING.—1. Division of lines into three, six, and eight equal parts.

Three forms of crosses,—the Greek, the Latin, the Maltese,—in the square and the oblong.

2. Simple arrangements of straight lines in the square and the oblong form repeating patterns.
3. Outlines of three simple objects, formed of straight lines,—a chair, a table, a house; two simple original arrangements of lines in the square and the oblong by the pupils.
4. Memory and dictation exercises.

MUSIC.

1. The scale ascending and descending, using words, numerals, or the syllables, do, re, etc.
2. Transfer of notes to lines; one line, two notes; two lines, four notes; three lines, six notes.
3. Numerous drills in the first five degrees placed on lines and spaces; skips of three sounds; two or three rote songs within easy compass.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review previous section; add circle, half-circle, quarter-circle; diagonal and diameter. The forms to be illustrated with pieces of paper, or other objects, and each shape pointed out in common objects.
2. COLOR.—Review colors of previous section by new methods of giving the lessons; the three primary colors, two shades and tints of each without naming them.
3. HUMAN BODY.—Parts of upper limbs, as shoulder, upper-arm, elbow, forearm, wrist, palm, knuckles, joints; lower limbs, as hip, thigh, knee, heel, ankle, instep, heel, ball of foot.
4. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Attention to be directed to the principal parts, shapes and the uses of objects, as chair, table, bell, slate, fork, door, hat, life, seen at home and at school.

MISCELLANEOUS.

- Personal habits.—Familiar talks about bathing; cleanliness of dwellings.
- Conduct.—Pure thoughts; chaste language; control of temper.
- Physical exercises.—1. Erect sitting position; movements of body and head.
2. Erect standing position, arms akimbo; movements of body, head and arms; marching.
 3. Breathing; inhale placing tips of fingers on the shoulders, and exhale striking forward and downward; singing; ventilation of room.

THIRD GRADE.—Time, 5 months.

First Section,—2½ Months.LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic drill exercises; and Second Book of a series different from that used in preceding grade, one-half.

1. Drill on pronunciation, analysis, and spelling.

2. Attention to new words; explanation of reading lessons.
3. Drill on phrases and sentences to fix the thought to be expressed, and to insure naturalness of tone and inflection.
4. The names of punctuation marks as they occur, and the use of period.

SPELLING.—Primary Speller, six hundred words.

1. Special attention to vowels, to long and short vowel sounds, and to accent.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling, daily.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Reading lessons copied, or written from dictation, with punctuation marks as placed or named.

2. Oral or written reproduction of reading lessons.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of preceding grades.

1. Counting to one hundred by one, two, three and four, and back.
2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers two, three; no product or dividend to exceed thirty.
3. Notation and numeration to 10,000, exclusive.
4. Construction of the multiplication tables to 5 times 10, or 10 times 5, and of the division tables to 5 in 50, or 10 in 50.
5. Terms used in multiplication explained; the principles illustrated.
6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction, with converse operations; reasons for borrowing; multiplication by one figure; no number result to contain more than four figures.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil, which should be at least four inches in length.

2. Review all letters one space in height; r and s; frequent dictation of letters learned, separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters in words from spelling and reading lessons, and each pupil to write his or her own name, with proper capitals.

DRAWING.—On slates by the pupils; occasionally on the blackboard.

1. Simple curves (in a simple curve the greatest height is over the middle of the straight-line base joining the ends of the curve); vary the position (horizontal, vertical, oblique) of the base, and the position of the curve.

2. Combinations of straight lines and curves, in the triangle and square.

3. Two simple original combinations of straight lines and curves, by each pupil.

4. Dictation and memory exercises.

N. B.—No abstract definitions or descriptions to be required or memorized. The ruler to be used in the construction of one figure each lesson.

MUSIC.

1. Music chart and review ; right management of vocal organs, etc.
2. The staff ; lines and spaces ; how numbered ; and how notes are placed ; degree ; interval.
3. Drill on the scale ascending and descending, using numerals and syllables ; on the first six notes placed on the staff ; intervals or skips from one upward to four, and from four downward.
4. Idea of measure developed ; the uses and the names of the barline and the double barline ; two or three rote songs, not above upper E.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. Position of objects ; as above, below, to the right or the left of any designated place.
2. Idea of the directions, east, west, north, and south ; and the position of objects in the school-room with reference to these points.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review subjects of the preceding grade ; add the terms, circumference, arc, pentagon, sphere.
2. COLOR.—Classify colors ; tell which are primary, with two shades and tints ; which are secondary.
3. QUALITIES.—By illustration and observation, as sweet, sour, salt, sticky, slippery.
4. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Continue lessons as in previous grades ; add animals and plants, as cat, dog, horse, cow, sheep, goat, hen, goose, canary bird ; trees and flowers. Direct attention to the most obvious parts, and to the general character of each.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Reading lessons copied or written from dictation, with punctuation marks as placed or named.

2. Oral and written reproduction of reading lessons, and short sentences descriptive of objects or pictures.

3. The meaning of words to be made plain by their use in familiar phrases or sentences; use of given words.

NUMBER.

1. Counting to one hundred by one, two, three, four, five, and six, and back.

2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers two, three, four, and five; no product or dividend to exceed fifty.

3. Thousands explained; notation and numeration to 100,000, exclusive of

4. The terms used in multiplication further explained by the teacher, as learned by the pupils; terms in division explained, the principles illustrated.

6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction, and reverse or converse operations; in multiplication by two or three figures; concrete and abstract numbers; problems requiring one or two steps in reasoning; no results to contain more than five figures.

The coins of United States money not exceeding fifty cents in value; and how to make change to that extent.

The mark for dollars; the ounce and the pound; the pint, the quart, and the gallon; illustrated by the appropriate weights and measures.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil.

2. Review, and principles and height of t, d, p, and q; frequent drill on letters separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters in words from spelling and reading lessons. Each pupil's name and residence, with proper capitals.

4. Copy Book No. 1, using the lead pencil.

N. B.—No description of the formation or the analysis of any letter to be memorized.

DRAWING.—On slates, and on sheets of practice paper.

1. Polygons, having six, and eight equal sides; arrangement of straight lines in them to form stars; figures, lines, and angles, to be drawn, known, and named.

2. Simple copies of curved-lined figures for enlargement or reduction.

3. Outlines of three simple objects formed of straight lines and curves, a cup, a vase, a pitcher; one simple original design composed of straight and curved lines.

4. Dictation and memory exercises.

MUSIC.

1. Drill on the scale, ascending and descending; the entire scale represented on the staff, G clef; intervals or skips from one upward to five, and from five downward.

2. The idea of expression developed (as would be represented by mezzo, forte and piano.)

3. Easy songs of proper compass by rote, and by note, at the discretion of the teacher, not above upper E.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. The names of four streets nearest the school-house, each side; the directions in which each runs; the direction of each from the school-room.

2. Idea of the directions north-east, south-east, north-west, and south-west, developed.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review previous section; add surface and face, plane and curved; hexagon and octagon.

2. COLOR.—Two or three shades and tints of the primary colors; the secondary colors, with one or two shades and tints of each.

3. HUMAN BODY.—The organs of sense,—the ears, the eyes, the nose, the tongue, the fingers; the general uses of each of these organs.

4. QUALITIES.—By illustration and observation, smooth, rough, brittle, tough, liquid, solid.

5. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Continue lessons as in previous sections, adding new objects seen going to and from school. At least six articles of clothing, by whom made, materials and tools used; clothing of six domestic animals and fowls.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Personal habits.—Familiar talks about eating and sleeping.

Conduct.—Proper treatment of others; respect for superiors; honesty.

Physical exercises.—1. Erect sitting and standing positions; movements of head, body, and arms.

2. Exercises in stooping and returning to erect position; marching.

3. Abdominal breathing without and with arms akimbo; singing and vocal exercises; ventilation of room.

FOURTH GRADE.—Time, 5 months.First Section,—2½ Months.*LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic drill exercises; and Third Book of any series, 60 pages.

1. Drill on pronunciation, analysis, and spelling.

2. Drill on phrases and sentences, with special attention to natural conversational tone and expression.

2. Oral and written reproduction of reading lessons, and short sentences descriptive of objects or pictures.

SPELLING.—Primary Speller; review, and five hundred additional words.

1. Attention to equivalent vowel sounds, and to the long and the short vowel marks, to accent and the accent mark.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily, and attention to the spelling of words in every lesson and exercise.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Lessons and exercises written from dictation, with punctuation marks as named.

2. Oral and written reproduction of lessons, and short sentences descriptive of objects or pictures.

3. The meaning of words explained by their use in familiar phrases and sentences.

NUMBER.

Review of preceding grades.

1. Counting to 100 by one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, and eight and back.

2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers one to seven, inclusive; no product or dividend to exceed seventy.

3. Orders of units reviewed; period and ones' period explained; ten-thousands; notation and numeration to 100,000, inclusive.

4. Completion of the multiplication tables and of the division tables; drill exercises.

5. The terms used in division further explained by the teacher, and learned by the pupil; the principles illustrated.

6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction; in multiplication by two figures, or two with a cipher at the right; division by one figure; problems requiring not more than two steps in reasoning; no result to contain more than five figures.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting, and of holding the pencil and the pen.

2. Review all letters less than three spaces in height; the loop principle, and l, b, h, and k; frequent drill on the letters separately and in words.

3. By imitation, other letters in words from spelling and reading lessons; each pupil's name, residence, and city, with proper capitals.

4. Copy Book No. 2 or 3, using the pen.

N. B.—No description of the formation or the analysis of any letter to be memorized.

DRAWING.—On slates and on practice paper.

1. Semicircle, by making height of simple curve equal one-half the base; quadrant, by dividing semicircle in the middle, or by drawing simple curve to join the outer ends of two equal lines, forming a right angle.

2. Circles, by reversing and repeating the semicircle, or by forming it on diameters of a square.
 3. All figures and parts to be drawn, known, and named.
 3. Combinations of straight lines and curves to form borders, and the outlines of such objects as wheels, dishes, bowls, and goblets; exercises for enlargement or reduction.
 4. One simple original design composed of curved and straight lines, by the pupil; memory and dictation exercises.
- N. B.—No abstract definitions or descriptions to be required or memorized. The ruler to be used in the construction of one figure each lesson.

MUSIC.

1. Music chart and review; right management of vocal organs, etc.
2. Frequent drill on the scale, and the scale represented on the staff: intervals of the second beginning with any degree of the scale.
3. Idea of time developed; beating time; measures with two beats; songs by rote and by note not above upper E.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. Diagram of school-room drawn.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Short sentences descriptive of objects and pictures to be written.

2. The meaning and the use of words explained; short sentences containing given words from Reader or Speller.

NUMBER.

1. Counting to 100 and back, by the numbers one to ten, inclusive.

2. Oral exercises in multiplication and division, with the numbers from one to ten inclusive; no product or dividend to exceed one hundred.

3. Hundred-thousands; ones' period and thousands' period explained; notation and numeration to 1,000,000, exclusive.

4. Review of the multiplication tables and the division tables; extended drill exercises.

5. The principles of multiplication and division further illustrated; terms used, explained by the teacher and learned by the pupil; processes explained.

6. Written exercises in addition and subtraction; in multiplication, figures, with ciphers in the multiplier at the right or between digits in long and short division by one and two figures to 50; concrete and abstract numbers; converse operations; problems requiring not more than two steps in reasoning; no result to contain more than six figures.

Coins of the United States money not exceeding one dollar in value; how to make change to that extent.

Second, minute, hour, day, and year explained; how to tell the time the clock; days of the week; months of the year, and the seasons; qupeck, and bushel explained; illustrations.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pencil and the pen.

2. Review, and the remaining small letters j, y, g, f, and z; with frequent drill on the letters separately and in words.

3. Each pupil's name, residence, school, and city, with proper capitals; other capitals needed in spelling and dictation exercises, by imitation.

4. Copy Book No. 2 or 3, using the pen.

DRAWING.—1. Simple reversed curves,—on straight-line bases.

2. Simple reversed curves combined with straight lines, to form vases and others.

3. Simple outlines, composed of curved and straight lines, from copies,—trefoil, a quatrefoil.

4. Two simple original designs of curved and straight lines to fill geometric forms, by the pupils; dictation and memory exercises.

N. B.—The ruler to be used occasionally in dictation, and always in sign; in other work, it should be used only to test distances or lines ready drawn.

MUSIC.

1. Idea of expression further developed; the marks mf, f, and p, explained and used; exercises on the scale.

2. Idea of time and measure further developed; measures with three and four beats; the scale by syllables; intervals or skips from one upward to six, and from six downward.

3. Review of names; uses and meanings of terms and marks used; songs rote and by note.

PLACE AND DIRECTION.

1. The location of some of the prominent places in the city.

2. Lessons on the city; its location; its age, population, and size; some occupations of the people; familiar talks about important events connected with it.

OBJECT LESSONS.

1. FORM.—Review previous section; add cone, pyramid, prism; exercises in comparative sizes; exact lengths from one inch to one yard.

2. COLOR.—Extend the exercises in matching and classifying, and in determining colors of ribbons, articles of dress, etc.

3. HUMAN BODY.—Familiar talks about the organs of sense, leading pupils to observe some facts learned through each; parts of the trunk.

4. QUALITIES.—By illustration and observation, pliable, natural, artificial, fragrant.

5. FAMILIAR OBJECTS.—Notice covering, food, head, eyes, ears, nose, feet, and feet of at least ten domestic animals and fowls.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Personal habits.—Avoidance of the use of tobacco, stimulating drinks, alcohol, etc.; good and bad habits.

Conduct.—Care of private and public property; obedience to law; industry; proper motives for right actions.

Physical exercises.—1. Movements of head and body; stepping forward, backward, to the right and to the left.

2. Chest development; fore-arm and shoulder movements; marching.

3. Abdominal and chest breathing with arms akimbo; singing and vocal exercises; ventilation of room.

GRADED COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

SECONDARY DEPARTMENT.

FIFTH GRADE.—Time, 5 months.

First Section,—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic chart; Third Book continued, two-thirds.

1. Position of vocal organs and body; drill on phrases and sentences to secure naturalness of expression.

2. Familiar talks about lesson before reading; punctuation marks as they occur, and their general uses.

SPELLING.—Second Speller of any series, eight hundred words.

1. Attention to silent vowels; to equivalent vowel sounds; to similar consonant sounds; to accent.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; a sentence or short extract copied or written from dictation daily; attention to spelling in every lesson and exercise.

3. Attention to the accent mark; to the marks indicating the long and the short vowel sounds; no other phonic notation to be required.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Oral and written reproduction of lessons; short sentences descriptive of objects and pictures.

2. The meaning and the use of words illustrated; short sentences containing given words from Reader.

3. The correction of common errors of speech; such as, ain't for am or are not; won't for will not; done for did; seen for saw.

NUMBER.

GENERAL REVIEW of important definitions, principles, operations.

1. Orders of units and periods; millions explained; notation and numeration to millions, inclusive; Roman notation to L.

2. ORAL OR MENTAL EXERCISES.—Addition and subtraction; multiplication and division; with converse operations; no number or result to exceed one hundred; no problem involving more than two operations.

3. WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Addition and subtraction; multiplication by four and five figures, with ciphers at the right and between digits; division by three figures; concrete and abstract numbers; converse operations; operations involving not more than two steps in reasoning; no number or result to exceed millions.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pen.

2. Review principles, height and slant of small letters, in Copy Book No. 3.

3. Capital O principle; formation and analysis of O and E; drill on letters separately and in words.

By imitation, other capital letters needed in written exercises (always according to the adopted system of penmanship).

DRAWING.—On practice paper, and in drawing book.

Review straight lines, angles, triangles, and quadrilaterals.

Simple straight-lined objects in the square and the oblong.

Dictation and memory exercises; one original design in the square and oblong.

B.—No abstract definitions or descriptions to be required; but all angles, and figures, to be known, and named, as required.

A ruler to be used occasionally in dictation, and always in design; in work, it should be used mainly to test distances or lines already drawn.

GEOGRAPHY.

Idea of scale developed; diagram of the schoolroom drawn to a scale; plan of school lot; and of a few streets showing the location of some important places in the city; points of the compass.

Definitions and illustrations of island; hill and mountain; plain and river; spring, creek, and river; pond and lake.

Idea of globe developed; of the shape of the earth; of surface and of surface of the earth; of continents and the ocean; of countries; of the uses of the globe and of maps.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day, divided between two lessons; under general direction of special music teacher.

Music charts and general review; attention to position, quality of tone, and time.

Whole, half, and quarter notes and rests; degrees and intervals; measures, and two-part and four part measures; beating time for notes and measures.

Exercises on the scale completed, and on the staff, with intervals or from 1 to 2, 1 to 3, etc., upward to 8; also, by syllables; three or four notes, no note above upper E, by note, and afterwards by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, etc.—Review forms; exercises on size, adding surface from a square to a square foot; matching colors.

QUALITIES.—By observation and illustration, pungent, astringent, porous, absorbent.

TRADES.—Farmer, miller, baker, butcher, shoemaker, tailor, seamstress, cooper, milliner; the most important materials and tools used and articles produced by each.

*Second Section, — 2½ Months.LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic exercises and chart; Third Book completed.

1. Accent, pronunciation, tones, inflections; drill on phrases and sentences.
2. Familiar talks about lesson before reading; punctuation marks as they occur, and their general uses; abbreviations.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to vowels and vowel sounds, and accent; to simple consonant sounds; to silent letters.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meaning of words illustrated; use of given words from Reader; short descriptions of objects, oral and written.

2. The correction of common errors, such as, his'n for his, etc.; gave for given; took for taken; have saw for have seen.

3. Objects and words; name-words, or nouns; action-words, or verbs; idea of sentence developed; numerous sentences containing nouns and verbs; nouns and verbs to be framed in sentences.

NUMBER.

1. Ten-millions explained; notation and numeration to ten-millions, inclusive; Roman numerals to C.

2. ORAL OR MENTAL ARITHMETIC.—Addition and subtraction, multiplication and division, with converse operations; no number or result to exceed two hundred; no problem involving more than three operations.

3. WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Addition and subtraction, multiplication, with ciphers at the right and between digits of the multiplier, division by four figures with ciphers; converse operations; concrete and abstract numbers; no number or result to exceed ten-millions; operations involving not more than three steps in reasoning.

TABLES.—Linear measures, inch, foot, yard, rod; liquid measures, gill, pint, quart, gallon; weight, ounce, pound, hundred-weight, ton. Drill on the tables learned, exercises, mental and written, in changing higher or to lower denominations, involving integers only.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Review; copy book No. 3; formation and analysis of O, E, C, and D; drill on letters separately and in words.

2. By imitation, other capitals needed in dictation and other writing exercises (according to system adopted).

N. B.—Abstract rules for the formation or the analysis of letters not to be memorized.

DRAWING.—1. Review simple geometric forms; the three forms of crosses and stars in hexagons and octagons.

2. Some straight-lined figures to form borders or repeating patterns.
3. Dictation and memory exercises, and in enlargement and reduction of copy ; an original design in each of two straight lined geometric forms.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. Rotation of the earth ; day and night ; the names of the seasons ; climate ; equator and poles ; five belts or zones on the earth's surface, with general climate of each.
2. Explanations and illustrations of sphere and hemisphere ; general position of the continents, the grand divisions, and the oceans, shown on the globe and on maps.
3. Definitions and illustrations of continent, peninsula, and cape ; gulf, ocean, sea, and bay ; isthmus and strait.

MUSIC.

1. Exercises on scale and staff, from lower C to upper E ; intervals or skips from 8 to 7, 8 to 6, etc., downward to 1 ; also by syllables
2. Eighth note and rest ; the dot, and the dotted whole, half, and quarter note ; beating time ; the tie ; the slur.
3. Terms and marks as they occur ; exercises embracing subjects learned ; three or four songs of proper compass, by note and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Review forms, and add ellipse ; exercises on size, adding square yard ; grouping and classifying colors learned.

QUALITIES.—Add combustible, inflammable, soluble, fusible.

HUMAN BODY.—Familiar talks, leading pupils to determine what they can learn from given objects through one or more of the organs of sense ; the teeth, and how to take care of them.

MATERIALS.—Hay, straw, wood, stone, brick, cotton, wool, silk, leather ; where and how obtained, and for what used.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Right and wrong ; politeness at home ; kindness to playmates ; proper treatment of dumb animals ; honesty.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting and standing properly, and in breathing ; singing and vocal exercises.
2. Chest development ; free gymnastics of the arms, etc., in accordance with the system of some accepted manual ; marching ; ventilation of room.

SIXTH GRADE.—Time, 5 months.First Session,—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic exercises and chart; Third Book of a series different from that used in the preceding grade, one-half.

1. Posture; pronunciation, tone, inflection, emphasis; drill on phrases and sentences.

2. Familiar talks about lesson before reading; marks and abbreviations as they occur.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to vowels; to vowel sounds and to accent; to simple consonant sounds; and to silent letters.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; a sentence or short extract copied or written from dictation daily, with marks as made or named; attention to spelling in every lesson and exercise.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. The meaning of words illustrated; short descriptions of objects, oral and written.

Review of preceding grade in grammar.

2. Correction of common errors, such as, this here, that there; have for has not; knowed for knew; didn't do nothing.

3. Declarative and interrogative sentences; initial capitals; the period and the question mark; numerous drill exercises.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Hundred millions, and millions' period explained; notation and numeration to hundred-millions, inclusive; Roman numerals to CL; notation and numeration of dollars and cents.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—1. Mental arithmetic always in connection with written arithmetic; the same principles, the same topics in both, taken at the same time.

2. Multiplication and division, with ciphers; practical and converse operations in the four fundamental rules; concrete and abstract numbers; no number or result to exceed hundred millions; problems involving not more than three steps in reasoning; addition and subtraction in dollars and cents; converse operations.

TABLES.—1. Counting, single things, dozen, gross; dry measures, pint, quart, peck, bushel; paper, sheet, quire, ream.

2. The uses of each; mental and written exercises in changing to higher and to lower denominations, involving only integers.

WRITING AND DRAWING

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pen. Writing chart.

Review; oval principle, with formation and analysis of X, Q, and V;

1. On letters separately in words, and in sentences; copy book No. 3.

By imitation (according to adopted system of penmanship), other letters needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—On practice paper and in drawing book.

1. Simple curves and the circle reviewed.

2. Outlines of objects with circular curves, as wheels, tops; curved-lined figures to form borders or repeating patterns.

3. The ellipse; the ellipse and the circle to be frequently contrasted; ellipses of various sizes and with varying proportions of diameters.

4. Dictation and memory exercises; one original design of straight lines and curves in a circle; enlargement and reduction exercises.

NOTE.—As an occasional exercise, pupils should be shown how to find the foci of an ellipse, and to draw this figure, using pins and a string.

N. B.—No abstract definitions or descriptions to be required or memorized; but the figures and their angles and outlines and parts to be known and named.

GEOGRAPHY.

GENERAL REVIEW of the preceding grades; the globe and outline maps.

1. Definitions and illustrations of sound and channel.

2. The zones of each grand division, with the general nature of the climate, productions, animals, and inhabitants of each zone.

3. North America.—General boundaries, with some idea of size.

Land Divisions.—British America, United States, Mexico; general boundaries of each, capital, general idea of size. Their mountain systems, and the largest plain of each; general nature of climate, productions, animals, and inhabitants of each.

Locate Greenland, Iceland, Newfoundland, and West Indies; Nova Scotia, Florida, and Alaska; Isthmus of Panama.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day, divided between two lessons; under general directions of special music teacher.

1. Music charts and review; attention to position, tone, tune, time, and expression.

2. Explain how the kind of measure is shown; double and quadruple measures; value of each note and rest in shorter notes and rests; beating measure.

3. Exercises on skips or intervals, scale and staff using syllables; exercises embracing subjects learned; three or four songs, proper compass, by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Review of forms; exercises on size, adding cubic inch and cubic foot; naming, grouping, classifying colors learned.

QUALITIES.—Exercises leading pupils to learn what qualities given objects possess; and which quality renders each most useful.

TRADES—Carpenter, mason, plasterer, painter, glazier, paper hanger, blacksmith, plumber, tinsmith, cooper; the most important materials and tools used and articles produced by each.

Second Section,—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING—Phonic exercises and chart; Third Book completed.

1. Posture; management of breath; tone, inflections, emphasis; drill on phrases and sentences.

2. Familiar talks about reading lessons; judicious criticism of pupils' styles of reading, by teacher and classmates.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to combined vowel and consonant sounds.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; short extracts copied or written from dictation daily, with marks as made or named; attention to spelling in all exercises.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meaning and use of words illustrated; short descriptions, oral and written.

2. Correction of common errors, such as them for those, set for sit, has ~~went~~ for has gone.

3. Quality-words, or adjectives, and articles; numerous examples and sentences; formation of sentences containing given kinds of words learned.

NUMBER.

REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Billions explained; notation and numeration to billions, inclusive; of dollars and cents; Roman numerals to CC.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topic in both taken in connection at the same time.

Multiplication and division, with converse operations; problems involving combinations under the fundamental rules; no result to exceed billions; problems requiring not more than four steps in reasoning; multiplication and division of dollars and cents; converse operations.

TABLES.—Square measures, square inch, square foot, square yard, square rod; cubic measures, cubic inch, cubic foot.

The uses of each; mental and written reductions under tables learned, involving only integers.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Review; oval principle continued, with formation and analysis of U, W, and Y; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences; copy book No. 3.

2. By imitation, other capital letters (according to adopted system) needed in written exercises.

N. B.—Abstract descriptions or rules for the formation or the analysis of any letter not to be memorized.

DRAWING.—1. The oval; the circle, the ellipse, and the oval to be frequently contrasted, that their essential features may be readily distinguished and described.

2. Diagrams of circular, elliptical and oval objects, as eggs, barrels, water-bottles.

3. Dictation and memory exercises; and in enlarging and reducing size of copies; one original design in a circle.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. When and by whom America was discovered; four important nations that made settlements in America; familiar talks about the Indians found here by the early settlers

2. The United States.—Its general boundaries and size; capital and and largest four other cities, with location.

Land Divisions.—Groups of states and territories; Capes Cod and Hatteras; three mountain systems, and their component ranges; the great central plain.

General nature of the surface, climate, productions, animals, inhabitants.

Water Divisions.—Oceans; Gulf of Mexico; Delaware Bay, Chesapeake, San Francisco; six rivers draining the Atlantic slope; three, the Gulf; and two, the Pacific

3. The New England States.—General boundaries; capital, largest sea-port and largest inland town of each, with location.

Land Divisions.—Cape Cod; mountain ranges and groups.

Water Divisions.—Penobscot Bay, Casco, Massachusetts; Long Island Sound; longest four rivers draining Atlantic slope.

Voyages between cities the location of which shall have been previously learned; general direction of states and important cities from each other.

MUSIC.

1. Scale extended from lower C to upper E; skips or intervals upward and downward by syllables and letters.

2. Parts of measures; difference between parts of measures and beats; three-part measures; beating time; tones or degrees named to be properly placed on the staff, G clef; first five sounds of the scale, when sounded, to be distinguished by pupils.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; reading music, that is, to know where note 1 is represented, and that if note 1 is on a line, then notes 1, 3, 5, 7 are on lines, and notes 2, 4, 6, 8 are in spaces, and vice versa; three or four new songs, proper compass, by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, etc.—Exercises on forms, and colors (previously learned) of objects.

HUMAN BODY.—Familiar talks about articles of food, the proper manner of eating and the proper hours for eating.

ANIMALS.—Movements of domestic animals, as walking, flying, wading, swimming, that pupils may tell what animals move in any way named; animals used as food, and what their flesh is called.

PLANTS.—A few familiar flowers; their color, general form, and uses; bark, branches, blossoms, fruit, uses of a few familiar fruit trees.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Politeness at school; prompt and cheerful obedience; care of books and borrowed property; respect for authority; punctuality.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting and standing properly; and breathing, singing and vocal exercises.

3. Chest development; free gymnastics in accordance with the system of some accepted manual; marching; ventilation of room.

SEVENTH GRADE.—Time, 5 Months.

First Section,—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic exercises and chart; Fourth Book of any series, one-third.

1. Posture; management of breath and voice; drill on tone, inflections, emphasis.

2. Judicious criticism of style by teacher and classmates; concert reading; two short pieces to be memorized and recited.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to simple and combined sounds; to pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; extracts copied or written from dictation, with marks as used or named; attention to spelling in all exercises.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. The meanings and the uses of fifty words selected from Reader; and of words generally.

Review of preceding grades in grammar.

2. Correction of common errors, such as, have saw for have seen; drawed for drew; clumb for climbed; it is me for it is I.

3. Adverbs; numerous drill exercises; formation of sentences containing given kinds of words learned; detection of kinds learned; short descriptions and narrations, written.

NUMBER.

GENERAL REVIEW of important terms, principles, operations.

1. Idea of fraction carefully developed; of proper fractions; analysis of the proper fraction; billions explained; notation and numeration to billions, inclusive; of dollars and cents; and of proper fractions; Roman numerals to CCC.

2. General principles of division carefully reviewed; all terms explained, and learned by pupils, as they are needed; principles and methods of factoring.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topic in both, at the same time; problems involving combinations under the four fundamental rules, with converse operations; no number or result to exceed billions; problems involving not more than four steps in reasoning; bills; factoring.

TABLES.—Time, second, minute, hour, day, week, month, year; cubic measures, cubic inch, cubic foot, cubic yard, cord; their uses, and easy reductions, mental, and written, involving only integers.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Manner of sitting and holding the pen.

2. Review; oval principle continued, Z; line of beauty, with formation and analysis of A, N, M; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences; copy book No. 4; writing chart.

3. By imitation, other capital letters (according to system adopted) needed in written exercises.

DRAWING.—On practice paper, and in drawing book.

1. Simple ornamental forms from copies and black-board, applying circular, elliptical, and oval curves.

2. Diagrams of simple objects using circular, elliptical, and oval curves reversed—as vases and pitchers.

3. Dictation and memory exercises; and for the enlargement and the reduction of copies; an original design combining different kinds of curved lines, in each of two straight-lined geometric forms.

N. B.—No abstract definitions or descriptions to be required or memorized; all forms and their parts to be known and named.

GEOGRAPHY.

REVIEW of preceding grades; the globe and outline maps.

1. The Revolution, when and why it happened, and when it ended. [redacted] the Declaration of Independence, with date, and general results.

2. The Middle Atlantic States.—General boundaries of each; the capital, the largest seaport and the largest inland city of each; largest two other cities of New York, and three of Pennsylvania, with location.

Land Divisions.—Long Island; Capes May and Henlopen; the mountain system, its component ranges and groups.

Water Divisions.—Long Island Sound; New York Bay, Delaware Bay; Lake Champlain, Erie, Ontario; Hudson River, Delaware, Susquehanna, Ohio, Genesee, St. Lawrence, and Niagara Falls and into what each drains.

3. The Southern Atlantic States.—General boundaries of each; capital, the largest seaport and largest inland town of each, with location.

Land Divisions.—Bahama Islands and Florida Reefs; Capes Hatteras, Fear, and Canaveral; the mountain system and its component ranges.

Water Divisions.—Chesapeake Bay, Pensacola; Pamlico Sound, Albemarle; Potomac River, James, Roanoke, Santee, Savannah, St. John, Charlotte, and into what each drains.

Voyages between cities the location of which shall have been previously learned; general direction of states and important cities from each other.

MUSIC.

Fifteen minutes each day, divided between two lessons; under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music chart, and general review; position, breathing, tone, time, expression.

2. Figures showing kinds of measure; double, triple, quadruple measure; beating time; writing notes from dictation and naming tones or degrees of the scale.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; intervals upward and downward as they occur, from lower C to upper E; three or four songs, proper comparison by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Forms and colors (previously learned) of objects, leaves, flowers; as aids to drawing.

BUILDINGS.—Dwelling-houses, stores, hotels, hospitals, factories, schools, prisons, light-houses; materials used in their construction; their general uses; some differences in style and arrangement.

ANIMALS.—A few wild animals—the deer, the buffalo; the tiger, the panther; the fox, the wolf; the swan; the dove; their general resemblance to different domestic animals; their habits of life, modes of capturing prey; elements in which they live, as on earth, in air, or in water.

*Second Section,—2½ Months.LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic exercises and chart; Fourth Book continued, two words.

1. Posture; management of voice and breathing; drill on pronunciation, e, inflections, emphasis.

2. Criticism of reading; correction of faults; concert reading; two pieces to be memorized and recited.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to combined and equivalent sounds; to pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral and written spelling daily; extracts copied or written in dictation, with marks as made or named: constant attention to spelling.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meanings and uses of one hundred words selected in Reader; and of words generally.

2. Correction of common errors, such as et for ate or eaten; lay for lie; se kind for that kind; between you and I.

3. Proper and common nouns; initial capitals in proper nouns and their abbreviations; numerous drill examples; formation of sentences containing nouns learned; detection of kinds of words learned; short descriptions and narrations, written.

NUMBER.

Improper fractions and mixed numbers explained and analyzed; notation and numeration of integers to ten-billions, inclusive; of dollars and cents, and of improper fractions and mixed numbers; Roman numerals to D. All important terms explained, and learned by pupils as they are used; principles and methods of finding greatest common divisor and common multiple.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—The same topics at the same time; operations under fundamental rules, with converse operations; greatest common divisor and least common multiple.

MEASURES.—Troy weights, grain, pennyweight, ounce, pound; circular measures, second, minute, degree, circumference; their uses, and easy reduction, mental and written, involving only integers.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—1. Review; line of beauty continued, with formation and position of S, L, T, and F; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences; copy book No. 4.

2. By imitation, other capital letters (according to adopted system) needed in written exercises.

3. DRAWING.—Abstract descriptions or rules for the formation or the analysis of letters, not to be memorized.

DRAWING.—1. Simple ornamental forms and diagrams of objects with curved outlines; as goblets, vases, pitchers.

2. Simple and reversed curves in combination with simple geometric figures. The unit of design and the axes of symmetry to be carefully taught.

3. Dictation and memory exercises; and in altering size of copies: original design in a triangle and in a hexagon.

GEOGRAPHY.

1. The Northern Central States.—States north of the Ohio, between Alleghany mountains and the Mississippi; general boundaries of each, capital, largest seaport and largest inland city of each, with location.

Water divisions.—Great Lakes and Lake St. Clair; Strait of Mackinac; Mississippi River, Ohio, Scioto, Wabash, Illinois, Wisconsin, and into what each drains.

2. The Southern Central States.—States south of the Ohio, between Alleghany Mountains and the Mississippi; general boundaries of each, capital, largest seaport and largest inland city of each, with location.

Land divisions.—The mountain system, with its component ranges.

Water divisions.—Mobile Bay; Great Kanawha River, Kentucky, Cumberland, Tennessee, Yazoo, and Mobile, and into what each drains.

Voyages and short journeys between cities the location of which have been previously learned.

MUSIC

1. Exercises on scale and staff from lower C to upper E; values of different notes in shorter notes; exercises in dictation, and in naming degrees and tones of the scale.

2. Reading music; that is, to know that note 8 is note 1 of a similar scale above, and that note 1 is note 8 of a similar scale below, and to keep these two degrees or tones in mind.

3. Terms and marks as they occur; exercises in singing tones that accord with 1, 3, 5, 8, or any two or three of them; three or four songs, proper composition by notes and by words.

OBJECT LESSONS.

FORM, ETC.—Forms and colors (previously learned) of objects, leaves, flowers; as aids to drawing.

HUMAN BODY.—Names and general uses of some of the principal bones, as skull, jaw, shoulder-blade, collar-bone, ribs, spinal column.

TRADES.—Those who construct dwellings, make furniture, carpets, utensils, clothing, and supply food; name of trade and production; materials and tools used by each, and modes of preparation.

PLANTS.—A few plants; their roots, stems, branches, leaves, flowers, seeds. Some vegetables, seeds, grains, and fruits used as food. Six shade and forest trees: and some woods used in the trades.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HABITS AND CONDUCT.—Politeness in the street; regard for the convenience and rights of others; care of school property; perseverance.

PHYSICAL EXERCISES.—Every hour, three or four minutes.

1. Exercises in sitting, standing, and breathing; singing and vocal exercises.

2. Chest development; systematic free gymnastics; marching; ventilation of room.

EIGHTH GRADE.—Time, 5 months.

First Section,—2½ Months.

LANGUAGE.

READING.—Phonic exercises and chart; Fourth Book of a series different from that used in the preceding grade, one-half.

1. Posture; management of the breath and vocal organs; drill on pronunciation, tone, inflections, emphasis.

2. Criticism of reading, and correction of faults by teacher and classmates; concert reading; two pieces to be learned and recited.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to combined and equivalent sounds; and to pronunciation.

2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; extracts copied, or written from dictation, with marks to be placed as made or named; constant attention to spelling.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meanings and uses of one hundred words from Reader; and of words generally.

Review of preceding grades in grammar.

2. Correction of common errors, such as lay for lie; laid for lay; John and James was: I've got to go; I can't hardly tell.

1. Posture; proper management of the breath and the vocal organs; tone, inflections, emphasis.
2. Criticism of reading and correction of faults; concert reading; two pieces to be memorized for class and individual recitation.

SPELLING.—Review, and four hundred words additional.

1. Attention to silent letters; to combined and equivalent sounds; to marks indicating accent and pronunciation.
2. Phonic, oral, and written spelling daily; extracts from dictation, with marks to be placed as made or named; constant attention to spelling.

LANGUAGE LESSONS.—1. Meanings and uses of one hundred words from Reader, and of words generally.

2. Correction of common errors, such as the misuse of singular verbs with plural nouns, or with two or more singular nouns (the general rule, and applicable only to the verbs to have and to be).

3. The possessive form; the possessive singular and the possessive (regular) plural of nouns; numerous drill examples; formation of sentences containing subjects learned; naming kinds of words learned; short descriptions and narrations; how to make out a plain bill and a simple receipt.

NUMBER.

1. Notation and numeration of integers; billions' period; principles of combining Roman numerals; notation, numeration, analysis, and general principles of fractions.

2. Necessary terms; principles and methods thoroughly explained and carefully learned by pupils.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—General review; the same topics in both, at the same time; dissimilar to similar fractions, or fractions to the least common denominator; addition and subtraction of fractions (no numerator or denominator in any fraction or result to exceed three figures).

TABLES.—Review preceding grades, and add mile, degree; square chain, acre; leap year, solar year; their uses, and easy reductions, mental and written, involving only integral quotients and products.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Review; formation and analysis of G, P, B, and R, completing capital letters; drill on letters separately, in words, and in sentences; copy book No. 5

N. B.—Abstract descriptions, or rules for the formation or the analysis of letters not to be memorized.

DRAWING.—1. The equable spiral; to be applied in simple ornamental forms.

2. Continued practice in ornamental forms and borders, requiring compound curves, and in more difficult forms of vases, pitchers and jars of varied proportions; two original designs in geometric forms.

3. Dictation and memory exercises; and in altering size of copies.

GEOGRAPHY.

General review; the use of the globe and outline maps.

1. The Western Territories—The general location of each.

Land Divisions.—The two mountain systems, and their component ranges; Fremont's Peak; gold and silver regions.

MATHEMATICS.

GENERAL REVIEW of important terms, principles, and methods.

MENTAL AND WRITTEN ARITHMETIC.—Continued applications of percentage in partial payments, taxes, duties or customs, exchange, average of payments ; partnership, analysis, metric system, business calculations.

GEOMETRY AND MENSURATION.—Terms and definitions; plane geometry; study of lines, angles, triangles, quadrilaterals; proportion, and proportion applied to plane figures.

Terms and definitions in mensuration; problems to find solidity, surface, and the several dimensions of the rectangular solids, the pyramid, the sphere, and the cone; general principles of geometry involved, and construction of necessary figures.

ALGEBRA.—Terms, definitions, and principles; simple equations involving two or more unknown quantities of first degree, quadratics, proportions and progressions, involution, evolution, surds.

WRITING AND DRAWING.

WRITING.—Charts; formation and analysis of letters; copy book.

BOOK KEEPING and business forms, etc.

DRAWING.—1. Plane geometric drawing with instruments continued; simple applications of geometrical problems in construction and decoration, using for design simple conventional details of plant forms; two original designs.

2. Historic ornament; rectangular and cylindrical solid objects from copies; dictation and memory exercises.

GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.—1. The earth as a globe,—its form and dimensions,—the (probable) condition of its interior,—its surface (as land, water, and atmosphere).

2. The earth as a planet,—Form; rotation and its effects; revolution and its effects (theory of seasons); imaginary circles; maps and map projections.

3. The natural divisions of the earth,—(a) Land, including continents, islands, peninsulas, capes, mountains, table lands, plains; (b) Water, including oceans, seas, gulfs or bays, straits, lakes, and rivers.

4. Land.—The structure of the land; the interior and the crust of the earth; general idea of minerals, rocks (with classes of rocks), and fossils in the earth's crust; general geological history of the earth's crust; some changes now in progress; volcanoes and earthquakes (brief theory and distribution.)

Relief forms,—(a) of the earth, mountains, table lands or plateaus, plains, steppes, prairies; (b) of each grand division, North America, South America, Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia; (c) of the United States.

Islands,—(a) continental, with theory of origin, and principal chains; (b) oceanic, including volcanic islands and coral islands (with their classes); their distribution.

5. Water.—The geographical distribution of the ocean with its great subdivisions; lakes; drainage, (continental or steppe and oceanic), with examples.

Ocean movements,—waves; tides, some theory of their cause or origin; currents, some theory of their origin, and their uses.

6. Atmosphere.—The constituent parts, temperature, evaporation, winds, with some theory of their origin, of constant winds, trade winds, land and sea breezes.

7. Climate.—Modifying causes; isothermal and snow lines; climatic zones; vegetation (very brief) showing productions of different climates and how these productions affect human industries; animals (very brief), showing characteristics of different zones and continents; man (very brief), showing different races, their proportion, leading characteristics and distribution.

GENERAL HISTORY—1. History of nations of remote antiquity as reading lessons; attention to history of Babylon, Assyria, Egypt, Persia.

Greece.—History of Greece as reading lessons; attention to Argonautic Expedition, Trojan War, wars with minor nations; laws of Lycurgus, Draco, Solon; the Persian invasions, Peloponnesian Wars, Sacred War, Macedonian Empire established, career of Alexander the Great, Achæan League, surrender of Corinth.

2. Rome.—History of Rome as reading lessons; attention to the founding of Rome, the Kingdom of Rome, government by consuls, by tribunes, and decemvirs, plebeian and patrician contests, wars with surrounding nations; the Punic Wars, the three triumvirates, wars with neighboring states, the civil wars between Marius and Sylla, Cæsar and Pompey, Octavius and Anthony, the Republic and the Empire established, separation into Eastern and Western Empire, fall of Western Empire, (476), and conquest of Eastern Empire, (1453).

3. The Dark Ages, the Feudal System, the Crusades, and Central and Southern Europe during the Middle Ages, as reading lessons.

4. Rome.—The cause and the result of the conquest of the Eastern Roman Empire, with date.

5. Germany.—The Hanseatic League, the Reformation, the Thirty Years' War, the Seven Years' War, Napoleon's Wars, war with Austria (1866), and war with France (1870), with dates.

Russia.—The reign of Frederick the Great, Napoleon's Wars, the partitions of Poland, and the Empire of Germany (1866), with dates.

Austria.—Rudolph I (Hapsburg), the partitions of Poland, a separate empire (1806), Napoleon's Wars, and wars with Prussia and Italy, with dates.

Russia.—Peter the Great, Catharine II, the partitions of Poland, Napoleon's Wars, and the Crimean War, with dates.

Other important events, history of contemporaneous nations, and history of America not connected with history of the United States, to be read.

CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.—1 Attention to distribution of powers of government among the three departments; the nature of the duties of each department; the qualifications of members of each, the manner of their election or appointment, their terms of service, their privileges, duties, and powers; with text of the Constitution relating thereto.

MUSIC.

Under general direction of special music teacher.

1. Music charts and manual; explanations of motive, phrase, and period; movement; accentuation; rhythmical reading of music.

2. The diatonic minor scale, the natural minor scale, the formation of minor diatonic scales, their key notes and their signatures.

3. Further exercises in vocal training; registers or compass of the voice; reading music, naming degrees, and writing notes that indicate tones or degrees sounded; two part and three-part exercises by note and by word embracing subjects learned.

OBJECT LESSONS AND ORAL INSTRUCTION.

ANATOMY, PHYSIOLOGY, AND HYGIENE.—Mainly by charts and lecture.

1. Bones.—Their form, composition, and uses; joints, how formed, and their uses; spinal column, its formation and peculiarities; teeth, their structure and preservation; broken bones, and how repaired.

2. Muscles and tendons.—their formation and their uses; how attached; their contraction and expansion; voluntary and involuntary muscular motion; effects of exercise, of rest; general hygiene.

3. Digestive apparatus.—the uses of the teeth; the salivary glands, their position, and uses; mastication; the gullet; the stomach, its position, structure and functions; gastric digestion; brief notice of duodenum, intestines, intestinal digestion, and lacteals; the importance of the liver; effects of chewing too little, of eating too often, too much, or irregularly; dyspepsia; general hygiene; common poisons and their antidotes.

4. Circulatory apparatus.—the general relations of the heart, arteries, capillaries, and veins; passage of blood through the heart, arteries, lungs, veins; the pulse, and the rate of pulsation; close connection between the digestive and the circulatory apparatus; quantity of blood in the system; effect of exercise and fresh air on blood and on circulation, of tight garments, of scanty clothing, and of insufficient or improper food; wounds or cut arteries, and what to do; general hygiene.

5. Respiratory apparatus.—the lungs, air cells, wind-pipe, nostrils; the ribs, the diaphragm, their muscles, and their functions; mechanical processes of respiration; the air we breathe; changes in the air from respiration, changes in the blood—arterial and venous blood; close relation between capillaries and air-vessels; the capacity of the lungs; effect of tight lacing, of improper position, of impure air, of ventilation; drowning or suffocation, and what to do; the vocal organs, and their functions; general hygiene.

6. The skin,—its structure and uses; perspiration and absorption; effect of respiration; close sympathy of skin with digestive and respiratory organs; bathing, of proper clothing; scalds and burns, and how to treat them; general hygiene.

7. The nervous system,—general nature of the brain and nerves; special uses, touch, taste, smell, the eye (its structure and functions), the ear (its structure and functions); general hygiene.

NATURAL PHILOSOPHY.—For pupils in Senior Department for Boys.

1. Matter and its general and specific properties, with examples and illustrations.

2. Attraction; (a) cohesion,—solids, liquids, gases; (b) gravitation,—weight, pressure of water, pressure of atmosphere, (balances, air-pump, pump, barometer); (c) capillary,—ascent of liquids in tubes (sponge, blotting-paper, lamp-wick, sap in vegetation).

3. Motion; inertia, force, resistance, action and reaction, centrifugal and centripetal force; with examples and illustrations.

4. Mechanical powers; weight, power, fulcrum; (a) the lever and its three kinds (crow-bar, pump-handle, balance, scissors, nut-cracker, wheelbarrow, bars, door, tongs, ladder, muscles of the arm and leg); (b) the wheel and axle (windlass, capstan, watch fusee); (c) the pulley and movable pulleys; (d) the incline plane, rolling barrels into a wagon, lowering boxes into a cellar; (e) the wedge; and (f) the screw; general principles and laws; applications in machinery.

5. Heat; (a) sources (sun, combustion, friction); (b) expansion and contraction of matter (solids, liquids, gases, thermometer); (c) change of form (solids into liquids, liquids into gases); (d) conduction and radiation (conductors, non-conductors, rays of sun, stoves, clothing); applications (ventilation, wind, evaporation, fog, dew, frost, clouds, rain, hail, snow, ice).

6. Light; (a) sources (heavenly bodies, combustion, friction); (b) refraction (glass or prism, water, air, the eye); (c) reflection (looking-glass, water); (d) necessary to growth and health of plants and animals.

7. General principles of vibrations and their applications in sound (the organs of hearing) and of electricity.

BY-LAWS.

I.

Officers.

The officers of this Board shall be a President, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, First Clerk, Second Clerk, Third Clerk, and a Messenger, to be elected annually at the organization of the Board.

II.

President.

He shall preside at all meetings of the Board; determine questions of order without debate, subject to appeal to the Board; name all committees except when otherwise ordered by the Board; be ex-officio, member of all Standing Committees; sign all warrants and instruments under seal of the Board; sign all orders and reports directed by the Board; inspect the Minutes of the Secretary, and call Special Meetings of the Board when requested, in writing, by three members, or when such meeting shall, in his opinion, be necessary.

III.

Secretary.

He shall keep accurate Minutes of the proceedings of the Board in a book provided for that purpose, and shall, when requested, act as Secretary of all Standing Committees; attest all warrants and instruments under seal of the Board; preserve all books and papers placed under his care; notify, in writing, the members of the Board of all meetings thereof, and the members of all Committees of their appointment. He shall furnish the Chairman with a copy of the resolution appointing each Committee, and notify, in writing, the members of all meetings thereof. In case of sickness or absence of the President, he shall, at the request of three members, call Special Meetings of the Board. He shall have the care and custody of all supplies which may be ordered by the Committee on Supplies, and delivered to the Board. It shall be his duty, from time to time, whenever supplies are needed, to report the fact to the Committee, and procure them on their order, from those persons having contracts under the authority of the Board. He shall also keep all accounts of the Board, and hold the same subject to the inspection of any member thereof.

IV.

Assistant Secretary and Clerks.

They shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by the Secretary.

V.

Messenger.

He shall perform the duties belonging to the office of Messenger, and act as Janitor in the rooms of the Board; he shall aid the Secretary in the reception and distribution of supplies, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the Secretary.

VI.

Stated Meetings.

SECTION 1. The Stated Meetings of the Board shall be held on the second Tuesday of each month, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Special Meetings.

SECTION 2. When Special Meetings are called, the nature of the business to be transacted shall be stated in the call and notices for said meeting, and no other business than that for which the meeting was called, shall be transacted at said meeting, except by unanimous consent.

Quorum.

SECTION 3. Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, pursuant to the following Act of Assembly, passed February 15, 1832:

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To an Act entitled "An Act to provide for education," etc.

SECTION 1. That five members of the Controllers of Public Schools for the City and County of Philadelphia shall constitute a quorum for the making of orders for the payment of money, and the transaction of business generally, with this exception: that no order for the payment of money shall be made at any Special Meeting of the Board unless a majority of the whole number be present.

VII.

Order of Business.

At the hour appointed the President (or in case of his absence a member of the Board chosen President pro tem.) shall take the chair, and direct the roll to be called. If any member shall afterwards appear, his name shall be noted. The business shall proceed as follows, viz.:

- I. Admission of new members.
- II. The reading of the minutes.
- III. The reading of communications.
- IV. Reports of standing committees.
- V. Reports of select committees.
- VI. Unfinished business.
- VII. New business.

VIII.

Committees.

The President shall appoint, at the first stated meeting in January, of each year, Standing Committees, as follows: each consisting of five members, except the following: Committees on Estimates, Night Schools, Central High School and Girls

Normal School, which shall each consist of nine; and the Committees on By-Laws and Rules, Property, Text Books, Legislation and University of Pennsylvania, which shall each consist of seven. One of each Committee, respectively, or the Secretary of the Board, shall act as Secretary of said Committees.

1. Accounts.
2. Central High School.
3. Girls' Normal School.
4. Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools.
5. Reports of Schools.
6. Night Schools.
7. Property.
8. Supplies.
9. Text Books.
10. Qualification of Teachers.
11. Revision of Studies.
12. Office and Expenses.
13. Estimates.
14. By-Laws and Rules.
15. Music.
16. Legislation.
17. University of Pennsylvania.
18. Industrial Art Education.
19. Audits.

IX.

Duties of the Committee on Accounts.

They shall examine and report all bills and accounts, when properly attested, from the Committees of this Board and of the Sectional Boards. No bill of any Sectional Board shall be sanctioned unless the same shall have been approved by the said Sectional Board, at a stated or special meeting thereof, and be in accordance with the rules of this Board.

X.

Duties of Committee on Supplies.

I. They shall annually, in the month of October, cause to be inserted, in five daily papers of this City, an advertisement asking proposals for furnishing all necessary books and stationery, by sample, for the ensuing year. And the said advertisement shall contain notice that any article furnished this Board, not in accordance with the sample, as named below, will be rejected. One month prior to making such advertisement for proposals for the supply of pens, pen-holders, ink, ink-wells and stands, slates (other than silicate), slate and soap-stone pencils, lead pencils, rubbers, chalk, paper, and plain copy books, they shall select suitable samples of said articles of stationery, which samples shall be exhibited, at the office of the Board, to intending bidders, and the advertisement herein directed to be made shall invite proposals for furnishing the said articles, in accordance with such samples.

II. Said proposals for supplies shall be directed to and opened by the President, in the presence of the Board, at the Stated Meeting in December, and the contracts therefore shall be awarded to the lowest bidders. Provided, however, That no contract shall be awarded to the publishers of the books or manufacturers of the stationery (excepting the manufacturers of such articles of stationery as are specified in the next preceding section), for the supply of which, proposals have been invited as aforesaid, unless such proposals be accompanied by the affidavit of the bidder, made before the Mayor of any city or a Judge of any Court of Record, to the fact that the price at which the books or stationery are proposed to be supplied is not greater than that charged buyers of like quantities on a credit of sixty days. And provided further, That this section shall not be construed to require the Board to reject a bid unaccompanied by an affidavit.

III. All persons sending proposals to furnish the schools this District with supplies of any kind, at a given price, shall accompany the same with a bond, executed by at least two persons, in such amount as may be deemed sufficient by the Committee on Supplies of this Board, conditioned for the faithful performance of any contract which shall be awarded to them pursuant to said proposals; and said bond shall accompany and be filed with the contract so awarded.

IV. They shall annually, in the month of May, cause to be inserted in five daily papers of this City an advertisement asking proposals for the furnishing of the necessary fuel. And such advertisement shall contain the following condition, which shall be inserted in every contract for the delivery of the coal, viz.: "Each ton of said coal shall be weighed at the place of delivery, in the presence of a proper person to be appointed by the Committee on Supplies, who shall keep an accurate account of each load of coal delivered, and of its exact weight as ascertained by correct scales. And no bill shall be approved for such coal unless an affidavit of the weigher shall accompany such bill, setting forth by what contractor the coal was delivered, the date of delivery of each load, the number of tons and the quality of coal delivered, and whether weighed at place of delivery." Printed forms of said affidavit to be furnished by the Committee on Supplies.

V. They shall, annually, in the month of October, cause to be inserted, in five of the daily papers of this City, an advertisement asking proposals for printing all matter needed by the Board (accompanied with samples of paper and printing), for the ensuing year. Said proposals shall be directed to the Chairman of the Committee on Supplies, and opened by him in the presence of the Board, at the Stated Meeting in December, and the contracts therefor shall be awarded to the lowest bidder.

VI. They shall hold monthly meetings, and preserve regular minutes of all their proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, and make a report, in writing, at the stated meetings of the Board, in April, June, October, and December, of the amount of supplies on hand, particularizing the supplies under the heads of books, charts, copy-books, blank-books, and stationery; the Committee shall also report the amount, at the date of said report, of the balance due the Board on the item of appropriation for "Books and Stationery."

VII. It shall be the duty of the Committee, at the commencement of each year, to apportion to each Section their proportion of the appropriation for books and stationery for the current year, the said apportionment to be based upon the number of pupils in the respective Sections. No Section shall be permitted to receive supplies beyond the amount so apportioned.

XI.

Duties of the Committee on Text-books.

I. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Text-books to consider applications referred to them by the Board, to introduce any new text-book or publication, or any revised or amended edition of one already in use. The said Committee shall examine the same thoroughly, and shall make a written report to the Board, setting forth the reasons for or against the introduction of the same. Provided, In no case shall the Committee make a report upon any book or publication, unless each member of the Board shall have been furnished with a copy thereof (accompanied with a statement of the price at which the book will be supplied to the Board), for examination, at least two months previously to the time herein fixed for making said report.

II. The Board of Public Education shall in no case direct the introduction of any such book or publication until the next stated meeting after the presentation of the report thereon. No such book or publication shall be furnished for the use of the schools until at least one year after adoption.

III. The Committee shall not allow any book or other publication to be introduced into or used in any school of the district unless the same shall have been first approved by this Board; nor shall any new or revised edition of any book in use be introduced without the like approval.

IV. They shall, before recommending the introduction of any new book, or recommending a change in any book or series of books, determine whether such recommendation is in accordance with the Act of Assembly which forbids "any change to be made in the school books, or series of text books, used in any school, more than once in every period of three years."

V. Not more than two text-books on one study will be allowed in the schools at the same time. In all cases where the full number of text-books is in use, one of such books shall be retired from the list before the introduction of another on the same subject.

VI. They shall also report to the Board, books or other publications not proper to be retained.

XII.

Duties of the Committee on Property.

I. They shall have the supervision of the erection of all school-houses, and also of all repairs, improvements, and alterations exceeding the sum of $150.

II. They shall, before commencing operation upon any contract for the erection of a new school-house, or alterations or additions to those in the occupancy of the Board, require the contractor to give good and sufficient security for the faithful performance of his contract, to be approved by them. The Committee may waive security in cases where the contract does not exceed five hundred dollars.

III. When a new school is to be opened or the location of a school to be changed, whereby an additional building is needed, the Committee on Property shall first approve of the rent required for the same.

IV. They shall, from time to time, inspect the real estate under the control of the Board, and report the condition of the same; they shall have all buildings and other property insured in such amounts as they may deem necessary.

V. The Committee shall make a report in writing to the Board at every stated meeting, of all its transactions, in which report it shall set forth, in detail, all the contracts which it has made during the current month for work and materials, the nature of the work to be done, and where, the kind of material contracted for, and where to be furnished, the contract price, the item or items of the appropriation from which the contractor or contractors are to be paid, and the name or names of the contractor or contractors.

The Committee shall keep a full record of all its transactions, which shall be kept in the office of the Board, and shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the members of the Board.

XIII.

Duties of the Committee on Central High School.

I. They shall visit the school semi-monthly, keep regular minutes of their proceedings, and report annually the state of the school. In case of any vacancy in the Faculty, they shall recommend to the Board a suitable person or persons to fill the same.

II. They shall recommend to the Board the conferring of the *degree of Bachelor of Arts upon all who shall meritoriously have completed the four years' course; and the degree of Master of Arts upon such graduates of not less than five years' standing as shall, by their general merit, be entitled to that distinction.

* Under Act of Assembly.

XIV.

Duties of the Committee on Girls' Normal School.

I. They shall visit the school semi-monthly, keep regular minutes of their proceedings, report annually the state of the school, and in case of any vacancy in the Faculty, shall recommend a suitable person or persons to the Board to fill the same.

II. They shall have prepared a diploma, to be given to such of the pupils as shall, upon examination, be deemed worthy of the same.

XV.

Duties of the Committee on Grammar, Secondary and Primary Schools.

I. All applications for the establishment of new schools, or the removal of those already established, or for the formation of a new division, or for the change of grade of any school, shall be referred to this Committee, whose duty it shall be to report upon the same at the next Stated Meeting of the Board.

II. All applications for change in the salary of any teacher or housekeeper, shall be referred to this Committee, who shall report upon the same at the next Stated Meeting of the Board.

XVI.

Duties of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers.

I. They shall hold biennial examination of such persons (excepting applicants for the position of music teachers) as may apply for Certificates of Qualification to teach in the public schools of the First School District of Pennsylvania, and said examinations shall be held on the second Tuesday, and following Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of April. The first examination shall be held in the month of April, 1879.

II. The Committee may require the assistance of such members of the Faculties of the Boys' Central High School and the Girls' Normal School, and of such Principals of Grammar Schools for boys, as they may deem necessary to conduct such examinations.

When the results of any examination, which shall have been held under the provisions of this By-law, shall be ascertained, they shall be reported by the Committee at the next Stated Meeting of the Board. Said report shall give the names of the successful persons, the particular average obtained by each in each branch of study, and his or her general average and position on the list.

The Committee shall cause such rules to be made as shall secure, at all times, the utmost fairness and impartiality in the examination.

III. The Committee shall award two grades of certificates denominated respectively Principal's Certificate and Assistant's Certificate, to such persons as may, upon examination, be found qualified to receive the same.

IV. All applicants shall be examined on one set of questions, which shall be such as may be answered from the text-books in use in the Girls' Normal School.

V. A Principal's Certificate shall be awarded to such persons, not less than 17 years of age, as shall, upon examination, obtain a general average scholarship of not less than 75 in the following subjects :

READING,
SPELLING,
GRAMMAR AND PARSING, COMPOSITION,
PENMANSHIP,
GEOGRAPHY,
GENERAL HISTORY AND CONSTITUTION, U. S., ARITHMETIC,
ALGEBRA THROUGH QUADRATICS, MENSURATION,

GEOMETRY,
ENGLISH LITERATURE, RHETORIC,
LOGIC,
THEORY OF MUSIC,
LINEAR DRAWING.

VI. An Assistant's Certificate shall be awarded to such persons, not less than 17 years of age, as shall, upon examination, obtain a general average of not less than 60 in the subjects above named.

VII. In marking results 100 shall be regarded as the maximum value of each subject, and no certificate shall issue unless the person examined, shall have obtained an average scholarship of at least 60 in each of the following branches, namely: Spelling, Definitions, and Arithmetic.

VIII. No applicant shall be examined who shall not have attained the age of 17 years.

No pupil of the public schools shall be examined who shall not have been a pupil of the Girls' Normal School or the Boys' Central High School for at least two years.

IX. No pupil of the Girls' Normal School, or the Boys' Central High School, shall be examined, unless the name of said pupil appears upon a list of "applicants for examination," certified by the Principal of the school from which said pupil has been sent, and deposited with the Secretary of this Board, at least three days prior to the examination. Applicants who are not pupils of the public schools named shall also be required to register their names with the Secretary of this Board three days prior to the examination.

X. The holder of a Principal's Certificate shall be immediately eligible to any position in the public schools of this district, excepting that of Principal; and after one year's experience in teaching in the public schools shall be eligible to the principalship of a Primary School, after two years' experience to the principalship of a Secondary School, and after three years' experience to the principalship of a Grammar School; Provided, however, That the holder of such certificate shall not be eligible to the principalship of any school, unless he or she shall be at least twenty years of age.

XI. The holder of an Assistant's Certificate shall be immediately eligible to an assistantship in any of the public schools, and after three years' experience in teaching in the public schools shall be eligible to the principalship of a Secondary or Primary School.

XII. To render a person eligible to the position of Principal of a Consolidated School of four or more divisions, such person must be the holder of a Principal's Certificate, and must have had three years' experience in teaching in the public schools of this district. The holder of an Assistant's Certificate shall be eligible to the position of Principal of a Consolidated School of less than four divisions.

XIII. The holder of a first grade certificate, issued by authority of this Board, prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange such certificate for a Principal's Certificate, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby.

XIV. The holder of a second grade certificate, issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange such certificate for an Assistant's Certificate, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby.

The holders of second, third, and fourth class certificates, who attained averages of 75 and upwards, at examinations held prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be entitled to exchange their certificates for Principal's Certificates, with such privileges and rights as are conferred thereby. Provided, Said applicants were examined in all the branches of study upon which the applicants for first class certificates were examined.

XV. The holder of a third or fourth grade certificate, issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law, shall be eligible to any position in a Primary or Secondary School, excepting that of Principal; and, after three years' experience in teaching in the public schools, shall be eligible to the principalship of a Primary or Secondary School, or to an assistantship in a Grammar School.

XVI. Principals of Grammar Schools who were regularly examined prior to 1865, and who are now teaching, shall be entitled to a Principal's Certificate.

XVII. No person shall be elected to the position of teacher in any of the public schools of this District, or be employed as a substitute therein, unless he or she shall have received a Certificate of Qualification, duly issued, by the authority of this Board, after his or her examination. Provided, That this rule shall not apply to teachers who were duly elected prior to the passage of the Act of Assembly, approved February 17, 1865, relative to the examination of teachers in the First School District, and who were at that time teachers in the public schools; but such teachers may be promoted, from time to time, without being required to pass an examination. And provided further, That this rule shall not apply to such Sections specially exempted by Act of Assembly.

XVIII. No person elected by a Sectional Board to a position as teacher in any of the public schools of the District shall be entitled to any of the rights, privileges, or emoluments of such position, until said election be reported to and approved by this Board.

XIX. No person of bad character, or of intemperate or other immoral habits, shall be elected a teacher in any of the public schools.

XX. No person who, by reason of ill health, extreme age, or other sufficient cause, is incompetent to discharge the duties of a teacher, shall be eligible to a position as such.

XXI. When any election, transfer, or promotion of a teacher is reported to this Board, the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools shall ascertain whether the same is in accordance with the provisions of Section X., XI., XII., XV., XVII., XVIII., XIX., and XX., of this By-Law, before reporting the same for confirmation by this Board; and all charges of violation of the provisions of said Sections shall be made in writing, and shall be referred to said Committee, who shall investigate, and report the facts at the next meeting of the Board.

The examination held at the Girls' Normal School, at the close of the third year's course of study therein, shall also be an examination of the qualifications of the members of the graduating class of said school to become teachers in the public schools of this District.

Said examination shall be upon the studies taught during the third year of the course; and shall be conducted by the faculty of said school, under the supervision of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers, in such manner as may be prescribed by said Committee and the Committee on Girls' Normal School.

A Principal's certificate shall be awarded by the Committee on Qualification of Teachers to each pupil of said school, who, having obtained a general average scholarship of 85, or upwards, at the examination aforesaid, shall also obtain a general average of 85, or upwards, for her work as a teacher in the School of Practice, and for her scholarship, during the fourth year of the Normal School course.

In like manner, an Assistant's Certificate shall be awarded to each pupil who shall have obtained averages of 70 or upwards (and less than 85), at the said examination and during the fourth year of the Normal School course.

A pupil who, having obtained an average of 85, or upwards, at the examination aforesaid, shall receive an average of 70 or upwards (and less than 85), during the fourth year of the course, shall be entitled to an Assistant's Certificate.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on Girls' Normal School to certify to the Committee on Qualification of Teachers the averages which shall be earned by the pupils of said school during the fourth year of the course; and said averages shall be attested by the Principals of the Girls' Normal School and of the Department of Practice therein. Thereupon the Committee on Qualification of Teachers shall issue Certificates to the pupils who shall be entitled thereto.

XXIII. Provisions governing the examination of members of the graduating class of the Boys' Central High School.

The examination held at the Boys' Central High School, at the close of the term which completes the full course of study in said school, shall also be an examination of the qualifications of the members of the graduating class of said school to become teachers in the public schools of this District.

Said examination shall be upon the studies taught during the term which completes the full course of instruction in said school; and shall be conducted by the faculty of said school, under the supervision of the Committee on Qualification of Teachers, in such manner as may be prescribed by said Committee and the Committee on Boys' Central High School.

A Principal's certificate shall be awarded by the Committee on Qualification of Teachers to each pupil of said school who shall obtain a general average scholarship of 85, or upwards, at said examination.

XXIV. No change shall be made in this By-Law, unless such change shall have been proposed at a stated meeting of the Board, laid over for one month before being considered, and shall have received the vote of two-thirds of the entire Board.

XVII.

Duties of the Committee on Reports of Schools.

They shall carefully examine all reports of Schools, and present an abstract therefrom to the Board; they shall report all schools in which there are more teachers than the quarterly average attendance of the pupils will warrant (as required by Rule XXIV. of the Board), and shall visit the schools as they may deem expedient for required information. In computing such average attendance, the month of June shall be excluded.

XVIII.

Duties of the Committee on Office and Expenses.

This Committee shall have the general supervision of the office and rooms of the Board, and of the office employés; determine what books shall be opened; prescribe the manner in which the records of the office shall be kept; report the amount and kind of clerical and other working force that may be required from time to time, and regulate and assign the clerical duties of the office. They shall have control of the general items for carriage hire, advertising, and printing, and shall indicate the proportion of said items which may be expended by the different Committees of the Board. They shall purchase all articles necessary for the use of the Board (not otherwise provided for). All bills for such expenses shall be approved by them before they shall be allowed by the Committee on Accounts.

XIX.

Duties of the Committee on Revision of Studies.

They shall observe the operation of the "Course of Instruction," as fixed by the Board, and shall report, from time to time, what change, if any, the same may require.

XX.

Duties of the Committee on Estimates.

They shall visit, as far as practicable, annually, each of the school-buildings occupied by authority of this Board, and ascertain if any repairs, additions, or improvements are necessary for the well-being of the schools.

They shall also examine the outside surroundings of all the school-rooms occupied as above, and determine what is required relative thereto, for the convenience, health, and comfort of the pupils, and for the preservation of the property of the city.

They shall prepare and report to this Board, at the Stated Meeting in October, a detailed statement, classified in "School Sections," showing the requirements of the Sectional Boards, with the estimated cost thereof.

They shall also report the amount required by the "Committee on Supplies" (as reported by them), and estimate the sum needed for the expenses of the several Committees (as reported by them), showing the entire requirements of the "First School District," prepared in form to be submitted to the City Councils (in accordance with the "Act of Assembly") as the estimated expense for school purposes for the coming year.

They shall cause a "Record" to be kept in a book prepared for the purpose, and called "Record of Committee on Estimates," stating the precise wants of the respective sections for all purposes, and when increased above the estimate of the previous year, the increase of each item shall be plainly stated, so that the full particulars can be submitted to this Board and to the Councils of the City, when desired. They shall meet at least monthly, and report their proceedings at each Stated Meeting of the Board.

For properly securing the object desired in the appointment of this Committee, the Secretary of this Board shall notify each Sectional Board, at least thirty days prior to the Stated Meeting of this Board in September, to report to the Board at said meeting, a detailed statement of all special items of repairs needed in the respective sections for the coming year, with the probable amount needed therefor attached to each item.

They shall have power to require the attendance and services of any of the employees of this Board, so far as may seem to them proper, in performance of the duties to which they have been appointed.

XXI.

Duties of the Committee on Music.

The Committee on Music shall have charge of all matter pertaining to that study in the Public Schools. Instruction in music, in addition to that given by the regular teachers, as provided in the "Graded Course," shall be given by a superintendent, who shall be the principal Music Teacher of the District, and by as many special music teachers as the Committee may deem necessary, but not more than one for each section. The salary of the superintendent shall be the same as that of a Principal of a Boys' Grammar School, and those of the special music teachers shall be fixed by the Committee, subject to the approval of the Board.

The Committee shall nominate to the Board the person to fill the office of Superintendent (when a vacancy occurs), who, after confirmation by the Board, shall hold said office until removed by the same. The Committee, whenever they may deem necessary, shall hold examinations of applicants for positions as music teachers; such examinations to be conducted in such manner as the Committee may prescribe; and no person elected by a Sectional Board as music teacher shall be confirmed as such by this Board, unless he or she shall have received a certificate of qualification at such examination, or shall hold a certificate of qualification issued prior to the adoption of this By-Law.

The Committee shall require the Superintendent to visit and examine orally (not for promotion) each Grammar School, at least once in six months, and the lower schools as often as possible. They shall, also, require each music teacher to give instruction for at least one hour per week in each Grammar and Secondary School, and for at least one-half hour every other week in each Primary School under his or her charge. Such instruction shall comprise in the Grammar School the theory of music, and the practice of exercises and songs, and in the lower schools the practice of exercises and songs only. No exercises, or songs shall be practiced other than those approved by the Superintendent or the committees of the respective schools, and each school shall be at all times, as to discipline, under the charge of its principal. At the semi-annual examinations for promotion, music shall be one of the subjects of examination in each school.

The Committee shall require from the Superintendent on the first of December, March, and June of each year, a report on the progress and condition of the study of music in the schools, which report shall be, at all times, open to the inspection of members of the Board. The Committee shall prepare and present at the stated meeting in December, an annual report, also, for publication.

The Committee shall require the Music Teachers, and invite the regular teachers, to meet the superintendent, at least once a month, at such times and places as the Committee may prescribe, for instruction in music and in teaching the same.

XXII.

Duties of the Committee on By-Laws and Rules.

All proposed changes in the By-Laws and Rules of this Board shall be referred to the Committee on By-Laws and Rules. But no amendments to said By-Laws or Rules, or alterations of them, shall originate with the Committee.

Unless otherwise instructed, said Committee shall report to the Board, at the regular Stated Meeting immediately succeeding that at which the proposed changes or amendments shall have been referred to them.

XXIII.

Duties of Committee on Audits.

They shall examine the date upon which warrants are drawn, and shall certify, by initials of Chairman, or in some other satisfactory manner, on each warrant, that such warrant is properly vouched for.

They shall audit the cash account and expenditures of the office of the Board, as kept by the Secretary, and shall certify the same on the cash book, at least quarterly in every year.

They shall have the supervision of all warrants, the payment of which is suspended or delayed; and shall make a report to the Board, at least semi-annually, of all such suspended or delayed warrants, stating the cause for such suspension or delay.

XXIV.

Committees shall report at the next Stated Meeting, upon all matters referred to them by the Board, except wherein otherwise ordered. And, hereafter, in all reference of matter to the respective Standing Committees, it shall be with power to act, unless otherwise provided.

XXV.

The Minute Books of the several Committees of the Board shall be deposited at the office of the Board, subject to the inspection of the members of the Board.

XXVI.

Approval of Bills by Committees.

Every Committee which may have the approval of any bill or account, shall have a separate stamp, whereon shall be cut the style of the Committee. No bill shall be considered as approved by any Committee unless the same shall be stamped by the Chairman, or, in his absence, by the Chairman pro tem., at a meeting of the Committee, and the name of such Chairman then and there written over the same. The Chairman of the Committee on Accounts may stamp his name on bills approved by said Committee.

XXVII.

Hereafter none of the Public School buildings of this District shall be named after living persons.

XXVIII.

Amendments.

No amendment shall be made to these By-Laws unless proposed at a Stated Meeting and laid over for one month before being considered. Provided, nevertheless, That any By-Law may be suspended by the concurring vote of two-thirds of the entire Board at any Stated Meeting.

XXIX.

Mathias' Manual is adopted for the government of the Board.

RULES.

I.

The office of the Board shall be kept open from the hours of nine o'clock A. M. to three o'clock P. M.

II.

All communications to this Board for alterations, additions, or repairs to school-houses, or for changing the grade of a school, or for permission to increase the number of teachers in any school, or for an increase in the salaries of teachers or housekeepers, shall be referred to the appropriate Committee by the Chair, unless otherwise ordered.

III.

All contracts for building school-houses, for repairs, alterations, or improvements of the same, and for the purchase of any lot or lots, shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Board.

IV.

Sectional Boards shall not make any contract beyond the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars without first obtaining permission from this Board.

V.

All bills from the several sections must be presented at the office of the Board at least one week prior to the Stated Meetings of the Board, otherwise they shall lie over for one month.

VI.

No Sectional Board shall have power to purchase any books or stationery now furnished by this Board.

VII.

No bills shall be paid by this Board for the services of any substitute employed in case of sickness or absence of any teacher.

VIII.

All bills for the salaries of teachers and janitors shall be passed by the Sectional Boards at their meetings in February, May, August, and November.

Janitors receiving a salary of $400, or upwards, shall be required to be in attendance during the school sessions, and no janitor shall receive compensation for more than one building. They shall be required to have the school-house opened at least fifteen minutes before the time fixed for opening the schools, and pupils shall be allowed to enter the school on their arrival at the building.

IX.

The Directors of the Sectional Board shall require the principal teachers in their respective Sections to keep registers of the age, name, and date of admission, and place of birth of each pupil, and the name, residence, and occupation of his or her parent or guardian, as well as a record, in which they shall accurately note the exact time when the several teachers shall arrive at the schools in the morning and the afternoon.

X.

The Sectional Boards shall require from the principal teachers, in accordance with the prescribed form, monthly reports, which shall be approved by a Visiting Director. They shall also require from said principal teachers, to be approved by a Visiting Director, quarterly reports, stating to what extent the Course of Studies, as prescribed in the printed "Course of Instruction," adopted by this Board, together with the rules connected therewith, are adhered to.

XI.

The principals of the schools of this district shall keep a daily record of the number of pupils actually present, and the number absent on account of sickness, and in computing the average attendance for the day, the sick shall be computed as in attendance.

The principal teacher in each school shall send to the Secretary of the Sectional Board, to be forwarded by him to the Secretary of this Board at least one week previous to the first day of January, April, July, and October, a quarterly report, approved by one of the Visiting Directors; and an annual report at least one week previous to the first of January, also approved by a Visiting Director. The Secretary shall not deliver the warrants for the said principal teachers' salaries until the quarterly and annual reports are deposited with him.

XII.

All supplies of books and stationery shall be obtained by a requisition upon the Secretary of this Board, signed by the Principal of the school and attested by one of the Visiting Committee.

No book shall be used in the Public Schools as a text-book unless duly authorized by this Board.

Any teacher who shall permit any book not on the list of supplies to be used as a text-book in his or her school shall, upon proof of the offence being made, be stricken from the pay list of the Board.

No pupil shall be requested or required to purchase any book, except to replace a lost or damaged book.

No teacher shall be permitted to sell to the pupils any supplies received from this Board.

Any teacher who shall traffic in, exchange, or sell any of the supplies furnished to the schools, or shall in any other way violate the rules of this Board, shall, upon the proof of such charge, be stricken from the pay list of the Board.

All books shall be stamped or stenciled in several places, as follows (before supplying them to the schools): "The property of the Board of Public Education of the First School District of Pennsylvania."

XIII.

When the average required for the appointment of an additional teacher has been attained in any school, the Sectional Board having charge of such school may appoint such additional teacher, subject to confirmation or rejection by this Board at its next Stated Meeting. Provided, That no division shall be formed or teacher confirmed without the approval of the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools, who shall visit the schools and ascertain that the average attendance and number in waiting justify the same.

XIV.

All bills for the salaries of teachers must be presented in the names of such teachers.

XV.

In all cases where the salary of the teacher does not exceed four hundred dollars, females shall be employed.

XVI.

Sectional Boards shall be required to forward all bills passed by them, and a schedule thereof; said bills to be properly endorsed, specifying the number of the Section, the name of the individual in whose favor drawn, and for what account and the amount. All bills must be approved by at least two members of the Committee on Accounts of the Sectional Boards.

XVII.

No pupil of one school shall be admitted into another without a transfer or written permission, signed by the Visiting Committee of the school from which said transfer is made, and approved by the Committee of the school to which the same is presented. Nevertheless, a pupil in good standing in any of the schools of this District shall in no case be refused a transfer to a school of the same grade nearer his or her residence; and it shall be the duty of the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools to stop the supply of any school whose Committee shall violate the above rule.

XVIII.

No pupil shall be received into any of the schools of this District who is not bonâ fide domiciled therein. In case of the removal of a pupil from the District, he or she shall no longer be received into any of said schools. Provided, this rule shall not apply to schools expressly excepted by the Act of Assembly.

XIX.

Morning and afternoon sessions shall be held in all the schools of the First District; the morning sessions to commence at 9 A. M., and close at 12 M., and the afternoon session to commence at 2 P. M. and close at 4 P. M., except from the first of June to the commencement of the summer vacation, and from the first to the fifteenth of September, there shall be one session only from 9 A. M. to 12 M., with thirty minutes intermission. One hour and a-half of said session shall be devoted to recitations, and one hour and a-half to the preparation of the lessons for the succeeding day. When it shall be found necessary by the Visiting Directors, by reason of bad weather, to hold one session, the same shall be of five hours' duration, including a recess of twenty minutes. In every case of violation of this rule, the further supplies of the school violating the same shall be stopped by the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools; and report shall be made thereof to this Board, at its next Stated Meeting, by said Committee.

SEC. 2. At the opening of each session of the schools, at least ten verses of the Bible shall be read without note or comment, to the pupils by the principals, or, in his or her absence, by one of the assistants. A suitable hymn may also be sung.

XX.

In making the average attendance for the monthly and quarterly reports, the number absent from sickness shall be computed with the number actually present.

XXI.

Pupils who shall have honorably completed the course of studies prescribed for the "Senior Class," to the satisfaction of the Principal and Visiting Committee, shall receive a suitable diploma at graduation.

XXII.

The morning session of the Primary, Secondary, and Grammar Schools shall be devoted to recitations by the pupils, and explanations and instructions by the teachers. The afternoon sessions shall be given entirely to the preparation of lessons by the pupils, under the care and supervision of the principal and assistant teachers.

Home study may be optional with pupils, but shall not, in any case, be required by the teachers. When text-books are taken home by the pupils it shall be those only each day in which recitations have been prepared in the afternoon for the ensuing day; and no addition shall be made to the lesson assigned on account of the books being taken home. The true principle in education is, "not how much, but how well." Short lessons are, therefore, enjoined in all cases, and teachers prohibited from using the text books in recitations, except in Orthography, Etymology, and Reading.

XXIII.

Promotions from the Primary to the Secondary, and from the Secondary into the Grammar Schools, shall be made semi-annually. The principals of the Grammar Schools shall prescribe and regulate the manner of all such promotions, but all promotions must be restricted to those pupils who attain the highest average scholarship, as shown by the average of the daily marking during the previous term, combined with the average marks that may be obtained at such semi-annual examinations; the pupils of the Primary Schools, as regards their promotion to Secondary Schools, to be exempt from the application of so much of the provision of this rule as refers to the term average, promotions from the Primary Schools to the Secondary Schools being made on the averages obtained on the written examinations only. Promotions, however, from one division of any school to a higher division of the same school may be made whenever, in the judgment of the Principal, the progress of the pupil may require; but all promotions from one grade of schools to another must be made conformably to the above.

All examinations, so far as practicable, shall be in writing, and shall occur semi-annually, during the last two weeks of the months of June and January, respectively; Provided however, that candidates for admission into the Central High School may be examined during the first two weeks of January and June, and candidates for admission into the Girls' Normal School may be examined during the first two weeks of June.

XXIV.

The "Graded Course of Instruction," and the rules accompanying the same, shall form a part of the rules of the Board, and shall not in any respect be changed, unless such change shall be proposed at one Stated Meeting of the Board, to be acted upon at the next, and shall receive the approval of two-thirds of the whole Board.

The studies of the Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools shall be pursued in the order laid down in the "Graded Course of Instruction," and no omission therein or addition thereto shall be permitted.

The period of six months shall be devoted to the instruction of each division in the studies allotted to it. Any Grammar School, in which shall be introduced studies not authorized by this Board, shall be reduced to the grade of a Consolidated School.

XXV.

In all Grammar Schools requiring the services of three or more assistant teachers, the class taught by the Principal shall be designated and known as the "Senior Class," and shall pursue, under the special instruction of the Principal, the Supplemental Course of Studies prescribed in the "Graded Course of Instruction," approved by this Board. The remaining classes shall be designated and known as the First, Second, Third, Fourth, etc., divisions, respectively, and shall be in charge of the respective Assistant Teachers, under the supervision and direction of the Principal.

Pupils who shall have completed the course of studies of the first division of a Grammar School, shall be promoted into the Senior Class of the Grammar School.

The two lower divisions of such of the Grammar Schools as may contain five or more divisions, exclusive of the Senior Class, shall receive, in equal numbers, the most proficient pupils of the secondary department, and the course of study in said two lower divisions shall be identical, and promotion shall be made from both into the next higher division of the school.

XXVI.

The average attendance of pupils of the Senior Class, of a Grammar School of four or more divisions, shall not be less than thirty (30); and each division of the Grammar and Secondary Schools shall contain at least an average attendance of forty pupils to each teacher.

The average attendance in the Primary Schools shall not be less than forty to each teacher, except in the lowest division, which shall not exceed fifty.

XXVII.

Primary and Secondary Schools may be conducted under one Principal, when both are located in the same building, and there are not less than eight divisions in the two schools combined, with an average attendance of forty pupils to each teacher, including the Principal. In such case, the Principal shall not be required to teach a division, but shall give her entire time to superintendence of the school, and shall be responsible for the work of every department. Such organization shall be first asked for by the Sectional Boards and approved by the Committee on Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools.

The salaries of the Principal and Assistants in the Secondary and Primary Departments shall be the same as those paid to Principals and Assistants in Secondary and Primary Schools.

The President of the Central High School shall make semi-annual requisitions upon all schools authorized to send pupils to said institution. The quota for each Grammar School shall be one pupil for each division, including the Senior Class. Provided, any Grammar School having an average attendance of thirty pupils over the number required, shall be entitled to send an additional pupil. The quota for any other school shall be one pupil for each grammar division. If the number of pupils required for the Central High School shall not be supplied, the president shall be authorized to make additional requisitions. A certificate must be sent from each school, stating the name of each pupil sent, that he is not under thirteen years of age, and that he has been, for the six months next preceding, a student in the school from which he is sent. This certificate must be signed by the principal and visiting directors of the school, and countersigned by the member of this Board in which the school is situated.

The Faculty of the Central High School shall examine the pupils so sent, in Orthography, Etymology, and Defining, Principles of Grammar, and Analysis of Sentences, Parsing, Composition, Reading, Penmanship, History of the United States, Geography, Drawing, and Arithmetic; and upon the last named subject, two sets of questions shall be given, to be marked as two studies.

The questions in this examination shall be such as can be answered from the text-books authorized to be used in the Grammar Schools. No pupil shall be admitted into the Central High School who shall not have attained a general average of 60 or upwards, at such examination.

The pupils attaining a general average of 60, or over, shall be admitted into the Central High School in the order of their averages.

The Hebrew Educational Society and the Beck School shall each be entitled to send two pupils, who are of the required age, to said examination, upon a certificate signed by the Principal and Visiting Directors of said schools, and said pupils shall, if properly qualified, be admitted from said schools.

XXVIII.

At the stated meeting of the Board which immediately precedes the admission of a new class to the Girls' Normal School (or sooner, if necessary) the Committee on that School shall present a report, stating the quota of pupils which the respective School Sections shall be entitled to promote to the Normal School in the manner hereinafter specified.

When the Board shall have taken action on said report, the Principals of the Grammar and Consolidated Schools in said sections shall be notified, by the Committee on Girls' Normal School, of the number of pupils who, if properly qualified, will be admitted from said schools respectively.

Prior to their admission to the Girls' Normal School, said pupils shall be examined in Arithmetic, Definitions, Spelling, Reading, Penmanship, Principles of Grammar, Parsing, Composition, Geography (excepting Physical Geography), and History of the United States; and no pupil who shall fail to obtain a general average of 60, or upwards, at said examination, shall be admitted to the School.

Said examination shall be conducted by a Committee of Principals of the Girls' Grammar Schools; who shall be selected, by lot, by the Normal School Committee.

The questions at said examination shall be such as can be answered from the text-books authorized to be used in the Senior Classes of the Girls' Grammar School; except that, in the examination on Geography and History of the United States, the questions shall be such as can be answered from the text-books used in the first division of the Grammar Schools.

Each Grammar or Consolidated School may send to the said examination double the number of pupils who, if properly qualified, would form the quota which the school may be entitled to promote to the Girls' Normal School; and such of said pupils as shall make the highest general averages (not less than 60), shall be selected to form the quota of the school.

Such of the remaining applicants for admission to the Girls' Normal School, as shall have made the highest general averages (not less than 60), shall be selected to fill any deficiency in the supply of the pupils required for the Normal School, which may be caused by the failure of any Grammar or Consolidated School to secure its quota of pupils at said examination.

No pupil of any Grammar or Consolidated School shall be allowed to attend said examination, unless her name appears upon a certificate, signed by the Principal of the school from which she is sent, and countersigned by the Member of the Board of Public Education who represents the Section in which said school is located, stating that said pupil has, for not less than six months immediately preceding the date of said certificate, been a member of the Senior Class of the school, and that she will be at least fourteen years of age on the first Monday of September following the date of the certificate.

The Hebrew Educational Society, the Beck School, and the University School shall, each, be entitled to send four pupils, who are of the required age, to said examination, upon a certificate signed by the Principal and Visiting Directors of the school; and two of said pupils shall, if properly qualified, be admitted from each of said schools.

XXIX.

The commencements of the Central High School shall be held on the Thursday after the second Tuesday in February, and on the last Wednesday in June.

The commencement exercises of the Girls' Normal School shall be held annually during the month of June.

XXX.

The studies pursued in the Consolidated Schools may embrace all grades taught in the Grammar, Secondary, and Primary Schools, inclusive, and such supplies shall be furnished as the attainments of the pupils may require.

XXXI.

The summer vacation of the schools shall consist of the months of July and August. The schools shall be closed from the 24th of December till the 2d of January; on Washington's Birthday, on Good Friday and Easter Monday; on the 4th of July, and on National and State Thanksgiving and Fast Days.

The Committee on Accounts shall deduct from the salaries of the teachers of such schools as close before the time of vacation above specified, a proportionate amount of their respective salaries. The Committee on Office and Expenses is vested with authority to direct the Public Schools of this District to be closed on occasions which, in the opinion of the Committee, shall render such closing advisable.

XXXII.

Hereafter all schools in this District shall be recognized on the books of the Board by numerals only, and Sectional Boards shall be required, in all reports relating to said schools, to adopt a system of numbers by which their schools shall be registered in future.

XXXIII.

No child shall be admitted or continued as a pupil in any school in the First School District who has not been vaccinated, and it shall be the duty of the Principals to report, quarterly, to the Sectional Boards the number of non-vaccinated children applying for admission as pupils to their schools, and the names of the pupils, if any, who have not been vaccinated; and these reports, or copies of the same, shall be transmitted to the Board of Public Education by the Sectional Boards, and in any instance where a Principal shall fail to comply with this rule, the salary of said Principal shall be withheld until the rule shall be complied with. When small-pox, varioloid, scarlet fever, diphtheria or measles shall exist in a family whereof any pupil of the Public Schools is a member, such pupil shall not be permitted to attend school until he or she shall present the certificate of a physician stating that all liability to contract disease by contact with the members of the family of such pupil has passed away.

XXXIV.

It shall be the duty of every teacher hereafter elected, transferred, or promoted, by any Sectional Board, before entering upon the duties of the position to which he or she may have been elected, transferred, or promoted, to register his or her name in the office of this Board, with the date of certificate of qualification, position last held, and also that to which elected, promoted, or transferred.

XXXV.

No agent or other person interested in the sale of books or other supplies shall be permitted to visit teachers at the schools for the purpose of interesting them in the sale of these articles; all teachers are requested to report to this Board the names of those who hereafter violate this rule.

XXXVI.

None of the public school-buildings of this District shall be used for any other than public school purposes.

XXXVII.

The Rules and regulations of this Board shall be kept prominently posted in each school of this District.

XXXVIII.

These rules shall not be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the whole Board, nor shall they be changed, unless said change be proposed at one Stated Meeting of the Board, to be acted upon at the next, and shall receive the approval of two-thirds of the whole Board.

XXXIX.

Plan for grading the salaries of the teachers of the public schools on the basis of experience and efficiency.

SCHEDULE A.

GRADATION UPON A RELATIVE BASIS.

I.

The standing of teachers in scholarship shall rest upon their Certificates, as already provided in Section XVI. of the By-Laws of this Board.

II.

The salaries paid to teachers of the public schools of this City shall be apportioned upon the basis of their teaching experience and efficiency. For the purpose of this apportionment, such teachers shall be suitably classified according to the number of years they have been actually employed in teaching.

To the class of teachers having the least experience, the lowest salary shall be affixed. To this salary shall be added a suitable sum to constitute the salary of the next class. And so on, adding continually the same increment to each class of salaries in order to fix the salary of the class next higher.

III.

To pass from any one of the above classes to the next higher one, the candidate shall present proof of the length of his or her service in the public schools of this District. The records of this Board shall be taken as evidence of such service.

IV.

Additional compensation shall be given to principals of the public schools, for the performance of the administrative duties required of them; and to all assistants in Grammar Schools, and certain assistants in Consolidated Schools, in consideration of the fact that their duties demand a larger amount of time than is needed to be given by assistants in other grades of schools.

Plan for grading the salaries of the teachers of the public schools on the basis of experience and efficiency.

To take effect on January 1st, 1880.

SCHEDULE B.

GRADATION UPON AN ABSOLUTE BASIS.

I.

The standing of teachers in scholarship shall rest upon their Certificates, as already provided in Section XVI. of the By-Laws of this Board.

II.

The salaries paid to teachers of the public schools of this City shall be apportioned upon the basis of their teaching experience and efficiency. For the purpose of this apportionment, such teachers shall be classified as follows:

Teachers who have actually taught five years, and over.

Teachers who have actually taught four years, and less than five.

Teachers who have actually taught three years, and less than four.

Teachers who have actually taught two years, and less than three.

Teachers who have actually taught over one year, and less than two years.

Teachers who have actually taught less than one year.

To the class of teachers last above-named, there shall be paid a salary of three hundred and twenty dollars. To this salary shall be added the sum of thirty dollars, to constitute the salary of the next class; and so on, adding continually thirty dollars to the salary of each class, in order to fix the salary of the next higher class.

For the year 1880 all persons who have been confirmed as teachers in the schools of this city during the year 1879, shall be classed as teachers who have taught over one year and less than two years.

Service in the public schools of other school districts shall be computed in the case of any person who may be elected principal of a Boys' Grammar School or a Consolidated School in this district.

No advance in the salary of a teacher shall be made for any fraction of a year.

III.

To pass from any one of the above classes to the next higher one, the candidate shall present proof of the length of his or her service in the public schools of this district. The records of this Board shall be taken as evidence of such service.

IV.

Additional compensation shall be given to principals of the public schools, for the performance of the administrative duties required of them; and to all assistants in Grammar Schools, and certain assistants in Consolidated Schools, in consideration of the fact that their duties demand a larger amount of time than is needed to be given by assistants in other grades of schools.
